TV families are spared the juggling act, study says

By Jacqueline Cutler
TVDATA FEATURES WRITER

Cover story

If you don't know what a work-family conflict is, you're either blessed or a television executive.

Those of us who juggle the care of preschool children and ailing parents with mounting deadlines and mandatory meetings are intimate with the term.

But don't look to TV for confirmation that you're not alone.

Ninety-nine percent of prime-time TV characters never experience work-family conflicts, according to a study commissioned by the National Partnership for Women & Families, a nonprofit organization lobbying for quality health care, laws to help people balance work and family, and fairness in the workplace.

"We wanted to look at how family and work is portrayed in that television is such a powerful force in life," says Lauren Asher, communications director for the partnership. "It both reflects and shapes our expectations. And, research has shown that in a lot of different ways, no one had really looked at how working people on television negotiate the delicate balance between their obligations at home and at work.'

A main exception noted in the report is Fox's "Party of Five." Now in its sixth season, the show about siblings taking care of one another after their parents die hits on a variety of work-family conflicts.

Charlie Salinger (Matthew Fox) recently assumed a management role that's eating up a lot of time, says P.K. Simonds, executive producer. "Like so many jobs, it appears to be one thing, and in reality, it's another. Then, you renegotiate the understanding you had with your loved one."

Simonds, the father of a 2-year-old son, says he draws from his own life for ideas for the show. Salinger took this job to pay for expensive fertility procedures. His wife is now pregnant, "and the job he started to pay those bills offered other opportunities." The offers are too good to refuse, Simonds says, "but the pressure keeps mounting at home."

While citing "Party of Five" as one of the best at depicting work-family conflict, the study did not rank the worst offenders. "We're not ranking, just counting, and (the best) are hard enough to find," says Asher.

The study also found:

- 69 percent of male characters and 62 percent of female characters are shown in work settings.
- 61 percent of the adults shown in work settings are not parents.
- Females are more likely to be identified by their marital and maternal status while males are more likely to be identified by their careers.

Masterson is the eldest '70s' 'teen-ager'

By Taylor Michaels
TVDATA FEATURES WRITER

What are the ages of all the kids on "That '70s Show"? Is Danny Masterson, who plays Steven "Steve" Hyde on that Fox show, related to Mary Stuart Masterson ("Black and Blue")? -D.B., Punta Gorda, Fla.

In descending order: Masterson, 24; Ashton Kutcher, 22; Topher Grace, 21; Laura Prepon and Wilmer Valderrama, both 20; and Mila Kunis, 16.

Danny isn't related to Mary Stuart, but he is the older brother of Christopher Kennedy Masterson, who plays the eldest sibling on "Malcolm in the Middle."

Who played Artemus Gordon opposite Robert Conrad's Jim West in the TV series "The Wild, Wild West"? -Helen Kofoed, Chicago.

Ross Martin played Artemus in that tongue-in-cheek adventure series. The Polish-born actor suffered from a heart attack during the run of the show. He died in 1981 of complications from his heart condition. He was 61.

Pipeline

~~Does Laura Innes, who plays Dr.~~ Kerry Weaver on "ER," really need that device to help her walk? -C. Vitale, Fairview, N.J.

That's a character point invented by the show's writers.

Do the story lines of "The West Wing" follow the real procedures of our government or is that fictional? -M.M. Keilman, Valparaiso, Ind.

The show's principal writer and creator, Aaron Sorkin, draws upon the information he amassed while writing "The American President," as well as input from insiders such as President Bill Clinton's former press secretary, Dee Dee Myers. He also takes liberties for the sake of making compelling drama.

Is Jennifer Convy of HGTV's "Awesome Interiors" related to the late Bert Convy? -Judy C., Marion, Ohio.

She's his daughter.

What was the mid-1990s drama in which Kimberly Williams ("The 10th Kingdom") played a character named Isabella? -Debbie Pyle, Gibbon Glade, Pa.

Williams played Isabel Lukens in ABC's "Relativity."

I say Lara Flynn Boyle ("The Practice") played the youngest daughter on "Gimme a Break," but my husband says I'm wrong. -A.D. via e-mail.

Lara Jill Miller played Samantha "Sam" Kanisky on that sitcom.

I remember a suspense series in the early '70s on NBC called "Circle of Fear." Can you tell me about it? -M. Moffa, Marianna, Fla.

Sebastian Cabot ("Family Affair") hosted an anthology series called "Ghost Story," which premiered on NBC in 1972. Plot lines involved vampires, ghosts and witches. When Cabot left the show a few weeks later, it was renamed "Circle of Fear," and its stories didn't always involve the supernatural.

SUNDAY'S BEST BETS

Auto Racing
1 P.M. ON CBS

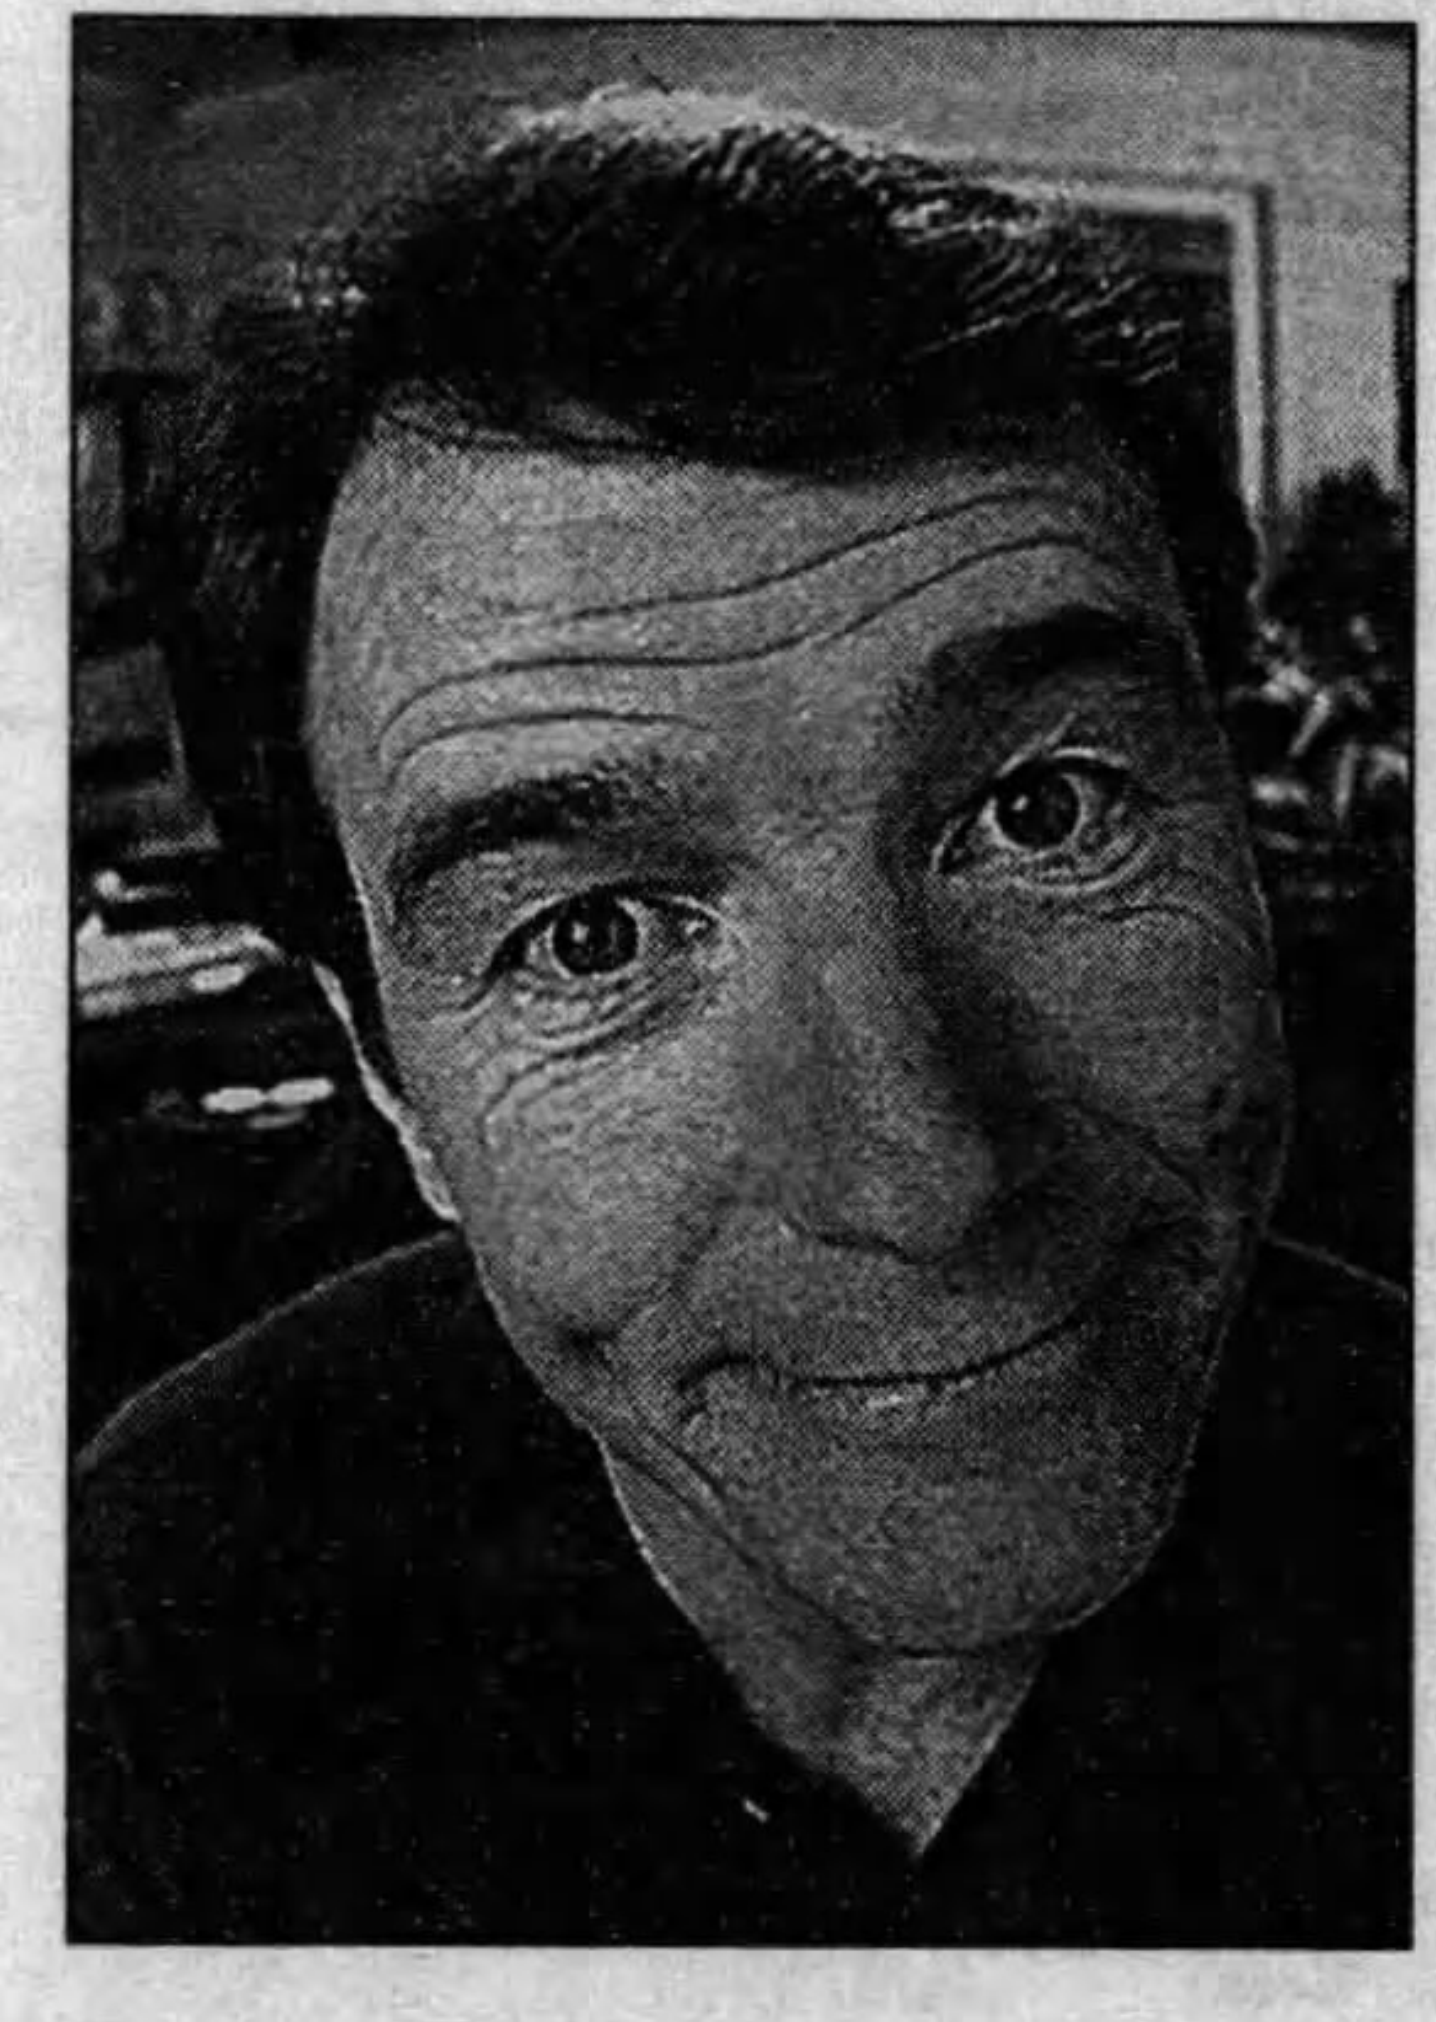
The man known as "Texas Terry" returns to the Lone Star State, hoping some home cooking fuels the rest of his NASCAR Winston Cup season. Terry Labonte drove to victory last season at the Texas Motor Speedway in Fort Worth, the site of the Primestar 500, now called the DirecTV 500. It was an emotional day for the Corpus Christi, Texas, native, and he called it the biggest race he'd ever won. Unfortunately for Labonte, the home-state win didn't provide him any momentum. It turned out to be his only top-five finish of the season.

Biography
7 P.M. ON A&E

We all know Charles Lindbergh as the history-making aviator; his wife, Anne, as the sensitive author; and both of them as the tragic heroes in the drama surrounding the loss of their son. "Charles and Anne Lindbergh: Alone Together" goes between the lines of history's pages to reveal the private sides of this very public couple, as well as their lesser-known accomplishments separately and together. Among those interviewed are their daughter, friends and biographers, including Pulitzer Prize winner A. Scott Berg.

Movie: A Place in the Sun
7 P.M. ON AMC

An ambitious young laborer (Montgomery Clift) goes to work in his rich uncle's factory and becomes involved with a co-worker (Shelley Winters). But he soon has his eye on a more valuable prize: a wealthy beauty (Elizabeth Taylor) from his uncle's circle. His factory-girl lover is still in the way — and in the family way — until one fateful afternoon in a boat. This 1951 adaptation of Theodore Dreiser's fact-based novel "An American Tragedy" won six Oscars, including best director for George Stevens.



Bryan Cranston
MALCOLM IN THE MIDDLE

Movie: Noriega: God's Favorite
7 P.M. ON SHOW

Director Roger Spottiswoode is equally at home with the silly ("Turner & Hooch") and serious ("And the Band Played On"), and it shows in this black-comedy-tinged tale of the former Panamanian leader's rise and fall. Bob Hoskins ("Who Framed Roger Rabbit") stars as Manuel Noriega, who tells his life in flashback to a priest at the Vatican Embassy as American troops try to drive him out by blasting rock music. Nestor Carbonell, Rosa Blasi and Michael Sorich also star.

Malcolm in the Middle
7:30 P.M. ON FOX

Hal (Bryan Cranston) takes Malcolm, Reese and Dewey (Frankie Muniz, Justin Berfield, Erik Per Sullivan) out of school and off to the stock-car races for a day of fun. But it turns out the boys have a different idea of what's fun and sneak off to get into mischief. Back home, Lois (Jane Kaczmarek) tears the house apart looking for a missing check and finds lots of things she didn't know about in "Stock Car Races."

Williams recieves recognition

Talk the Talk

By Lorri Antosz Benson
TVDATA FEATURES WRITER

Ever since talk show host Montel Williams went public with his battle with multiple sclerosis, he has worked to bring attention to the debilitating disease and the search for a cure.

Williams' commitment is being recognized later this month during a gala evening in Los Angeles. The event, airing April 28 on VH1, is part of the seventh annual Race to Erase MS.

Williams is being honored by the Multiple Sclerosis Foundation as the "Man of Courage" for his strength and determination in helping to find a cure.

The gala also raises funds for the foundation's Center Without Walls, a national collaboration of eminent physicians, scientists and clinicians who are developing research programs and therapeutic approaches to eliminate MS.

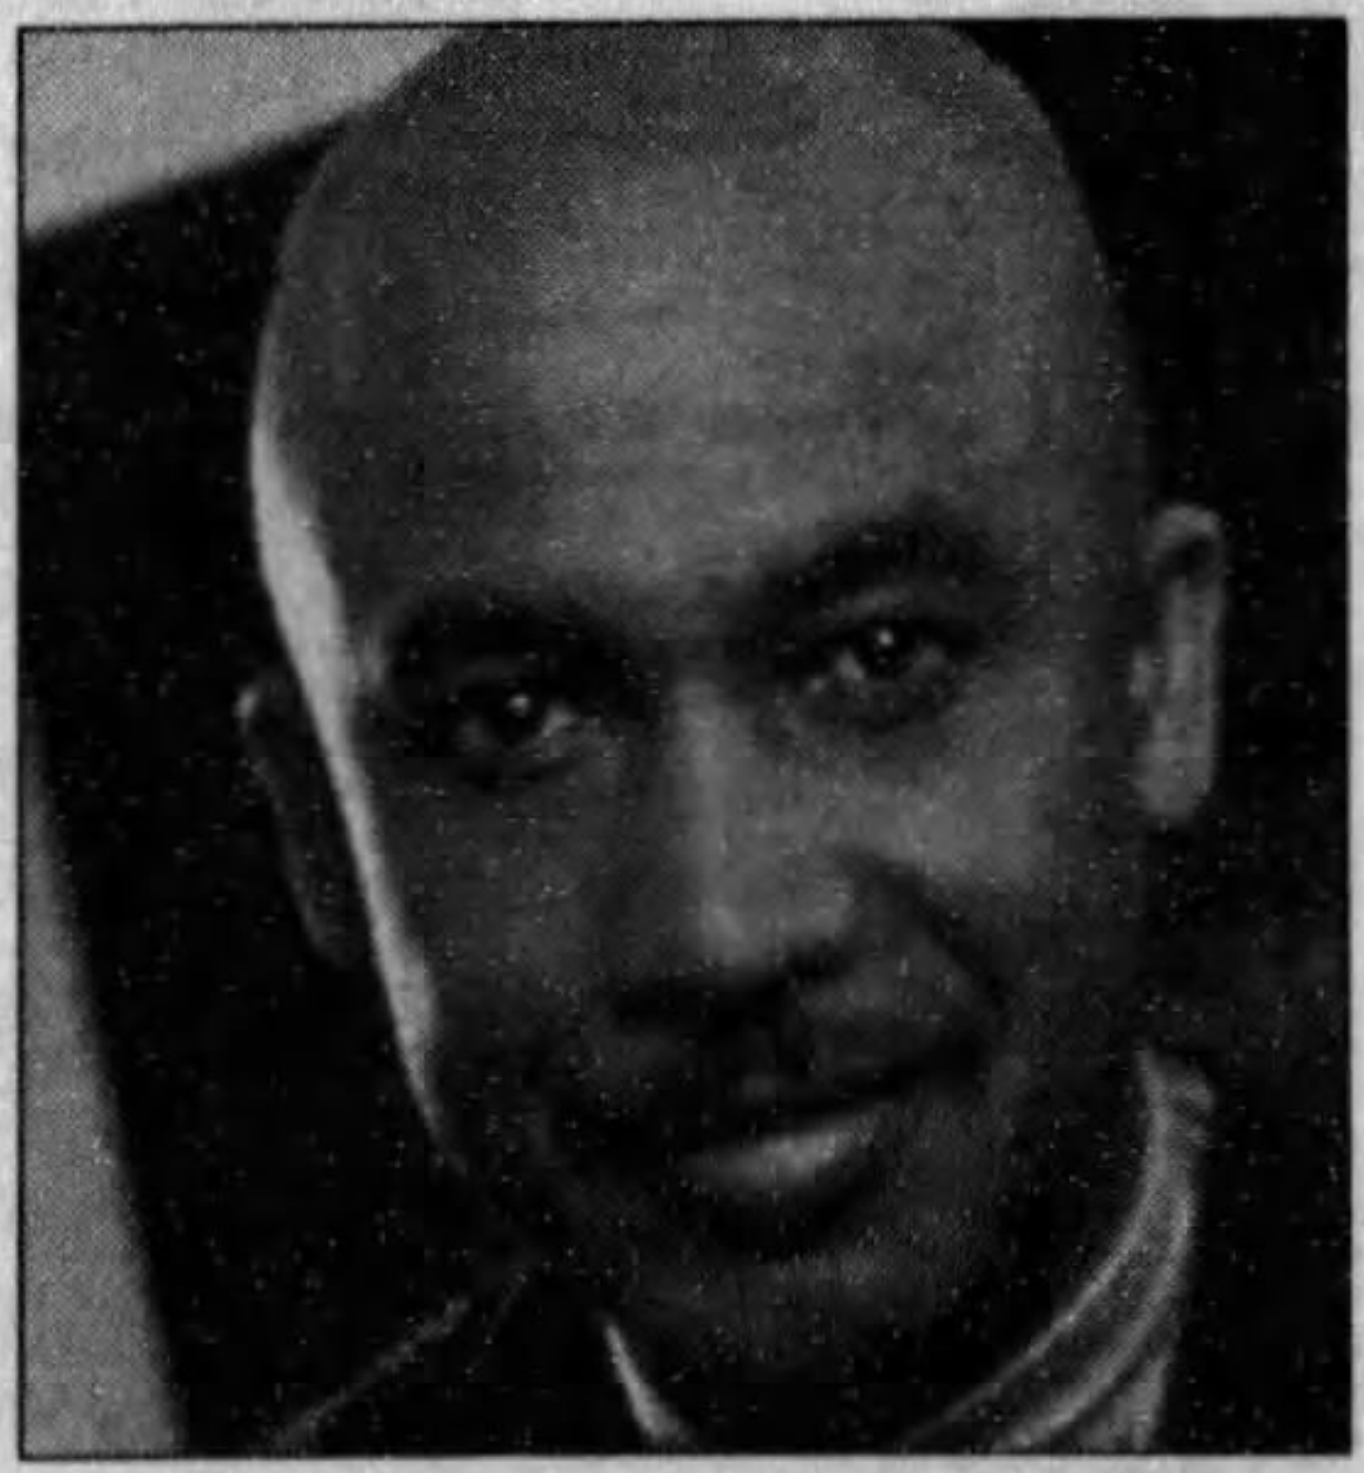
Leeza Gibbons appears to be standing on uneasy ground. It could be curtains for her talk show very soon. Rumor has it that the staff just came off an unpaid two-week hiatus and is completing two weeks of production. At that time, Paramount Domestic Television will render its decision.

Insiders say neither the staff nor Gibbons was given advance notice of this upsetting possibility. Seems a strange way for the syndicator to treat someone who has made millions for it with "Leeza," "Entertainment Tonight" and "Leeza's Entertainment Tonight on the Radio."

There's also buzz about Oxygen, the new cable network for women. Eagerly anticipated by the industry, the network was launched in February with expectations greatly enhanced by the celebrity of its partners.

Founder Geraldine Laybourne, a TV giant in her own right, brought in one big shot after another, including talk diva Oprah Winfrey, program powerhouses Carsey-Werner-Mandabach, and investors America Online and Microsoft co-founder Paul Allen.

Too many well-paid chiefs are trying to run an ambitious daily show, "Pure Oxygen." Apparently, they are unwisely trying to cut costs by hiring novices to produce.



Montel Williams

Some say that "penny-wise, pound-foolish" philosophy will backfire, that it would be better for the bosses to take a pay cut.

Although "Pure Oxygen" may have some bugs to work out, the network is still counting on some of its other shows to get it through the initial period.

Winfrey has a Sunday night talk show, "Oprah Goes Online," and actress Candice Bergen is hosting the nightly talk show, "Exhale"."

Oxygen welcomes viewer input, so be sure to register your 2 cents' worth at www.oxygen.com.

MONDAY'S BEST BETS

Major League Baseball

3 P.M. ON TBS

Will this be the season for the Atlanta Braves? Like the spring flowers in Florida, that's the question that pops up every year in Braves camp. Anchored by a top-flight starting staff, the Braves have dominated the National League since 1991, winning eight division titles and five league championships but only one World Series, in 1995. So the questions will linger. Can the Braves make another run to October and come out the winner?

Movie: Picture Perfect

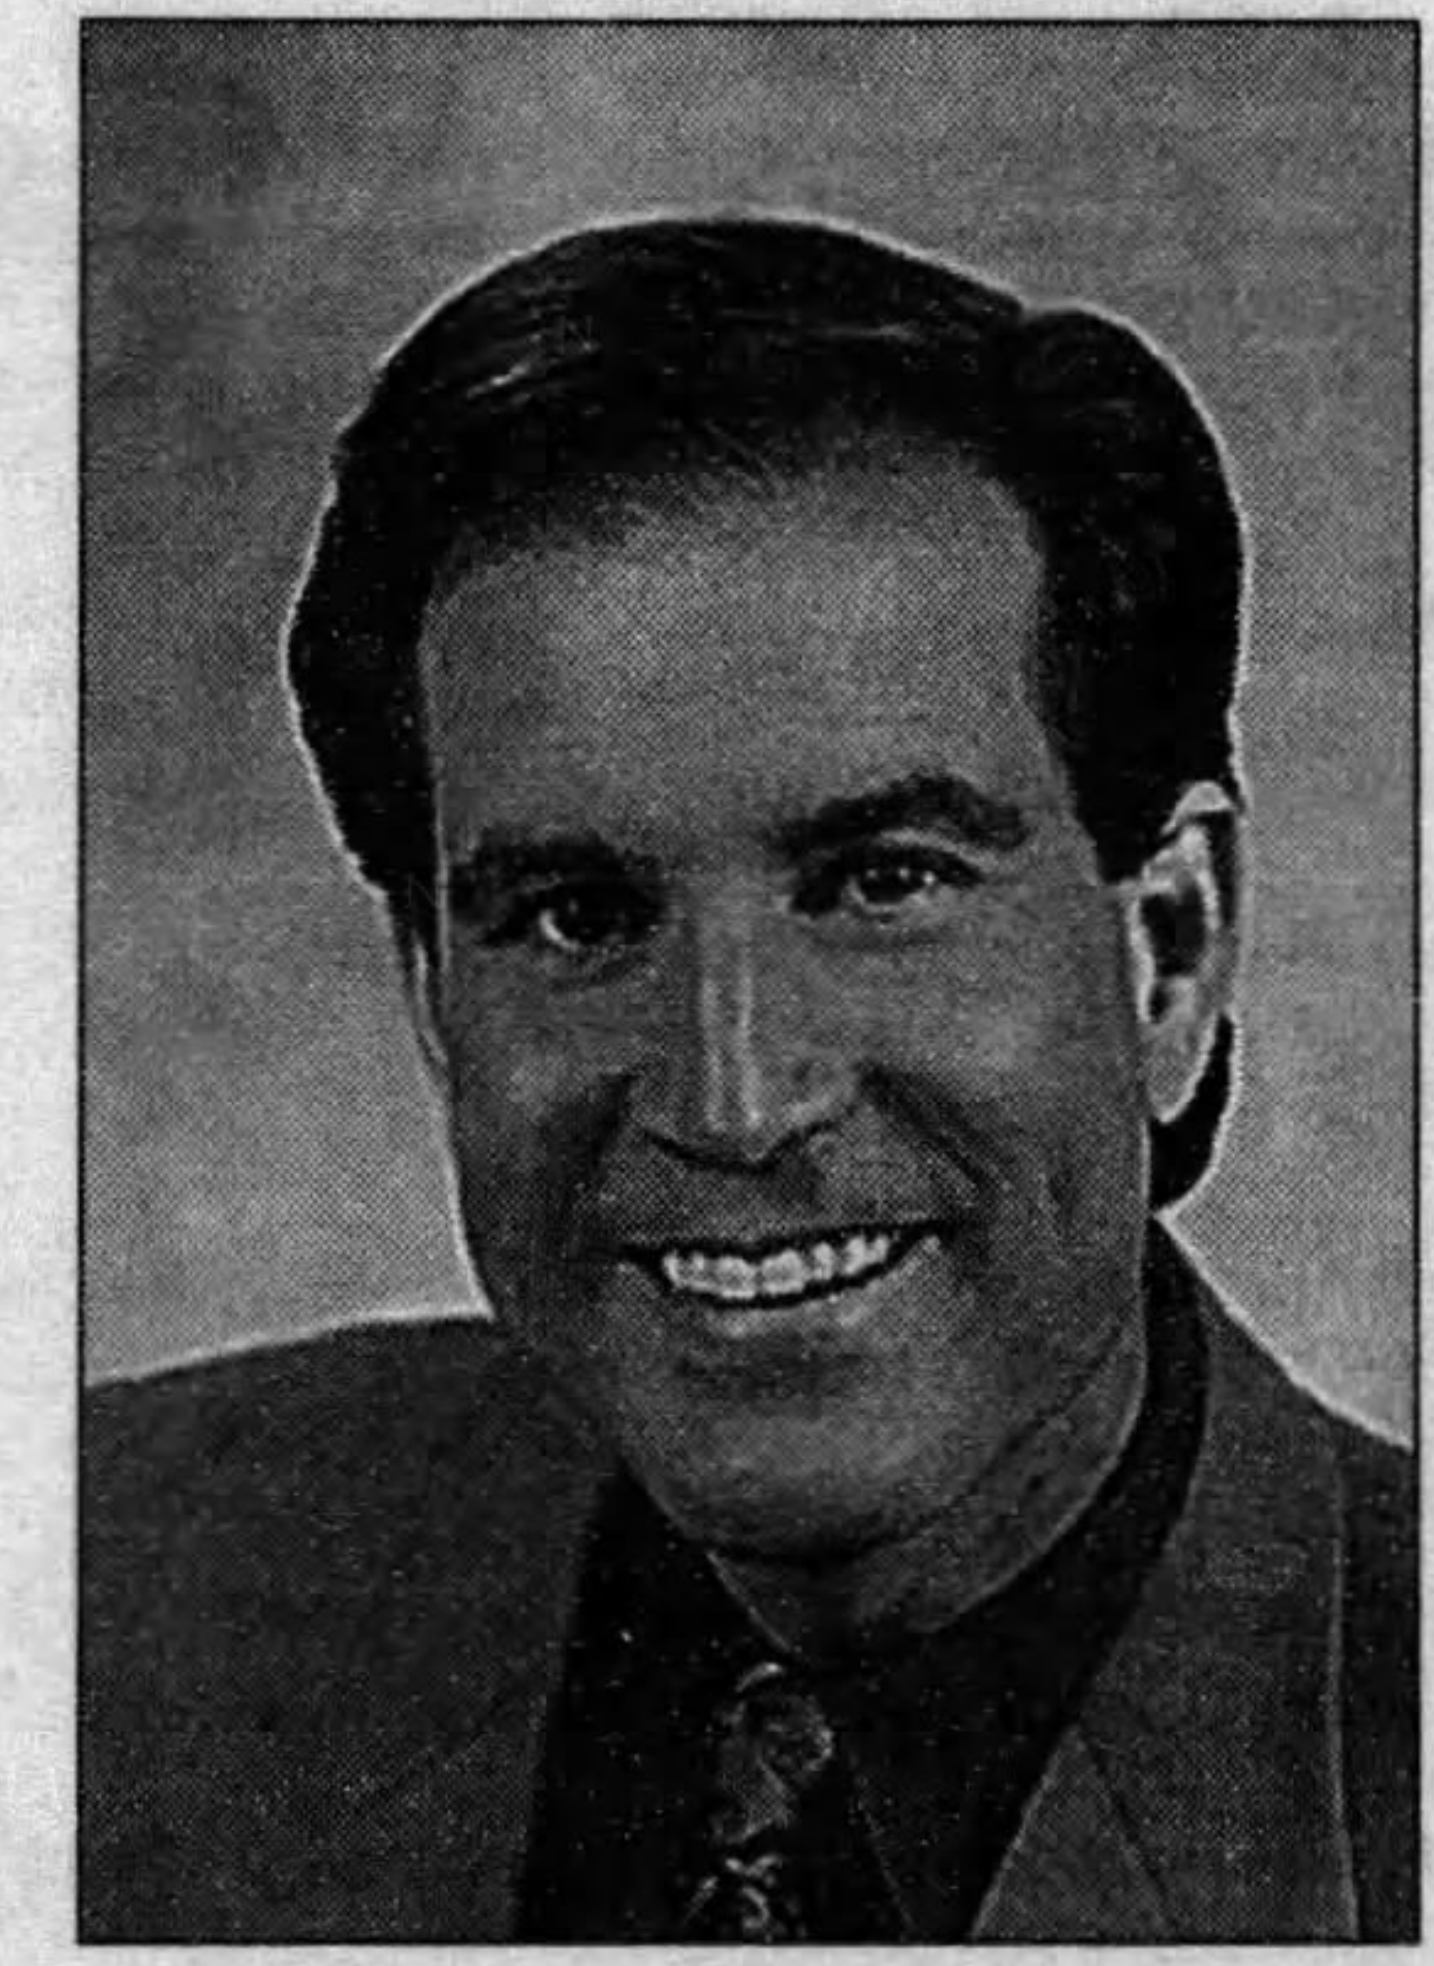
7 P.M. ON ABC

After missing out on key assignments because she's unattached, an ad executive (Jennifer Aniston) asks a smitten stranger (Jay Mohr) from out of town to impersonate her fiance. Now she has more men than she can handle, as her "engagement" proves a turn-on to the office ladies man (Kevin Bacon). Illeana Douglas, Mohr's co-star in the short-lived series "Action," also appears in this 1997 romantic comedy directed by Glenn Gordon Caron ("Love Affair").

The King of Queens

7 P.M. ON CBS

When his basement room gets too cold, Arthur (Jerry Stiller) moves into the upstairs bedroom next to Doug and Carrie's (Kevin James, Leah Remini). That's too close for comfort in more ways than one; his late-night phone calls are keeping them up, and his habit of cranking up the thermostat has them hot under the collar.



Jim Nantz
COLLEGE BASKETBALL

College Basketball

8 P.M. ON CBS

There is a reason it's called March Madness. Last season, Duke emerged as the overwhelming favorite to win the NCAA tournament. The feeling was, with what turned out to be four No. 1 picks in the NBA draft on the Blue Devils' roster, how could they lose? Well, they did, falling to Connecticut by three points in the title game. This year, Michigan State seemed to be the office-pool choice of many to win the national championship. Jim Nantz and Billy Packer call the title game from the RCA Dome.

Investigative Reports

8 P.M. ON A&E

"Prescription for Murder" recounts the bizarre case of Dr. Harold Shipman, a small-town British physician convicted of killing 15 of his patients, all women between 49 and 81.

The Life and Times of the Cast of The Waltons

9 P.M. ON NASH

Earl Hamner Jr.'s heartwarming TV series about his youth in Depression-era Virginia won multiple awards and a multigenerational viewership over its long run. This retrospective combines great moments from "The Waltons" with profiles of several stars, including Richard Thomas, Ralph Waite, Mary Elizabeth McDonough (Erin) and Jon Walmsley (Jason).

TUESDAY'S BEST BETS

Biography
7 P.M. ON A&E

Steve Austin began his wrestling career at the dawn of the 1990s earning $20 a match, sleeping in his car and living on raw potatoes. Within two years, he was in the big leagues and on his way to becoming a household name even among nonfans of wrestling. Austin himself shares his story, along with his parents, colleagues, journalists and wrestling commentators, in the encore of "Stone Cold Steve Austin: Lord of the Ring."

Falcone
8 P.M. ON CBS

Some of the names have been changed, but the "Pilot" of this new series will have a familiar ring for fans of the film "Donnie Brasco," which chronicled the exploits of FBI agent and mob infiltrator Joe Pistone. Jason Gedrick ("Murder One") stars as Pistone, better known as Joe Falcone to his underworld "friends." Titus Welliver ("Brooklyn South") plays Santino "Sonny Boy" Napoli, the mob leader who's Pistone's prime target. Additional episodes air over the next eight days.

Party of Five
8 P.M. ON FOX

The Salinger men consider new ventures in "Too Cool for School." As Charlie (Matthew Fox) makes a bid for Gus' factory, a career counselor plants a bug in Bailey's (Scott Wolf) ear about going back to college. Claudia (Lacey Chabert) reaches out to Victor (Wilson Cruz) after learning he has a secret, while Julia (Neve Campbell) tries to get through to Adam (Sean Maher). Jacob Smith also stars.

Neve Campbell
PARTY OF FIVE

Movie: On the Ropes
8 P.M. ON TLC

Three inner-city youths try to fight their way — literally — out of poverty in this excellent 1999 documentary, which does for boxing what "Hoop Dreams" did for basketball. Noel is long on talent but short on motivation. George has plenty of both, but his lack of judgment may be his undoing when the big time comes calling. And Tyrene's dreams are cut short by an undeserved drug conviction. Filmmakers Nanette Burstein and Brett Morgen took home a Special Jury Award from the Sundance festival for the film.

Sports Night
8:30 P.M. ON ABC

In "Bells and a Siren," Natalie (Sabrina Lloyd) worries that her job at "Sports Night" won't be around forever and pursues an opening at "Saturday Night Live." Could the news that amateur market monitors Casey and Jeremy have picked up about the parent company's stock have anything to do with it?

NYPD Blue
9 P.M. ON ABC

A retired cop tries to give Sipowicz and Sorenson a hand as they investigate a home robbery, but all he manages to do is get in their way. Medavoy and Jones look into an apparent feud between a wealthy woman and her former maid.

WEDNESDAY'S BEST BETS

Then Came You

7:30 P.M. ON ABC

Billie (Susan Floyd) wants all her buddies to meet Aidan (Thomas Newton), and a friend's upcoming wedding sounds like the perfect time and place. Unfortunately, he has to work. Fortunately, he's working the dinner at that very wedding. To give him a chance to mingle, Billie is ready and willing to play waitress — but is she able? Miriam Shor also stars in "Then Came a Wedding."

PBS Showcase

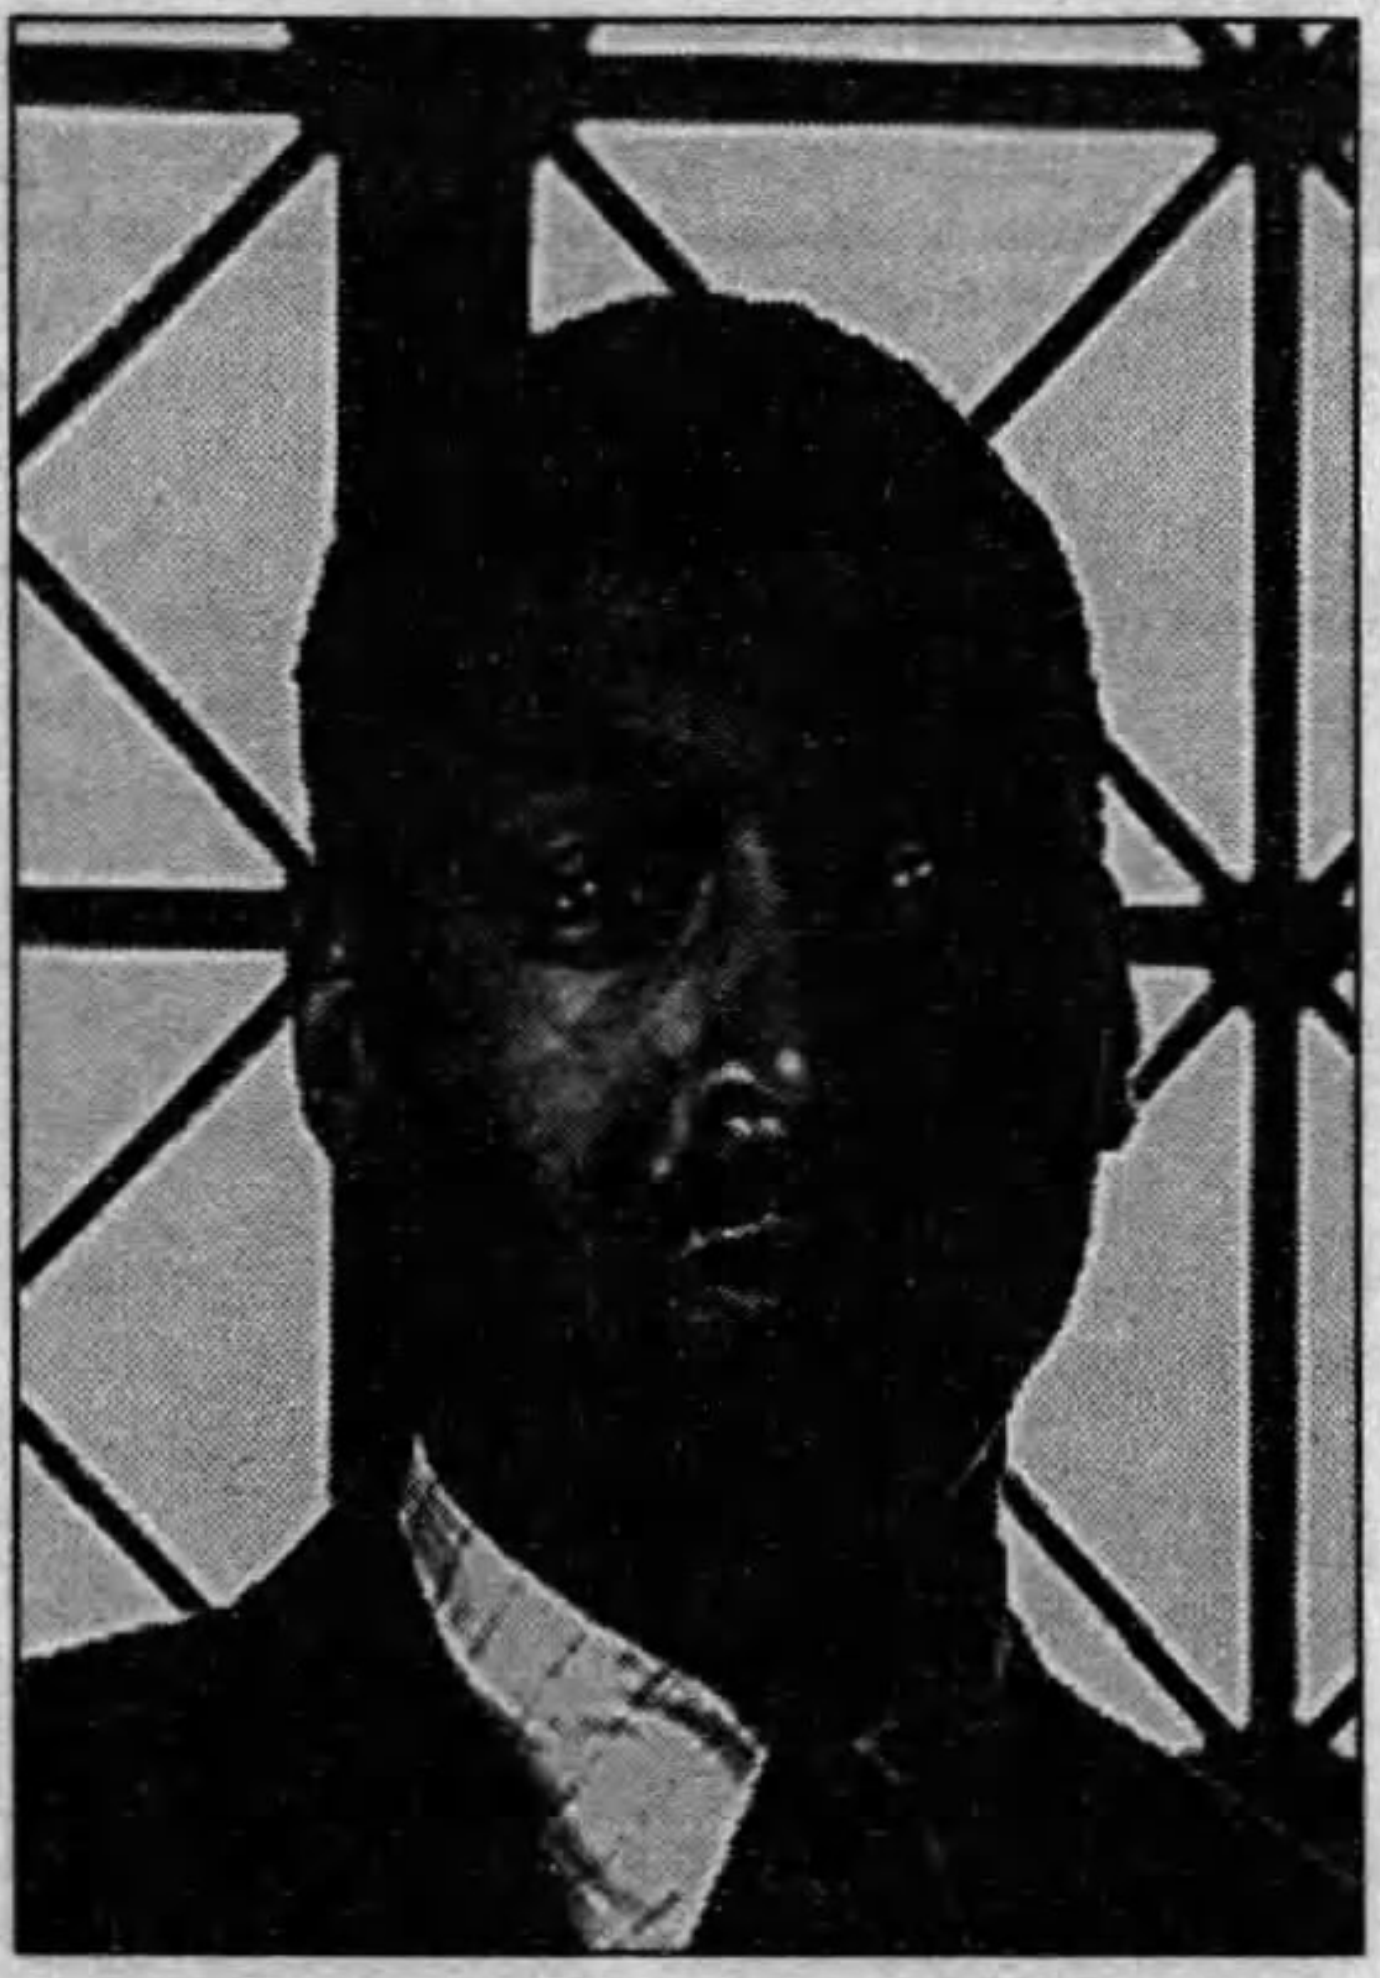
8 P.M. ON PBS

The British composer's religious works are in the spotlight in "Andrew Lloyd Webber's Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat and Requiem." Donny Osmond returns to the role of Joseph in the Old Testament-based musical, with help from Joan Collins, Richard Attenborough and Maria Friedman. Later, tenor Placido Domingo and soprano Sarah Brightman perform music from Lloyd Webber's "Requiem." The program also visits the composer at home, where he talks about his work and gives viewers a peek at the upcoming TV production of "Jesus Christ Superstar."

Get Real

8 P.M. ON FOX

Mitch's (Jon Tenney) financial worries increase, and with good reason: He's getting no nibbles on the sale of his firehouse restaurant. Meghan (Anne Hathaway) comes to understand Cameron (Eric Olsen) a little better as she watches him try to deal with his feelings for Jody.



Jesse L. Martin
LAW & ORDER

Law & Order

9 P.M. ON NBC

A bomb destroys a shuttle helicopter, and the evidence points to the wife (Dana Wheeler-Nicholson) of one of the six victims. The detectives (Jerry Orbach, Jesse L. Martin) discover that the woman is a follower of an unconventional husband-and-wife team of financial advisers.

American Justice

9 P.M. ON A&E

The encore of "Vigilante Dad" tells the real-life "Wild West justice" story of Ken Arrasmith, a former sheriff from Idaho who shot a couple who he believed had sexually abused his daughter. The prosecution painted him not as an enraged parent out to avenge his daughter's honor, but as a neglectful, drug-abusing father, and he was convicted of the two killings.

The Masters Tournament Special: The Course of History

9 P.M. ON USA

This is the week when golf's greats go for the green at Georgia's Augusta National Golf Club. Get ready with this hourlong preview, a mixed bag of Masters information. Hosts Bill Macatee and Peter Kostis recall memorable moments from past Masters tourneys, offer their thoughts on this one and look at how the course has changed over the years.

THURSDAY'S BEST BETS

Golf

3 P.M. ON USA

Coverage of one of golf's most prestigious tournaments kicks off with "The Masters — First Round" from Augusta, Ga. Last year's winner, Jose Maria Olazabal, hopes to make it two in a row, but he has stiff competition from 1998 champ Mark O'Meara and 1997 winner Tiger Woods, who's hotter than ever since winning six tourneys in a row earlier this year. Coverage continues on USA Friday, with CBS picking up the ball over the weekend.

The 31st NAACP Image Awards

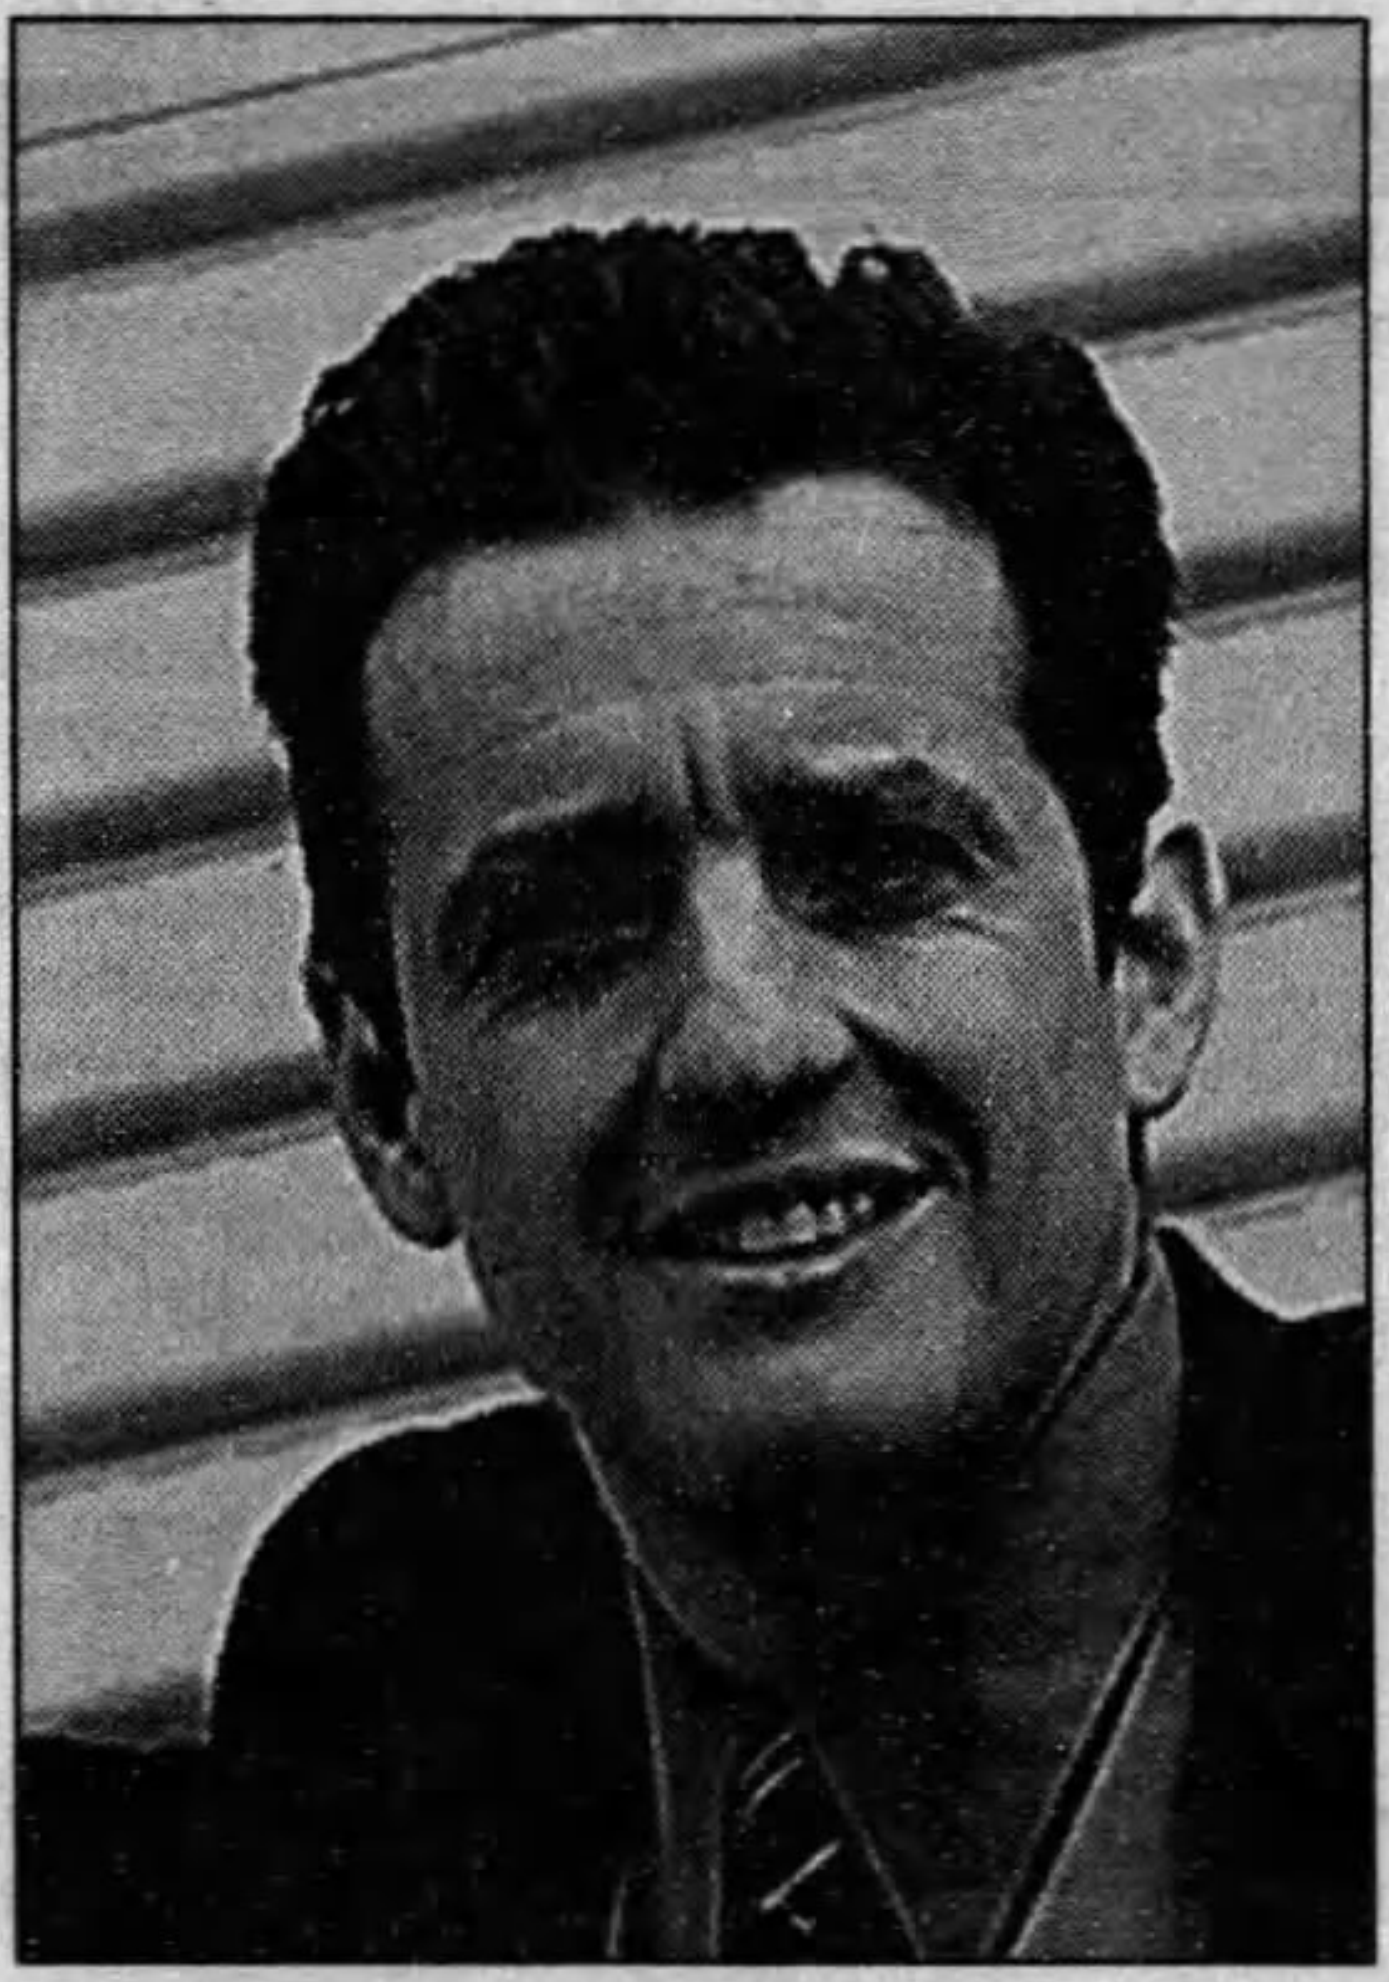
7 P.M. ON FOX

Halle Berry receives the Entertainer of the Year award at the annual gala honoring African-American achievers. She may also take home a couple for producing and starring in the TV movie "Introducing Dorothy Dandridge," which is up for a total of three awards. "The Steve Harvey Show" leads the TV pack, with five nominations. In movies, "The Best Man" is way out front with nine. Eric Benet and TLC are the musical front-runners, with four each. Literature also has a place at this show, with prizes for fiction, nonfiction and children's books. Diana Ross hosts.

Friends

7 P.M. ON NBC

Poor Joey (Matt LeBlanc). His relationship with Janine (Elle Macpherson) is heating up, but there's a problem: Her superior attitude toward his friends is driving him crazy. Just as he gets up the nerve to tell her off, she melts his anger with one of her incredible kisses. Rachel (Jennifer Aniston) has some fun with Phoebe (Lisa Kudrow), concocting a complicated scam to pass a new piece of furniture off as an antique. Courteney Cox Arquette also stars in the encore of "The One With the Apothecary Table."



Justin Louis
BATTERY PARK

Biography

7 P.M. ON A&E

The encore of "The Everly Brothers" recalls the rise and fall of the duo whose music had something for everyone in its deft mixture of folk, country, bluegrass and rock. Starting with their debut, "Bye, Bye Love," Phil and Don racked up hit after hit in the late '50s and early '60s. But they started young and burned out early; both got into drugs, and the duo broke up in 1973. A decade later, they reunited to receive the first of many honors for their contributions to modern music.

Battery Park

8:30 P.M. ON NBC

Wendy Moniz ("Guiding Light") guest stars as Maria, a mob boss's daughter whom Ben (Justin Louis) starts dating over Madeleine's (Elizabeth Perkins) objections. Speaking of women with criminal connections, Carl (Jay Paulson) doesn't have to go back to school to reconnect with his former English teacher (guest star Michelle Clunie, "The Jeff Foxworthy Show"). She's right there at the station, busted with the hookers who work for her. Bokeem Woodbine also stars in "How Do You Solve a Problem Like Maria?"

FRIDAY'S BEST BETS

Boy Meets World
7 P.M. ON ABC

Stress propels Topanga (Danielle Fishel) into a surreal black-and-white world in "As Time Goes By." The 1940s delusion is accompanied by a case of amnesia. The other cast members appear in the sequence as customers at a strange cafe from whom she hopes to get a clue about who she is and where she's been. Ben Savage also stars.

Biography
7 P.M. ON A&E

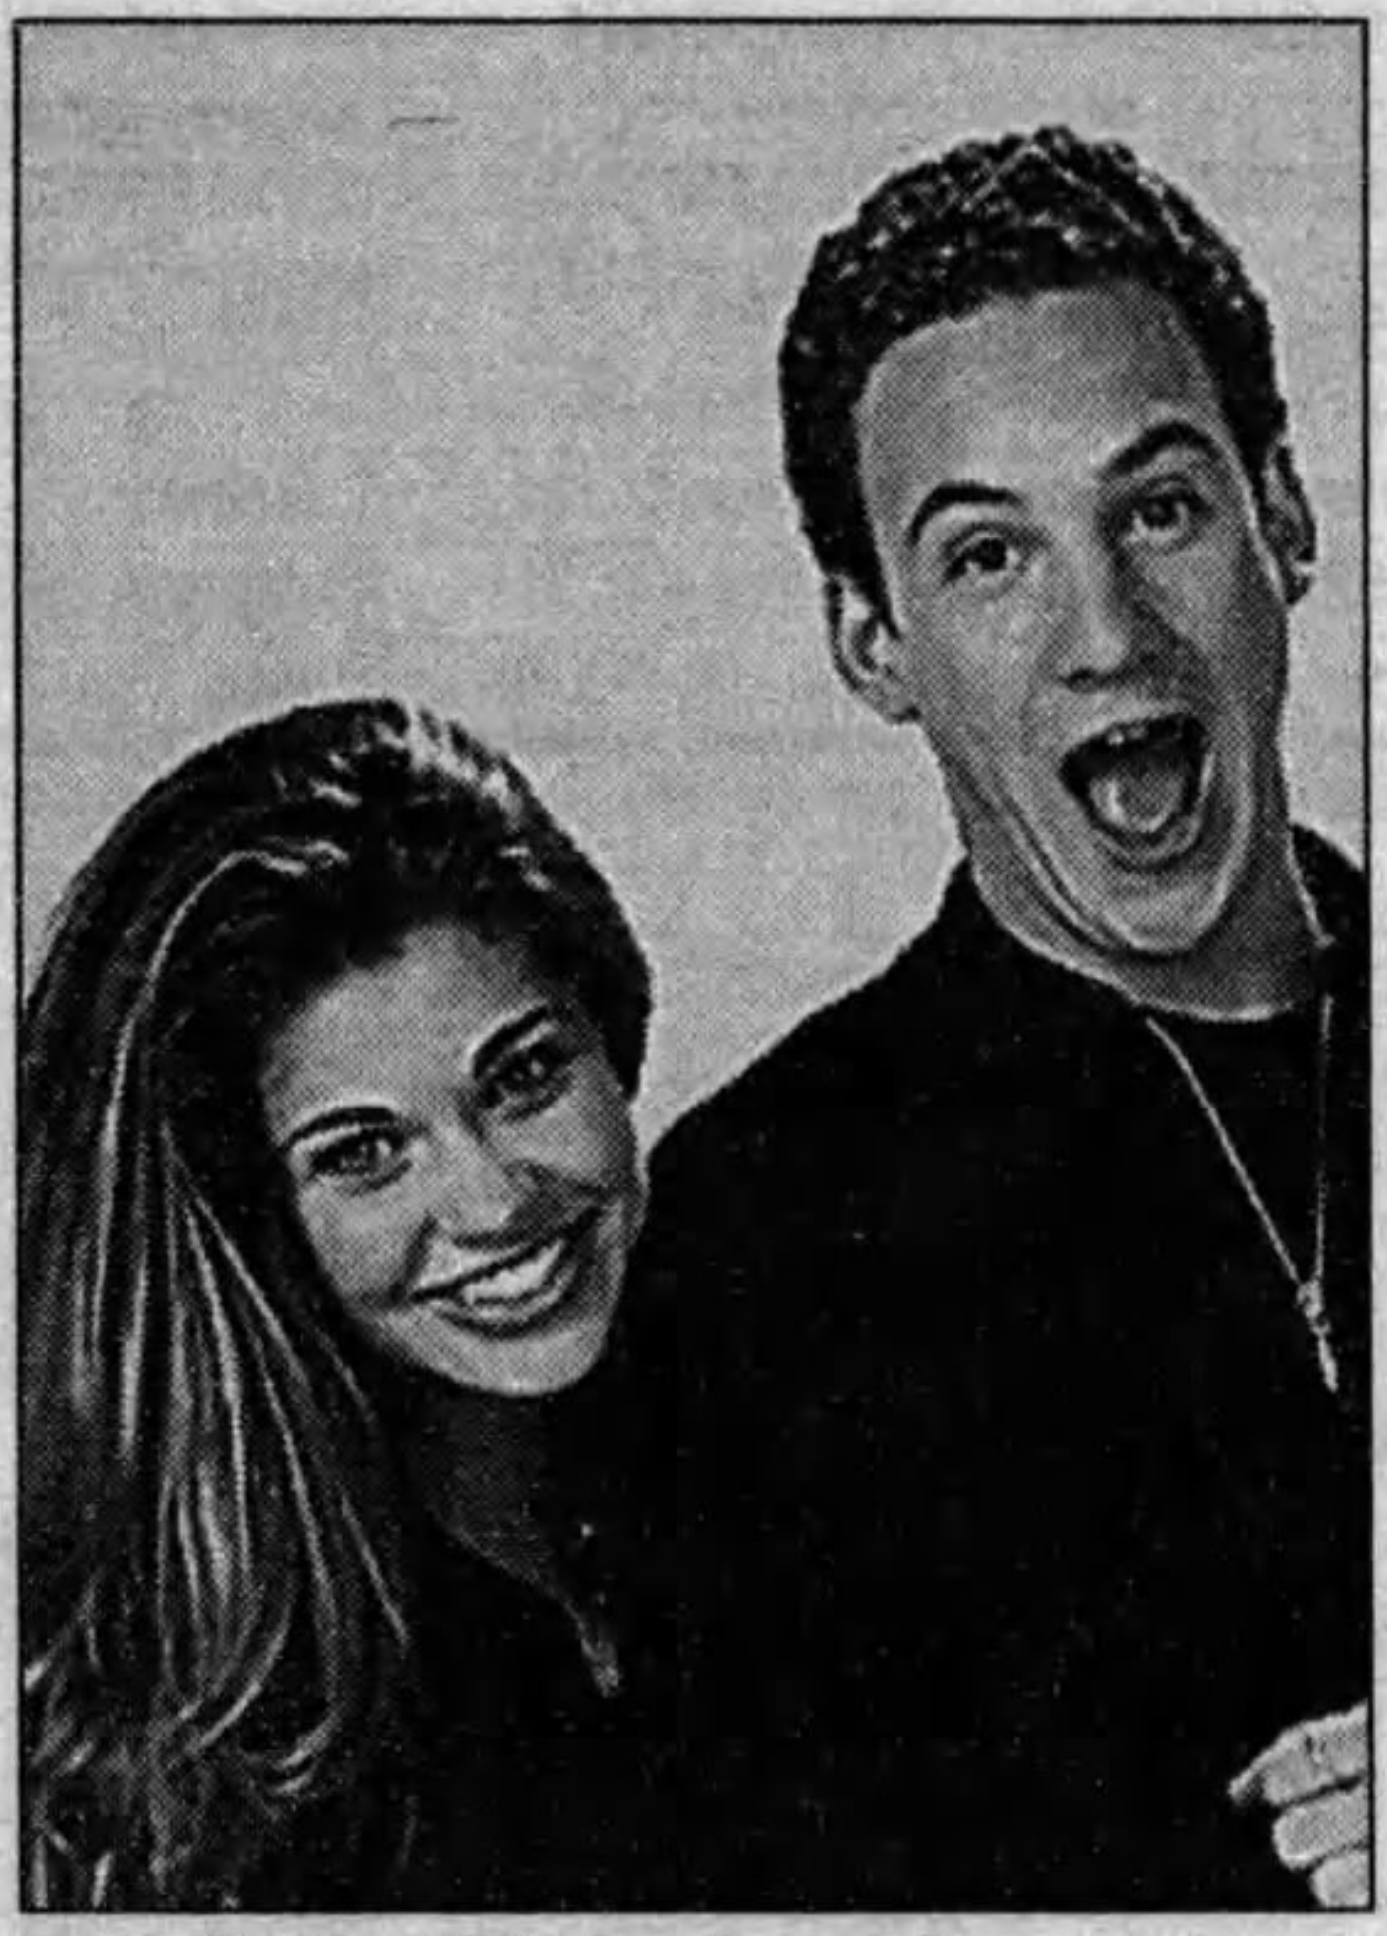
Improvisational comedy was a radical concept in the 1950s, but it caught on quickly, thanks to Jonathan Winters, one of the first comics of the TV age to rely on spontaneity instead of punch lines. The 1998 profile "Jonathan Winters: Without a Net" includes reminiscences from friends, fellow comics, relatives and Winters himself, who speaks candidly about his struggles with mental illness.

Movie: Rebel Without a Cause
7 P.M. ON AMC

James Dean was the only member of this film's trio of young stars who wasn't nominated for an Oscar, but it will forever be remembered as his movie. Dean, Natalie Wood and Sal Mineo play three teen-agers who, in the aftermath of a tragedy, briefly find in one another the family bond they all lack at home.

Cosby
7:30 P.M. ON CBS

An encounter with a homeless man (Douglas Turner Ward, "The Women of Brewster Place") shakes up Hilton (Bill Cosby) when he realizes the man is his old high-school friend Jessie. Eager to help, he looks up Jessie's mother, daughter and former wife in an effort to find out how he wound up on the street. Phylicia Rashad also stars in "A Pair of Threes Beats a Flush Every Time."



Danielle Fishel and Ben Savage
BOY MEETS WORLD

Teen Files: The Truth About Drugs
8 P.M. ON UPN

This special from the producer of "Scared Straight!" does for would-be drug users what that documentary did for budding criminals. The young participants visit a prison, a coroner's office and skid row for repeated wake-up calls ... from a suffering crack baby, a blinded and brain-damaged former high-school athlete, the grieving father of an inhalant-abuse victim, and a very personal glimpse of their own possible futures. Leeza Gibbons hosts.

Law & Order: Special Victims Unit
9 P.M. ON NBC

In the encore of "Closure," Benson and Stabler's (Mariska Hargitay, Christopher Meloni) latest case, a sexual assault, appears open and shut. They have a suspect who matches the description that the victim gave them, and he's even been caught using her credit card. But there's one problem: She can't identify him now. Tracy Pollan ("Family Ties") and Terry Serpico ("Donnie Brasco") guest star.

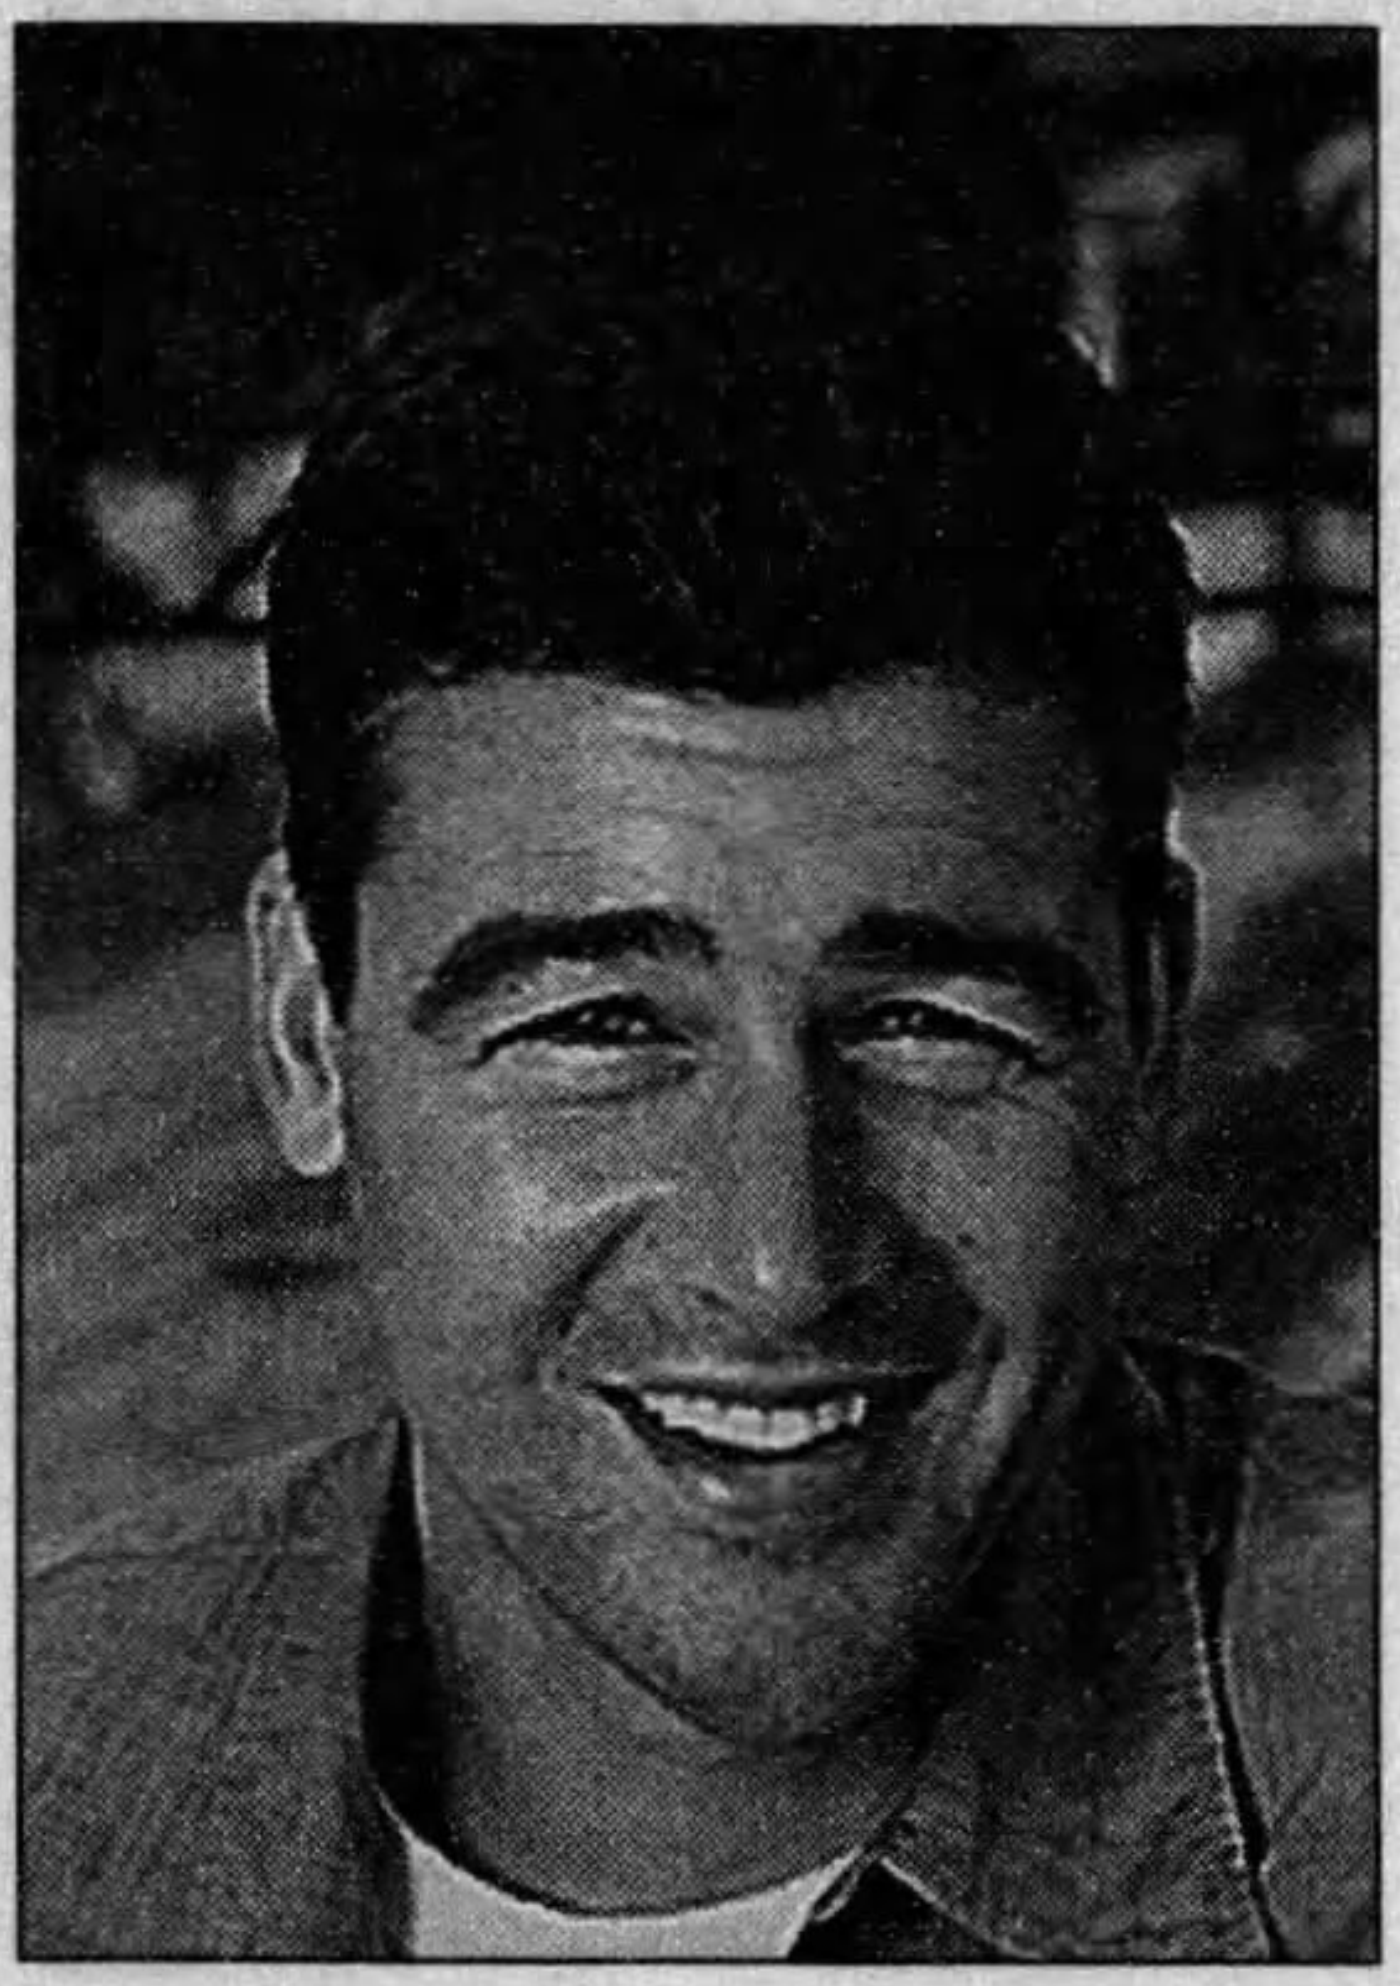
SATURDAY'S BEST BETS



Kyle Chandler
EARLY EDITION

Movie: First Knight

7 P.M. ON ABC

Sean Connery plays King Arthur, with Julia Ormond as Guinevere and Richard Gere as knight errant Lancelot in this 1995 fantasy adventure based on the Camelot legend. Scenes of battle and romance alternate as the flawed knight pursues the king's lady at peril to the realm. Ben Cross, John Gielgud and Liam Cunningham ("A Little Princess") also star.

Early Edition

7 P.M. ON CBS

A routine mission brings Gary (Kyle Chandler) to a little theater, where he runs into an old police pal-turned-actor (Ron Dean) and catches the theater bug himself. But someone apparently forgot to wish the troupe "break a leg"; the production is plagued by a string of bad luck. And Gary suspects that the director (Marie Marshall) is a scam artist more interested in taking the actors' money than taking bows. Shanesia Williams also stars in "The Play's the Thing."

NBA Basketball

7:30 P.M. ON NBC

It's too bad both the Los Angeles Lakers and San Antonio Spurs are in the Western Conference, because what an NBA Finals matchup this would be. As it is, the best fans can hope for, other than regular-season clashes such as tonight's, is a meeting in the conference finals. Opposing centers Shaquille O'Neal and Tim Duncan may take viewers back to memories of Chamberlain vs. Russell, strength against style. The Lakers have been on a mission this season, incorporating Phil Jackson's defensive teachings with a potent offense to produce the league's best record.

Midsomer Murders

8 P.M. ON A&E

Barnaby and Troy investigate a case of vandalism at the local museum that turns into something out of "The X-Files." It starts with the slashing of an old portrait. Then eerie things start happening — ghostly apparitions, blood on the walls, mysterious bells. Finally, a descendant of the man in the painting turns up dead, and there's no lack of unusual suspects. Jane Wymark, Roger Sloman and James Laurenson also star.

Movie: The Matrix

8 P.M. ON HBO

A computer programmer and hacker (Keanu Reeves) discovers that his entire reality is virtual in this 1999 sci-fi tale. He's recruited by a band of freedom fighters to battle the mysterious program that's created this unreal world and return humanity to the real thing.

Mad TV

10 P.M. ON FOX

It's an evening of music superstars — well, reasonable facsimiles, anyway. Ricky Martin (Nelson Ascencio) gives Celine Dion (Mo Collins) some help grooming a replacement: her shy sister, Maureen (Alex Borstein). Will Sasso plays the king of rock as a raconteur in "Conversations With Elvis."

Lithgow's quintessential Quixote is casting magic

By Jacqueline Cutler
TVDATA FEATURES WRITER

Cover story

One magical consequence of getting lost in a book is when fictional characters become real to us. It's also part of the stardust of movies. When an actor is cast just right, he leaps from the pages onto the screen and comes alive.

"Don Quixote," airing on TNT Sunday, April 9, can boast such casting. Much of the magic is woven by John Lithgow ("3rd Rock From the Sun") as the aged, delusional Don Quixote de La Mancha. Bob Hoskins' portrayal of Sancho Panza embodies the loyal, none-too-bright essence of the faithful sidekick.

"I vaguely knew this was the greatest of roles for a tall, thin character actor in his middle years," Lithgow says. "I do just love the character, as mad as he is and as ridiculous as he is. His madness and delusions take the form of the highest ideals, so he is very inspiring. Even though you laugh at him, there are these marvelous moments when he speaks the truth and strikes your conscience."

Based on Miguel de Cervantes' 17th-century masterpiece, "Quixote" is regarded as the first novel. The title character aspires to be a brave knight but repeatedly blunders into misadventures because of his hallucinations. He has spent a lifetime devouring books about the golden age of chivalry, becoming oblivious to the fact that he is living a couple of centuries after its heyday. In lesser hands, such a delusion could seem pathetic.

Dulcinea (Vanessa L. Williams, "Bye Bye Birdie") is the woman who inspires Quixote's attempts to make the world right. Her role is slight, but Williams conveys much empathy with few words.

Condensing the story's original volumes to a 2 1/2-hour movie was risky. And other liberties were taken in the latest of at least 15 film versions about the man who tilts at windmills. While the book is set in the 1600s, this version takes place in the 1800s to make the Middle Ages seem that much farther away.

Special effects are artfully used to transform windmills into Quixote's imagined foes. Quixote poses the questions, "Where is the honor? Where is the test of virtue? Where is the glory of adventure?" Then the old man sets off seeking answers. Where he finds a castle, we see a ramshackle building. When he hears trumpets, we hear a ram's horn. Where he sees fair maidens frolicking, we see plain women talking.

Does 'Beastmaster' star have sister?

By Taylor Michaels
TVDATA FEATURES WRITER

Pipeline

I watched "VR.5" on the Sci-Fi Channel and I was wondering if Lori Singer, who plays Sydney Bloom, is related to Marc Singer, who starred as Mike Donovan in "V" and was in the "Beastmaster" movies. -Adam Lattimore, Westerville, Ohio.

Yes, Lori is Marc's sister.

I was told that Alan Greenspan, chairman of the Federal Reserve Board, is married to a TV news personality. Which one? -B. McDonald, Port Charlotte, Fla.

Greenspan is married to "NBC Nightly News" correspondent Andrea Mitchell. She reports on foreign policy matters and covers various political issues.

The couple first met when she interviewed him in 1983. They began dating in 1984 and finally tied the knot in April 1997.

Did Betty White once star in a situation comedy called "Life With Elizabeth"? -Bill Petrie, New Milford, N.J.

White had her first starring role in this syndicated 1953-54 sitcom. Each episode contained three short vignettes in the lives of newlyweds Elizabeth and Alvin White (White, Del Moore). The show had originated a year earlier on Los Angeles station KLAC, where White first attracted press attention for her immense charm.

What can you tell me about Carolyn McCormick, who played Dr. Elizabeth Olivet on "Law & Order"? -L. Hayes, Prescott, Ariz.

McCormick, who reprised her Liz Olivet character on "Law & Order: Special Victims Unit," made her screen acting debut in the 1985 science-fiction movie "Enemy Mine." She also played Assistant District Attorney Rita Fiore on the ABC drama "Spenser: For Hire" and the embittered Judith Fitzgerald in the ill-fated American adaptation of the British hit "Cracker."

She made guest appearances on "Star Trek: The Next Generation," "L.A. Law," "Homicide: Life on the Street" and "The Practice."

The actress hails from Midland, Texas, and is married to actor Byron Jennings, who played Dr. Aaron Ementaler on "One Life to Live" in 1996.

Did the actor who plays Bosco on "Third Watch" once play Colin on "Beverly Hills, 90210"? -Anne Rice, Ashland, Ky.

Yes, Jason Wiles, who plays Maurice "Bosco" Boscorelli on "Third Watch," played Colin Robbins during the 1995-96 season of "90210."

Is the actress who plays Ray's mother on the CBS show "Everybody Loves Raymond" the same actress who played Mrs. Costanza on "Seinfeld"? -Daisy Duncan, Elnora, Ind.

No. Emmy winner Doris Roberts plays Marie Barone on "Raymond." That was Estelle Harris on "Seinfeld."

TRIVIA

Kyra Sedgwick ("Talk to Me") began her acting career at the age of 16. She starred as Julia Shearer on the soap opera "Another World."

Rod Steiger was offered the lead role in the film "Patton." He declined it, believing that it glorified war. He now regrets turning down the role.

Noah Wyle posed as Steve Jobs at a computer trade show. He was invited, as a joke, after Jobs saw him in "Pirates of Silicon Valley."

John Lithgow won a scholarship to Harvard University, graduated magna cum laude and won an acting scholarship to study in London.

Marc Blucas ("Buffy the Vampire Slayer") played basketball for Wake Forest University and a European team before his break in acting.

Rosie O'Donnell will be a contestant on "Who Wants to Be a Millionaire." She's scheduled to appear in an upcoming celebrity episode.

Sunday's Best Bets

Auto Racing

12 P.M. ON ESPN

The NASCAR Winston Cup season continues on the short track in Martinsville, Va., with the Goody's Body Pain 500. After the six-race mark, five drivers — Bobby Labonte, Ward Burton, Mark Martin, Dale Jarrett and Dale Earnhardt — were in a battle for the standings lead, separated by only 131 points. Last year, veteran driver John Andretti had his luck turn for the better on the Martinsville track.

Golf

3 P.M. ON CBS

As the final round of the Masters commences at Augusta National Golf Club, the only question that may be left to ponder is: Who will finish behind Tiger Woods? Woods' Bay Hill Invitational win three weeks ago was his 10th victory in his last 16 tour events, including three this year. And if his play doesn't psych out his opponents, his comments might. "Hopefully, next week, I'll have some signs that I'm actually playing a little bit better," Woods said after his Bay Hill win. Jose Maria Olazabal played the best last year, defeating Davis Love III by two strokes to win his second Masters.

King of the Hill

6:30 P.M. ON FOX

Unhappy with his old barber, Hank (voice of Mike Judge) asks his buddy Bill (voice of Stephen Root), the Army barber, to cut his hair. But like everything else involving the military, this clip job doesn't come cheap. The Pentagon wants (pardon the pun) its cut and orders Hank to cough up $900 for Bill's services. Kathy Najimy, Pamela Segall and Brittany Murphy also star in "Hank's Bad Hair Day."

Biography

7 P.M. ON A&E

"Life of Python" is something completely different for the profile series. It's a birthday party for Monty Python, the British comedy troupe that's been tickling funny bones on both sides of the pond for 30 years. Python alumnus Eric Idle hosts the two-hour program that includes memorable clips from the group's TV show and films, a tour of the locations where favorite sketches were shot, and reminiscences by the surviving members and famous fans. One of those fans is singer Meat Loaf, who performs "The Spam Song" and other Python ditties.

Movie: My Fellow Americans

8 P.M. ON NBC

The president of the United States (Dan Aykroyd) is facing kickback allegations and tries to pin the blame on the two men (Jack Lemmon, James Garner) who held the office before him. The penny-pinching Republican and skirt-chasing Democrat can't stand each other, but they're forced to team up to save their reputations and their lives. Lauren Bacall, John Heard and Bradley Whitford ("The West Wing") also star in this odd-couple road comedy from 1996.

Osmonds celebrate success

By Lorri Antosz Benson
TVDATA FEATURES WRITER

Donny and Marie Osmond are flying high these days, thrilled with their five Emmy nominations.

Although their show's first season left much to be desired, this year just keeps getting better. The "Donny & Marie" staff took nominations in best talk show, best talk show host (for both Donny and Marie), outstanding achievement in hair styling and makeup, and outstanding directing.

When the nominations were announced, the top brass from Columbia Tristar Television, the show's syndicator, gave a surprise party to celebrate the big news. The suits showed up in the middle of a show and stopped the taping. They arrived with flowers, and one executive even had tears in her eyes while remarking that the show finally found its audience.

The significance of such a show of support is not lost on the sibling duo, especially in the wake of the recent cancellation of "The Martin Short Show"."

Marie is especially pleased to be nominated, remarking that this is her first nomination ever. She says she remembers not having much of a say in the production of the 1970s musical variety show "Donny and Marie" when she was 16, but now, with her producing and behind-the-scenes involvement, the nomination is all the more important to her.

Talk the Talk

The show's current ratings are nothing to write home to Utah about, especially compared to the awesome January and February numbers, but that's not a huge concern at the moment.

Show spokesman Jeff Ritter says, "March and April traditionally are spring break months, and the weather has been so nice, people are not watching TV that much."

Lisa Ling of "The View"" hopes that's not true, especially since she'll be pulling double duty next week, doing both her show and "Hollywood Squares." During a preshow interview, Ling chose actor Brad Pitt as the personality, living or dead, whom she'd most like to see on "Squares." "Of course," she clarified, "I'd like to see him anywhere!"

Donny and Marie Osmond

She admits to conferring with an old producer friend to prepare for "Squares" questions, "although I usually know the answers."

Not about everything, however. Ling says she is addicted to the Websites Ask Jeeves and Quicken.com. Her financial portfolio is on Quicken.com, so her interest there is understandable, but her penchant for Ask Jeeves came in handy recently at a friend's house while making a leg of lamb. Neither knew how to slice it, so Ling jumped online and got their answer

MONDAY'S BEST BETS

Movie: Punitive Damage

5:30 P.M. ON MAX

In 1991, Indonesian forces fired on an unarmed crowd demonstrating for democracy in East Timor. One of those killed was 20-year-old Kamal Bamadhaj. This documentary tells the story of his death and the three-year struggle of his mother, Helen Todd, for justice. She got no help from the Indonesian government, but the U.S.-based Center for Constitutional Rights took one of the massacre's leaders to court under a little-used law allowing the prosecution of "enemies of all humankind." A court in Boston tried the man in absentia and awarded Todd and her son's estate a total of $22 million, although it's unlikely the judgment will ever be paid.

When her fiance phones from Paris to break their engagement, her fear of losing him is even greater, so she boards a flight to France. On the plane, she meets a French jewel thief who uses her luggage to smuggle a diamond bracelet. Kevin Kline and Timothy Hutton also star.

But once they're in the woods, Red's the one calling on his powers of persuasion, trying to get Eric (Topher Grace) to kill a deer. While the guys are away, the gals lay their cards on the table for a session of female bonding over poker. Laura Prepon and Tanya Roberts also star in the encore of "Hunting."

The New York Knicks have a chance to even the season series when they entertain the Indiana Pacers at Madison Square Garden in New York. Each club has held serve thus far on its home court, with the Pacers gaining a 2-1 series edge in the last meeting on March 21. Jalen Rose continued his solid play, scoring 28 points as the Pacers overcame a 10-point deficit in the final 10 minutes. The Knicks were led by veteran Patrick Ewing, who finished with 23 points. Ewing's resurgent play of late bodes well for New York with the playoffs right around the corner.

Movie: Sex & Mrs. X

TUESDAY'S BEST BETS

JAG
7 P.M. ON CBS

Harm (David James Elliott) is in a ship's brig, questioning a sailor accused of murder, when the ship is damaged in a collision, trapping them below. If Harm doesn't go down with the ship, there's a good chance he'll be gunned down; the prisoner has grabbed the guard's weapon. But the accused is upset for a reason: He was framed. And the real killer won't mind at all if that information goes down with the ship, too. Catherine Bell also stars in the encore of "Cabin Pressure."

Buffy the Vampire Slayer
7 P.M. ON WB

Just as Buffy and Riley (Sarah Michelle Gellar, Marc Blucas) are dealing with their new insights into each other, the Hellmouth reopens, forcing Buffy and company back to high school to ward off disaster. Too bad for Spike (James Marsters), whose depression has been lifted by the possibility of apocalypse. Nicholas Brendon also stars in the encore of "Doomed."

Biography
7 P.M. ON A&E

"George Carlin" chronicles the long career of comedy's one-time angry young man, who's become clean and sober but far from mellow with age. In his 60s, he's still cranking out those wry observations on the irrationality of our world. While he's best known for his stand-up work — especially that "Filthy Words" monologue that folks literally made a federal case of — Carlin has also had his share of acting gigs: the "Bill & Ted" films, his own sitcom and the kid show "Shining Time Station," to name a few.

Megan Mullally
WILL & GRACE

Manilow Country
8 P.M. ON NASH

Barry Manilow has taken his share of ribbing for his perceived squareness, but his legions of fans don't care; they've made him one of the most successful music stars of all time. Some of those fans are stars themselves, and Manilow teams up with several of them for this two-hour celebration of his long career. He performs "Lay Me Down" with Trisha Yearwood and joins Jo Dee Messina to sing some of the commercial jingles he wrote when he was starting out. Also on the bill are Lorrie Morgan, Deana Carter, Neal McCoy, Kevin Sharp and others.

Will & Grace
8 P.M. ON NBC

In the encore of "Tea and a Total Lack of Sympathy," it's pink-slip time for Will (Eric McCormack) if he can't drum up a major client for the firm by week's end. The situation looks hopeless until he finds inspiration in a surprise visit from Karen (Megan Mullally). Grace and Jack (Debra Messing, Sean Hayes) want in on the action when their favorite TV program, an antiques-appraisal show, comes to town.

WEDNESDAY'S BEST BETS

The American Film Institute Salute to Harrison Ford

7 P.M. ON CBS

He hasn't won an Oscar yet, although he came close in 1985's "Witness." But Harrison Ford is one of the most popular actors in film today, not to mention one of the most versatile, handling action, comedy and romantic roles with equal aplomb. And at 57, he's also a certifiable hunk who earned "People" magazine's "Sexiest Man Alive" honor in 1998.

Star Trek: Voyager

7 P.M. ON UPN

In the two-part encore story "Equinox," Voyager encounters another Federation vessel stranded in the Delta Quadrant. Its captain (guest star John Savage), who seems like Janeway's (Kate Mulgrew) kind of people at first, turns out to have a murderous side. In "Equinox, Part Two," Janeway strips the rogue captain of his command, and he flees with Seven of Nine and the Doctor (Jeri Ryan, Robert Picardo) in tow. Roxann Dawson also stars.

Figure Skating

7 P.M. ON TNT

Figure skating is even popular in the summertime, as evidenced by the creation of the Champions on Ice Summer Tour. The latest stop takes the world's top skating stars to the MCI Center in Washington, D.C., for performances of their most challenging routines. Crowd favorites in every discipline are scheduled to take the ice, including American skating legend Brian Boitano and Canadian icon Elvis Stojko for the men, and four-time U.S. champion Michelle Kwan and 1994 Olympic gold medalist Oksana Baiul for the women.

THE AMERICAN FILM INSTITUTE SALUTE TO HARRISON FORD

The West Wing

8 P.M. ON NBC

Toby seeks more information about a destitute, forgotten war hero after discovering a poignant connection to the man: He died wearing a coat that Toby once gave to charity. Rumors that Leo's past drug use may hit the headlines send Sam and Josh to chat with Sam's hooker friend. The president sneaks out to Christmas shop while C.J. (Allison Janney) frets about his response to a high-profile hate crime. Moira Kelly also stars in the encore of "In Excelsis Deo."

Falcone

9 P.M. ON CBS

The series concludes its unconventional eight-night debut with "Paying the Piper." An explosion sends Sonny and Dede to the hospital, where Gold manages to get Sonny to agree to help nab Ricci.

American Justice

"Dancing, Drugs and Murder" is the story of Michael Alig, a Midwestern boy-turned-New York party animal whose designer-drug habit pushed him over the line to killing. Although he bragged about his 1996 murder of a drug dealer not even the police were interested until the body washed ashore.

THURSDAY'S BEST BETS

Diagnosis Murder

7 P.M. ON CBS

A U.S. Marine shoots himself in full view of witnesses at Steve and Jesse's (Barry Van Dyke, Charlie Schlatter) barbecue restaurant. Mark (Dick Van Dyke) attempts to find out why but comes up against a military bureaucracy that doesn't want him to know the answer. Mark Valley ("Days of Our Lives," "George Wallace") guest stars in "Murder at Bar-B-Que Bob's."

Movie: To Wong Foo, Thanks for Everything, Julie Newmar

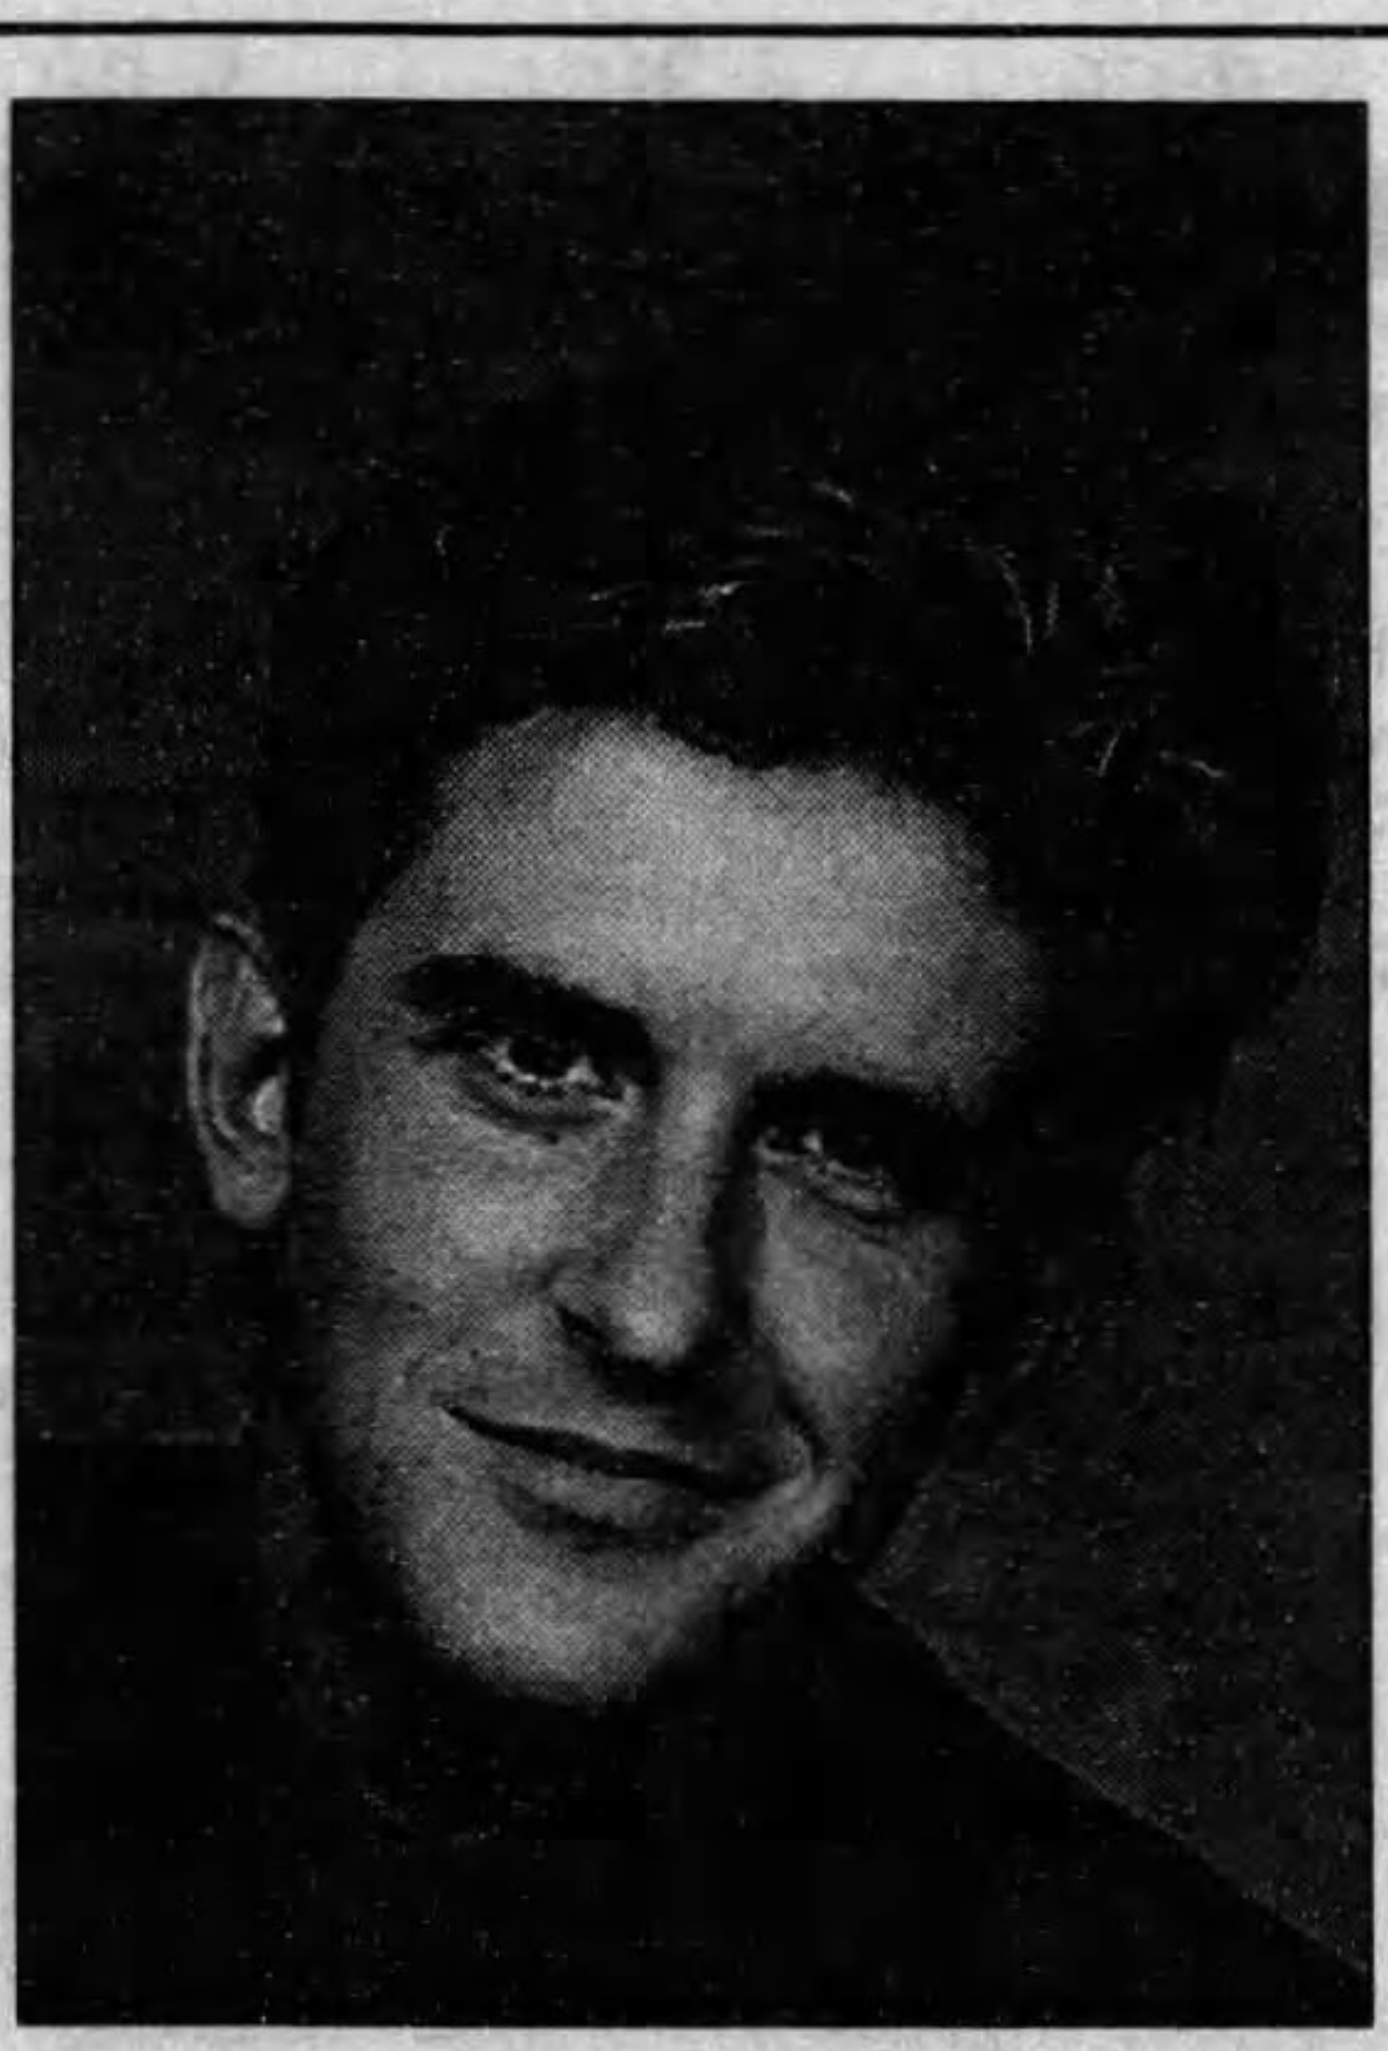
7 P.M. ON FOX

Patrick Swayze, Wesley Snipes and John Leguizamo star as drag queens in Hollywood's answer to "Priscilla, Queen of the Desert." After winning a trip to Hollywood, the three friends pile into a Cadillac and embark on a cross-country trip. When their car breaks down, they end up stranded in a small town where they have to show the locals that true beauty comes from within.

Movie: Giant

7 P.M. ON AMC

Edna Ferber's generation-spanning tale of a Texas ranch family was James Dean's last film. So it's gone down in movie history as a Dean picture, even though his character — a troubled ranch hand who strikes it rich — isn't the star. That label belongs to the ranch's crusty owner (Rock Hudson) and his Eastern wife (Elizabeth Taylor), who spends years battling the ingrained racism and sexism of Lone Star culture. Dennis Hopper and Mercedes McCambridge also star in the 1956 epic.



Charlie Schlatter
DIAGNOSIS MURDER

Movie: Saving Private Ryan

7 P.M. ON HBO

Steven Spielberg won the best director Oscar for this 1998 World War II drama, whose opening portrayal of the Normandy invasion is one of the most powerful war sequences in movie history. Tom Hanks stars as the captain in charge of a platoon assigned to go behind enemy lines and retrieve a private whose three brothers have all been killed.

Frasier

8 P.M. ON NBC

Frasier (Kelsey Grammer) gets a shot at the big time — teen-age variety — when he reconnects with the dream girl of his high-school years.

Investigative Reports

8 P.M. ON A&E

The encore of "Tabloid! Inside the New York Post" is a fast-paced chronicle of all the action, drama and confrontation involved in producing the nation's most widely read tabloid newspaper. It follows reporters and editors as they track down the raw material for their pages, decide what goes in and what goes where, and come up with that all-important front-page headline. Celebrities figure prominently in the process; Rupert Murdoch's flagship print property is as competitive with its gossip as it is with harder news coverage ... maybe more so.

Movie: Virtual Nightmare

7 P.M. ON UPN

Fans of "The Matrix" and "The Truman Show" will hear echoes of those big-screen hits in this thriller. A young ad executive (Michael Muhney, "Turks") discovers the world he's been living in is a virtual-reality illusion designed to cover up the fact that the real world has been destroyed by nuclear and chemical weapons. A more terrifying discovery awaits as he and a friend confront the man behind the machine. Tasma Walton and Peter Curtin also star.

Biography

7 P.M. ON A&E

"Phyllis Diller" is the story of the original stand-up gal, who parlayed her lifelong talent for making people laugh into stardom at a time when women didn't tell jokes for a living. She was a desperate mother of five whose husband couldn't keep a job when she took her first stab at show business. After several false starts, she got a fill-in gig at a San Francisco club and knocked 'em dead.

Next thing you know, he's developed a reputation around the neighborhood as a child abuser. Elise Neal, John Henton and Eric Allan Kramer also star in the encore of "Honey, I Beat the Kids."

Sabrina, the Teenage Witch

8 P.M. ON ABC

Sabrina (Melissa Joan Hart) gets a return visit from her cousin Amanda (Emily Hart, Melissa's real-life sister), who's grown from a bratty kid into a devious teen with her eye on Harvey (Nate Richert). Zelda (Beth Broderick) seeks some time to herself inside a genie's bottle, but her quiet little hideaway turns into a crowded prison when Hilda (Caroline Rhea) stops by and gets them both trapped. China Shavers also stars in "She's Baaaack!"

The Outer Limits

9:45 P.M. ON SHOW

SATURDAY'S BEST BETS

NFL Draft

11 A.M. ON ESPN

Chris Berman, Mel Kiper Jr., Joe Theismann and Chris Mortensen call the action as this year's young football stars get their chance to go pro. The Cleveland Browns get to choose first again, and depending on whether they want an offensive or defensive power, the coveted status of No. 1 draft pick could go to either LaVar Arrington of Penn State or Peter Warrick of Florida State.

Movie: Tin Cup

7 P.M. ON ABC

A failed golfer (Kevin Costner) falls for a beautiful psychologist (Rene Russo) who happens to be dating his old rival (Don Johnson). Eager to show up his old nemesis and get the lady, he goes out for the U.S. Open. The ending is a bit of a departure from the standard underdog-makes-good sports movie finale, but it won't disappoint. Cheech Marin also stars in this 1996 comedy-drama from "Bull Durham" director Ron Shelton.

iWon.com Annual $10 Million Giveaway

7 P.M. ON CBS

What is iWon.com? It's a Website where registered participants rack up chances to win money in daily, monthly and yearly giveaways. The drawing for the big yearly prize — $10 million — takes to the tube in this half-hour special hosted by Leeza Gibbons. The program includes profiles of the four finalists and a chance for two lucky viewers to win some cash, too.

3RD ROCK FROM THE SUN

3rd Rock From the Sun

7 P.M. ON NBC

Pro wrestler Chyna guest stars as Janice, the new cop on the block. While Harry (French Stewart) develops a case of the hots for the muscle-bound beauty, Sally (Kristen Johnston) feels threatened and challenges Janice for the unofficial title of strongest woman in Rutherford. Dick and Tommy (John Lithgow, Joseph Gordon-Levitt) discover the joys of online trading in the encore of "This Little Dick Goes to Market."

Biography

7 P.M. ON A&E

The encore of "Spencer Tracy: Triumph and Turmoil" profiles the first actor to win back-to-back Oscars, for "Captains Courageous" and "Boys Town." His resume contains plenty of bad-guy roles, but he's best remembered for his noble ones: the delinquent-saving priest in "Boys Town," the judge in "Judgment at Nuremberg," the liberal but conflicted newspaperman in "Guess Who's Coming to Dinner."

Figure Skating

8 P.M. ON CBS

"Ice Wars," taped last month in Norfolk, Va., pits eight of the world's top skaters against one another in two-person teams. Highlights include Kurt Browning's energetic "Play That Funky Music/Brickhouse" routine, Yuka Sato's near-perfect performance to "Hat Full of Stars," and a brand-new comic number by Scott Hamilton.

Dino-mite 'Dinosaurs' gives life to prehistoric creatures

By Jacqueline Cutler
TVDATA FEATURES WRITER

Discovery Channel's "Walking With Dinosaurs" is such a powerful, mesmerizing documentary that the three hours detailing the emergence, existence and, ultimately, the extinction of the planet's most fearsome creatures were precisely summed up by a 6-year-old lucky enough to see a preview. "It is wow!" she wrote on her pad of paper.

Indeed, it is.

What's most surprising is that it's a true wildlife program — showing how the prehistoric creatures lived in various habitats. No mean feat when you consider the stars weren't around for the shoot.

The BBC co-produced the special, which airs Sunday, April 16, on Discovery. On Monday, April 17, Discovery airs "The Making of Walking With Dinosaurs." Even those who prefer to remain oblivious to the wizardry necessary to create scientific magic will find this "Making of ..." fascinating.

Like most people, BBC series producer Tim Haines recalls that he was a huge fan of dinosaurs as a child. "I forgot them in my teens, then I remembered what they were there for: to provide good copy." A science journalist, Haines was well aware that dinosaurs had been done before.

Cover story

"I wanted to bring them, alive, to people," he says. "The only way to do that was to (make them) look like real animals, and (show) how they behave and raise their young. ... You are meant to be able to escape to this time. No matter how entertaining you make them, ultimately, people are learning things. But the great thing about seeing a Tyrannosaurus bounding around is it is highly entertaining."

So is seeing a T-Rex copulate — if you have the right funny bone. "It's a way of surprising people," Haines says. "You do not expect dinosaurs to mate. You think that they were born that size."

"Walking With Dinosaurs" became the most popular documentary series in British history when it premiered last fall as a series on the BBC. More than 100 paleontologists contributed to the film, which was shot where ancient wildlife still flourishes, including the Northern California redwood forests and Tasmania.

Though some of the crew set out for these exotic locales, much of the work to make it seem as if dinosaurs were tromping about came from animator Mike Milne. He says he used computer-generated animation, animatronics — dinosaurs made out of rubber that a puppeteer operates — and compositing, sticking the dinosaurs onto the background so "they look as if they are part of the scenery."

Cohen a Wolf in star's clothing

By Taylor Michaels
TVDATA FEATURES WRITER

Pipeline

I loved Scott Cohen as Wolf in "The 10th Kingdom." He looks familiar. Where have I seen him before? -Katie K., Perrysburg, Ohio.

"Kingdom" may have pulled in less-than-royal ratings, but I can't remember the last time a performer so electrified TV Pipeline readers, based on the number of letters and e-mails I have received about Cohen.

The 38-year-old actor is another one of those theater-trained performers who is just now making producers sit up and take notice of his prodigious talent. In addition to his tour-de-force performance as Wolf for NBC, February also saw him playing a detective in CBS' JonBenet Ramsey movie "Perfect Murder, Perfect Town," as well as alcoholic cop Harry Denby on ABC's "NYPD Blue."

Prior to that busy month, he appeared in the movies "Gia," "Gotti" and "Private Parts," among others, and played Ray Martino on "One Life to Live." He also made guest appearances on "Law & Order," "Oz" and "Feds."

Ironically, despite his many legitimate credits, he may be best known for the automobile commercial in which he wolfishly flirts with an attractive woman in the next car before being beaned by a stuffed toy thrown by his toddler in the back seat.

The Bronx-born actor, who is the son of jazz musician Jack Cohen, is married to playwright Anastasia Traina, with whom he has a son, Liam.

What is Richard Boone doing these days? Where could I write to him? -Jo Ellison, Onslow, Iowa.

The star of "Have Gun Will Travel" and "Hec Ramsey" died of throat cancer in 1981. He was 63.

What claimed the life of Jester Hairston, who played Rolly in "Amen"? -A fan in Phenix City, Ala.

Hairston's death on Jan. 18 was attributed to natural causes. He was 98 years old.

Obituaries for the late actress Hedy Lamarr mentioned that she was granted a communications patent. Can you shed light on this? -Paul Gerbracht, Erie, Pa.

In the 1940s, Lamarr and her husband, George Antheil, filed patents for technology that eventually led to the invention of the cell phone. She received a belated award for it in 1997.

I have never heard of Mare Winningham winning any type of award. Why is that? And is Will Ferrell of "Saturday Night Live" related to Mike Ferrell of "Providence"? -Michelle Lee, Chicago.

Winningham has won two Emmy Awards for her performances in "Amber Waves" and "George Wallace" and was nominated for an Oscar for her work in "Georgia." Will Ferrell is not related to Mike Farrell (note spelling) of "Providence" and "M*A*S*H."

SUNDAY'S BEST BETS

Walking With Dinosaurs

6 P.M. ON DISC

"Wild Kingdom" meets "Jurassic Park" in this three-hour special, which re-creates the age of giant reptiles with awe-inspiring realism. Spanning 155 million years of prehistory, it follows the everyday lives of Tyrannosaurus and other familiar species as well as such lesser-known but equally fearsome animals as the seagoing Liopleurodon and the high-flying Ornithocheirus.

Quest for the Lost Tribes

7 P.M. ON A&E

Ten of the 12 tribes of Israel fell victim to Assyrian invaders more than 2,700 years ago and were never heard from again. What became of them? Medieval Europeans thought their Mongol foes were descendants of the lost tribes; modern-day Mormons believe the same about American Indians. In this two-hour special, filmmaker Simcha Jacobovici visits Afghanistan, India, China and elsewhere on the trail of this centuries-old mystery, which may not stay a mystery that much longer.

Movie: Finding Buck McHenry

7 P.M. ON SHOW

There's something about Mack Henry (Ossie Davis), the new coach of Jason Ross' (Michael Schiffman) youth baseball team. Jason, who's been studying old baseball cards, strongly suspects that Mack is actually Buck McHenry, a Negro League star who mysteriously vanished years earlier, and is prepared to cover all the bases to prove his theory. Ruby Dee and Karl Pruner also star in this heartwarming family drama.

A handsome drifter named Hal (Josh Brolin) shows up in a small Kansas town in search of an old friend and a job. Movie: The Chamber

Time is running out for a Mississippi man (Gene Hackman) convicted of killing two children in a hate-motivated bombing three decades earlier. A young lawyer — who happens to be the man's grandson — makes it his mission to stop the impending execution, awakening some old ghosts that his relatives and the authorities would prefer not to disturb.

Roseanne's show may be out

By Lorri Antosz Benson
TVDATA FEATURES WRITER

Although talk host Roseanne was heard complaining that her show will soon be history, it's still hanging in there.

And amidst her professional doldrums, her personal life is flourishing. She recently celebrated her fifth anniversary with her husband, Ben Thomas, and is now sporting no less than a 10-carat diamond reminder on her finger.

And test results are in: Her daughter Jenny just found out she's expecting a baby boy this summer. They are exploring Hebrew names for the latest addition to Roseanne's family, and the word is that Ethan is currently at the top of the list.

Maybe Roseanne can consult Janis Joplin for name advice. Seems the talk host claims to frequently channel the late, great rocker. Somehow the idea of Joplin's voice coming from Roseanne's mouth is almost too much to imagine.

Almost.

Actually, Roseanne is still moonlighting as a singer in her own righ, when she's not hosting her show.

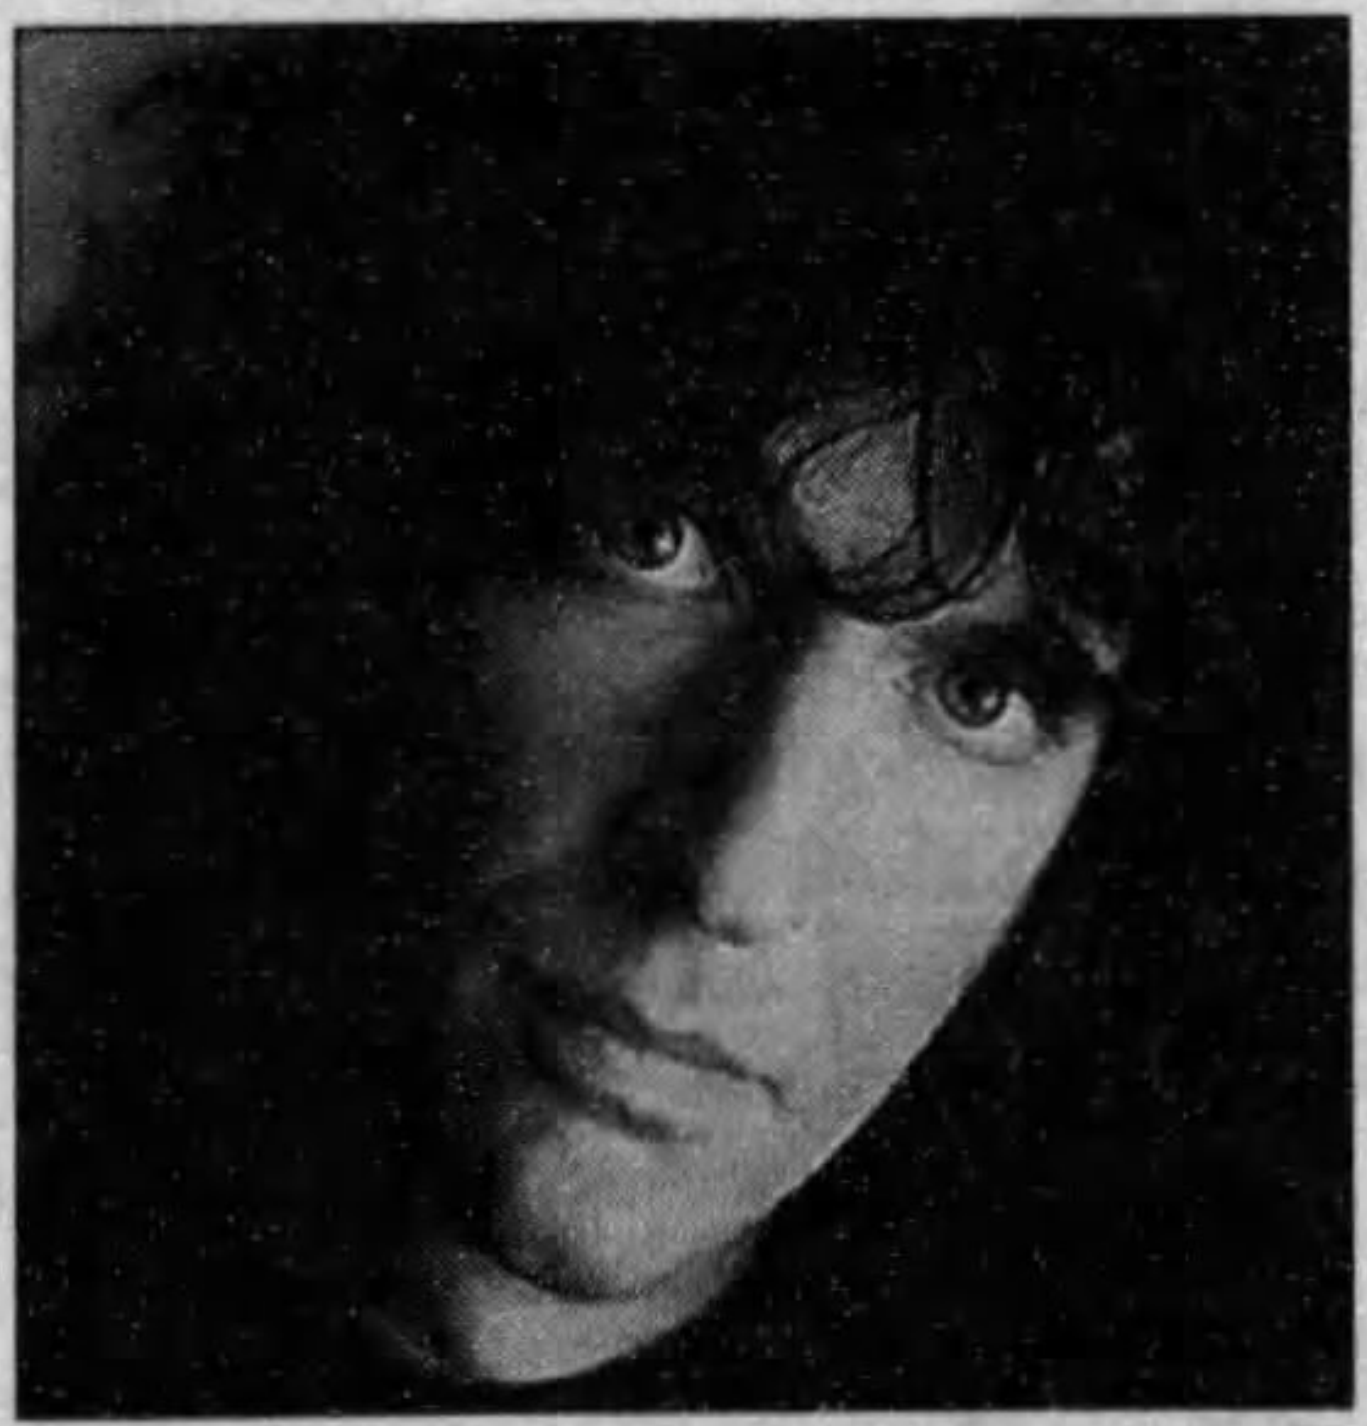
Talk the Talk

In fact, recently it appeared Roseanne wished she were singing, or doing almost anything besides hosting. Her guest was Angelyne, the blond model known as the "Billboard Queen." Her billboards can be seen from Hollywood to Times Square, and the antagonism between host and guest was as obvious as Angelyne's trademark pink Corvette.

A spokeswoman for "The Roseanne Show" says it came painfully close to being the first show where Roseanne walked out on a guest. It could've been a race to the door, since Angelyne threatened to walk, too, saying, "I'm going to leave if you don't stop talking about my chest!" Sounds like a talk show moment shock jock Howard Stern would be proud to call his own!

Speaking of Stern, he's now wearing a producer's hat with his new FX series, "Son of the Beach."

The sitcom, starring comic Timothy Stack as an inept head lifeguard, is banking on Stern's fans to make it a hit. Although Stern is confident his name will attract his radio audience, he also told recent press conference attendees that "if the show isn't strong and isn't great, people will disappear."



Howard Stern

Host Donny Osmond has been disappearing — every weekend, that is. The famous father of five boys spends weeknights in the comfort of a room at the television studio in Los Angeles and leaves every Thursday night on a direct flight home to Utah.

He and his family have been spending their "quality time" together skiing at Sundance, where the "Donny & Marie" host shows the kids a thing or two about the newest ski trend, snowblading.

MONDAY'S BEST BETS

Movie: Trapped in a Purple Haze
7 P.M. ON ABC

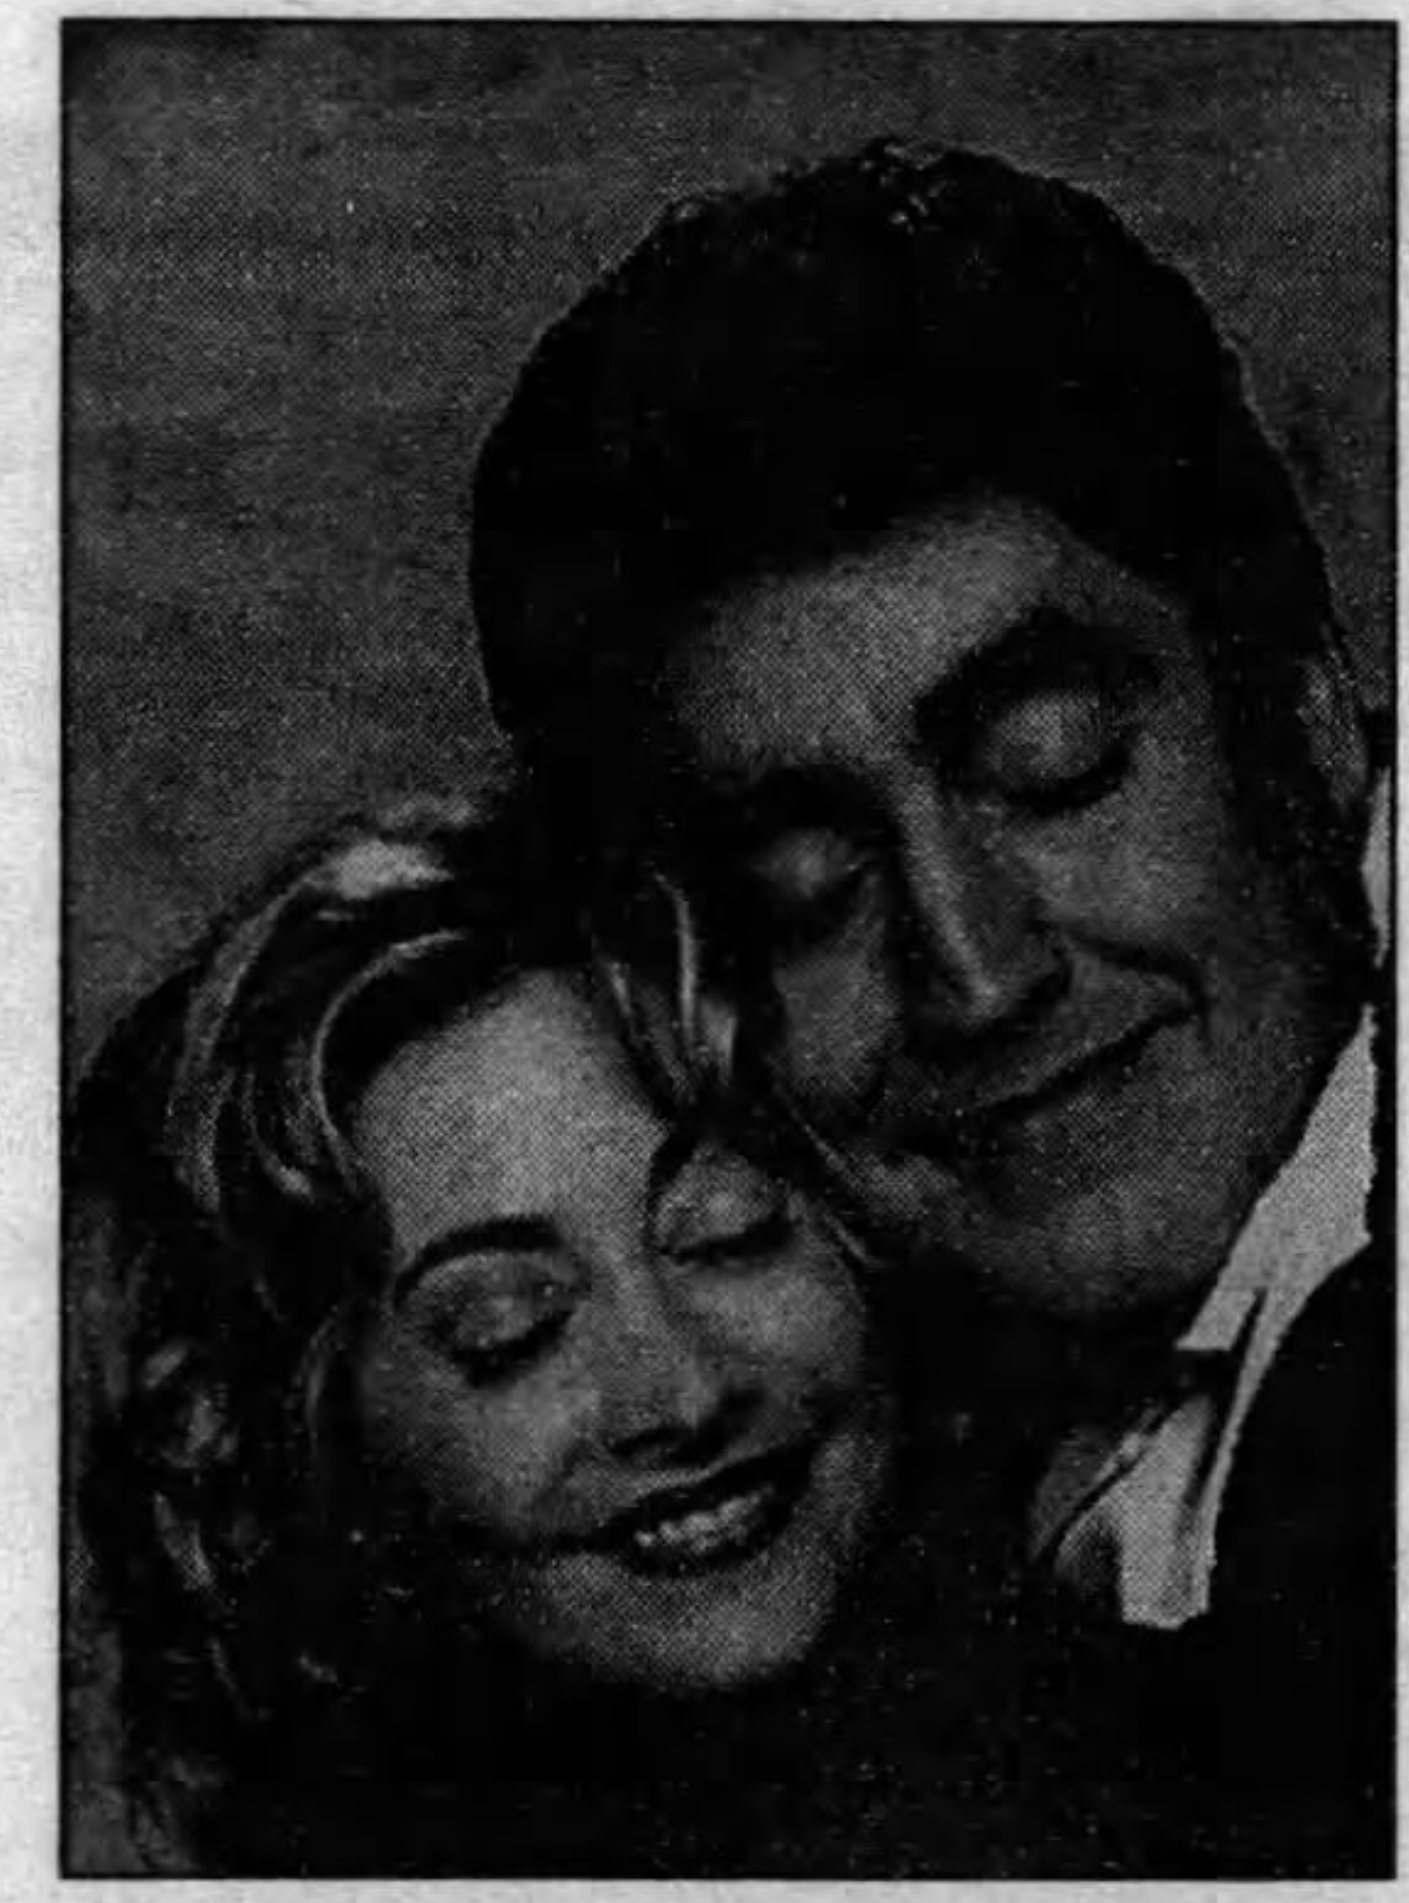
Ed and Sophie Hanson (Colm Feore, JoBeth Williams) learn the hard way that heroin isn't just an inner-city scourge when their son Max (Jonathan Jackson, "General Hospital") gets hooked at college. The devastation wrought by the drug is obvious to everyone but Max until tragedy strikes. Carly Pope ("Popular") also stars in this drama from the producer of the Emmy-winning "Don King: Only in America."

The King of Queens
7 P.M. ON CBS

Doug (Kevin James) decides it's time to give something back to the community and volunteers as a Big Brother. Eager to be a hero to his new young friend, he undertakes another new venture: a 10K run. Carrie (Leah Remini) declares her love for (gasp!) another man in "Big Dougie." Victor Williams and Patton Oswalt also star.

Biography
7 P.M. ON A&E

"Drew Barrymore: Beating the Odds" profiles the child actress who developed a grown-up's taste for the Hollywood fast lane of parties, booze and drugs before she hit her teens. She eventually conquered her addictions and narrowly escaped being typecast as a teen tramp ("Poison Ivy," "The Amy Fisher Story") before emerging as a full-fledged adult star. Musician David Crosby, a family friend, is among the interviewees in this profile.



Sharon Lawrence and Alfred Molina
LADIES MAN

Ladies Man
7:30 P.M. ON CBS

The sitcom returns with "Decent Proposal," which finds Jimmy and Donna (Alfred Molina, Sharon Lawrence) dealing with a wealthy ex-boyfriend of Donna's who hasn't figured out that money can't buy him love. He's prepared to offer Jimmy a sizable sum for her hand. Mitzi (Betty White) has her eyes on a new prize: a driver's license. Only trouble is, those eyes don't work too well. Stephen Root guest stars.

Ally McBeal
8 P.M. ON FOX

He may never replace Billy, but Mark Albert (James LeGros) has something Cage/Fish can use: a solid background in criminal cases. So Fish (Greg Germann) is eager to bring him aboard, to Ally's (Calista Flockhart) dismay, in "I Will Survive." Fans of "ER" may recognize LeGros from his stint as Dr. Max Rocher a couple of years back.

Third Watch
9 P.M. ON NBC

A little girl who has wandered away from a car accident has the police, paramedics and firefighters combing the city in "Spring Forward Fall Back." A furious Sully (Skipp Sudduth) is out for blood after a homeless man attacks his priest (James Handy). A small-time drug dealer helps Yokas and Bosco (Molly Price, Jason Wiles) uncover some surprising information about a meth lab. Michael Beach also stars.

TUESDAY'S BEST BETS

3rd Rock From the Sun

7 P.M. ON NBC

Dick and Mary (John Lithgow, Jane Curtin) fall out of step at a dance contest when she fails to keep up with his overeager moves and quits. Down but not out, he grabs another partner: Nina (Simbi Khali), ignoring the fact that she's with Harry (French Stewart). Sally's (Kristen Johnston) efforts to bond with Alissa (Larisa Oleynik) are scuttled after the teen-ager inadvertently gets a peek at Don (Wayne Knight) in the buff. Joseph Gordon-Levitt also stars in "Shall We Dick?"

NBA Basketball

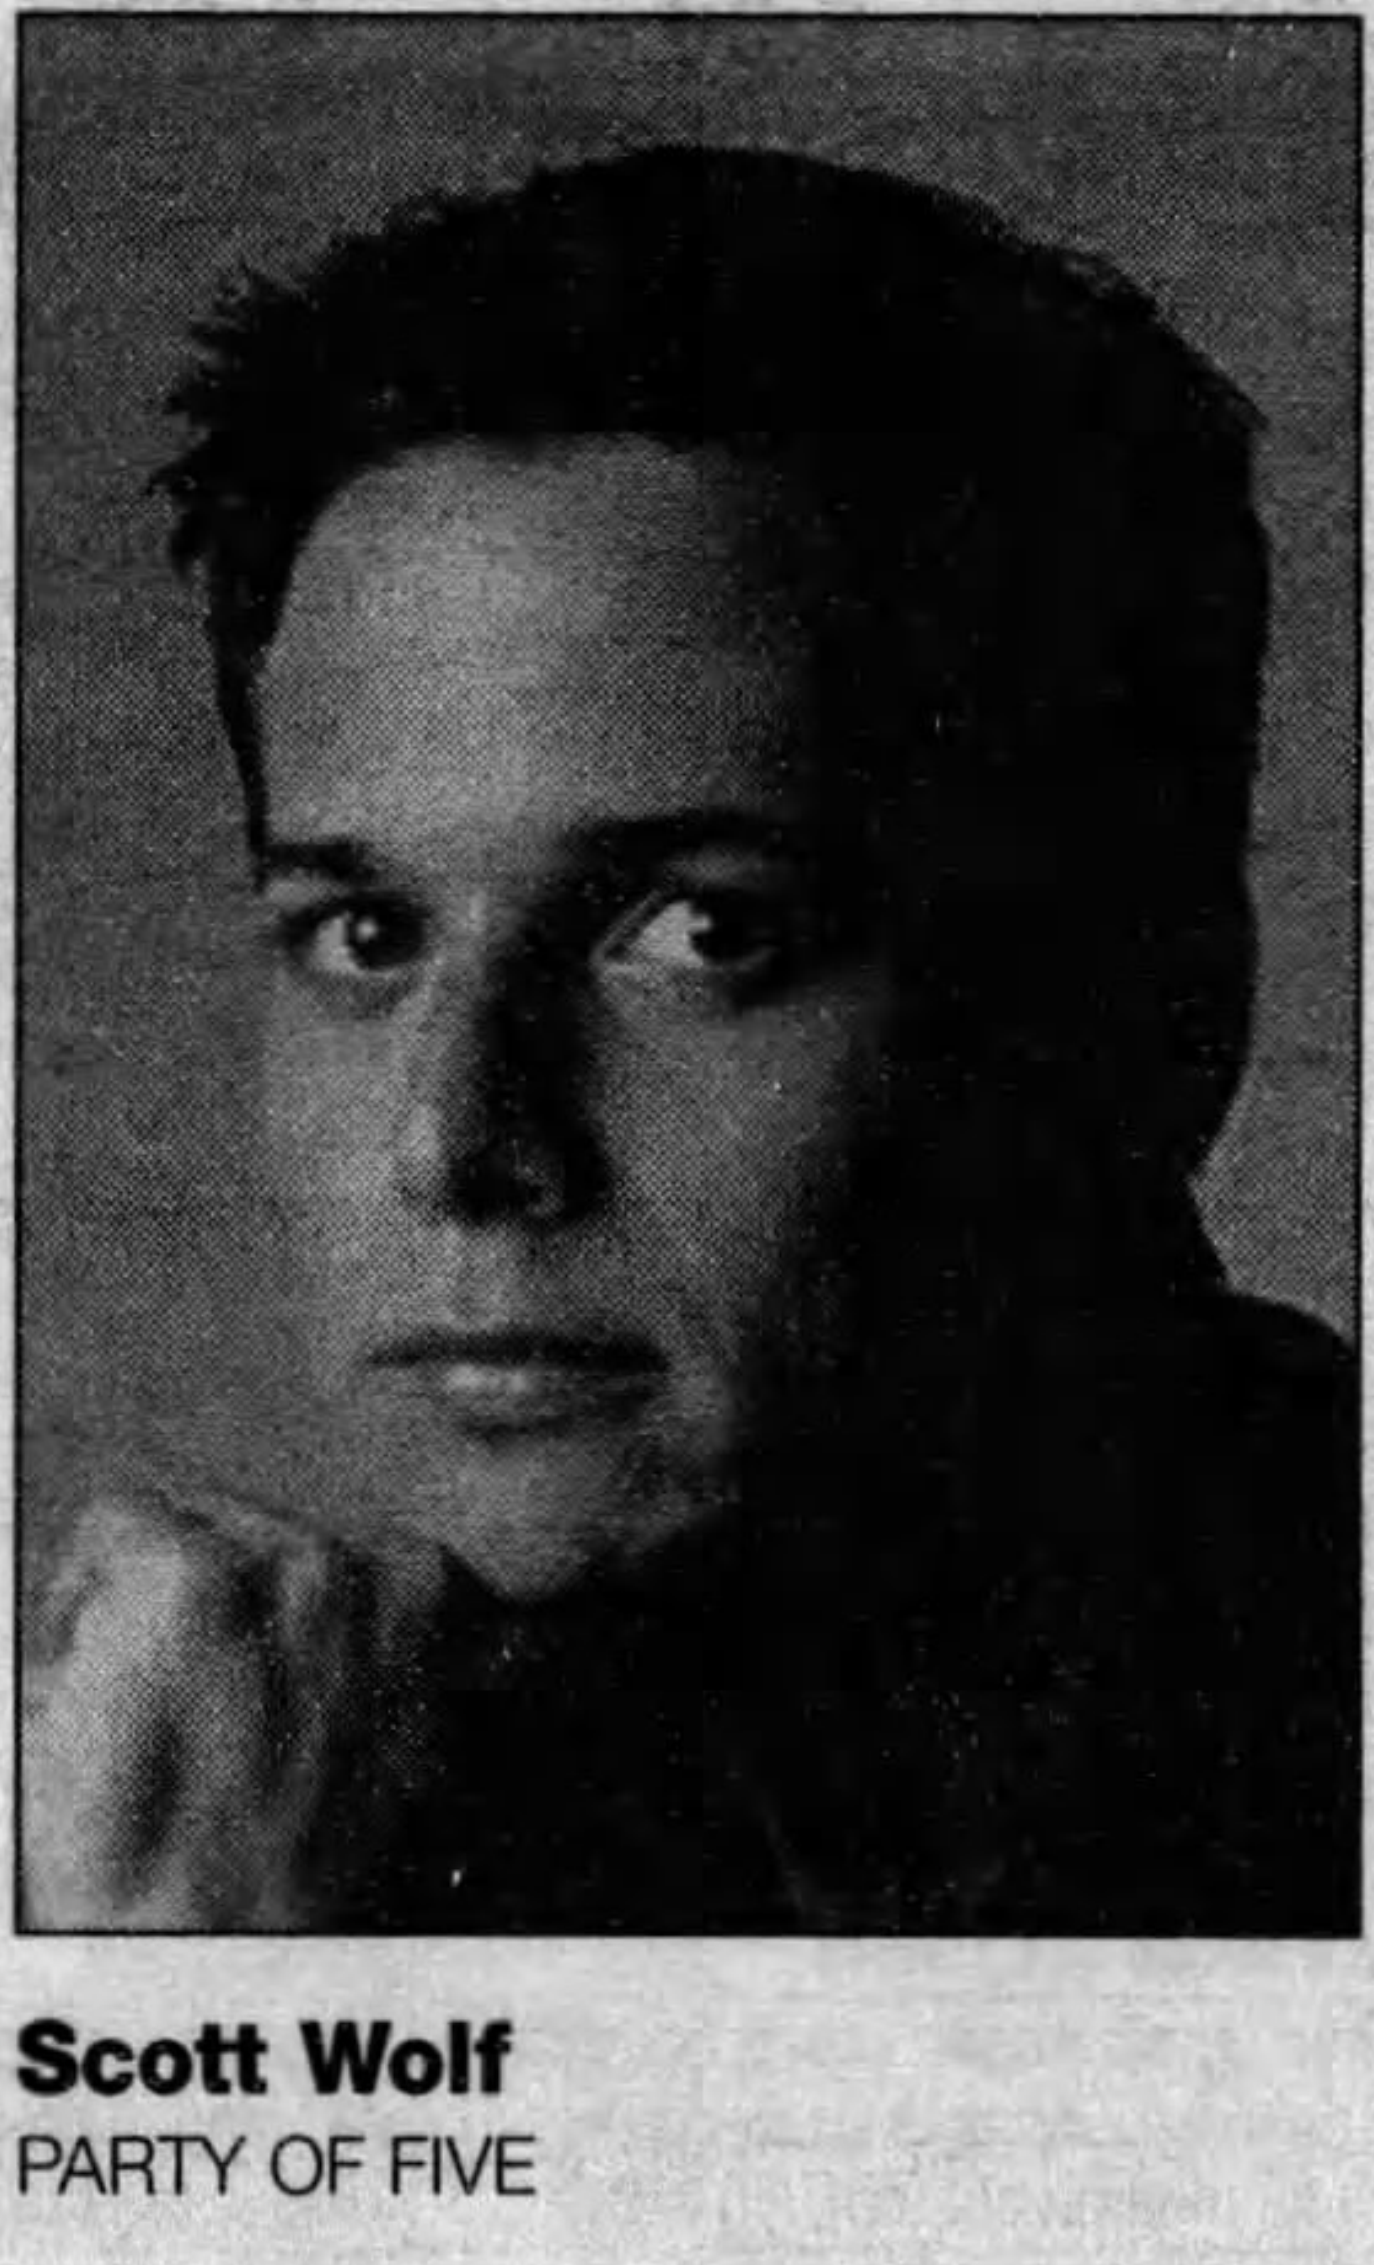
7 P.M. ON TNT

A basketball double-header kicks off with the Miami Heat hosting the Toronto Raptors. Toronto's Vince Carter is having the season of a lifetime, thanks to last-second heroics and aerial moves that would make a bird jealous. Alonzo Mourning and the Heat look to put a stop to the Raptors' late-season surge to the playoffs. In game No. 2, the Houston Rockets head west to battle the Phoenix Suns. When the Suns' Jason Kidd went down with a broken ankle, fan-favorite Kevin Johnson was coaxed out of retirement to add his repertoire of tricks to the offensive talents of Anfernee Hardaway.

Party of Five

8 P.M. ON FOX

They're only trying to prepare for immigration officials' nosy questions, but Bailey (Scott Wolf) can't help but be bothered when Will and Holly (Scott Grimes, Rhona Mitra) start swapping intimate confidences. A co-worker's miscarriage has Kirsten (Paula Devicq) terrified that the same thing will happen to her. Julia (Neve Campbell) contemplates a run to the border with Adam (Sean Maher), while a dream causes Claudia (Lacey Chabert) to look at Todd (Thomas Ian Nicholas) with new eyes in "Great Expectations."



Scott Wolf
PARTY OF FIVE

Movie: Clear and Present Danger

8 P.M. ON USA

His American Film Institute salute earlier this month wasn't enough? Get another Ford fix from a two-night double feature starring hunky Harrison as CIA agent Jack Ryan. In this 1994 thriller, Ryan becomes entangled in political double-dealing when he is unexpectedly called in to replace the agency's chief (James Earl Jones). Willem Dafoe and Anne Archer also star. The action continues Wednesday with a screening of "Patriot Games."

NYPD Blue

9 P.M. ON ABC

Andy Sipowicz (Dennis Franz) is a good cop, but his people skills aren't the best. And he could use some to crack his and Sorenson's (Rick Schroder) latest case: an elderly couple's murder. Enter the new guy, Jones (Henry Simmons), who has just the right charm to get a confession out of the suspect. An old friend of Medavoy's (Gordon Clapp) seeks his help after getting entangled with the Chinese mob in "Good-Bye Charlie."

Matt (Daniel Cosgrove) continues wrestling with the aftermath of his desert fling — should he tell Kelly (Jennie Garth)? — in "And Don't Forget to Give Me Back My Black T-Shirt."

Biography

7 P.M. ON A&E

Did you think the Branch Davidian sect took its name from leader David Koresh? Actually the group came first. That's one of the interesting bits of information in "David Koresh: Preacher of Fire." As a troubled youth, he found solace from trouble at home and school in the Seventh-day Adventist Church. Excommunicated from that religion, he found his way to the Branch Davidians — a group whose name would still be unknown to most Americans if Koresh hadn't gotten it into the gun business.

Tori Spelling

BEVERLY HILLS, 90210

Movie: The Mirror Has Two Faces

7:30 P.M. ON CBS

Barbra Streisand stars in this 1996 comedy-drama as a college professor with little interest — or confidence — in her physical appearance. After agreeing to a platonic marriage with a colleague, she is surprised to find herself falling in love with him. When he doesn't return her romantic feelings, she undergoes a dramatic make-over hoping to change his mind. Jeff Bridges and Lauren Bacall also star.

Felicity

8 P.M. ON WB

Greg asks Felicity to manage his campaign for student council president, but his views inspire her to take a different road into the political arena.

Law & Order

9 P.M. ON NBC

McCoy (Sam Waterston) is reunited with ex-colleague Jamie Ross (Carey Lowell), but it's not exactly a happy meeting. She's on the defense side now, and her client, an accused murderer, is an unsavory fellow who may have killed before. An innocent life hangs in the balance; a man who's been wrongly convicted faces execution for the crime her client committed if she gets him off.

THURSDAY'S BEST BETS

Movie: The River
6:30 P.M. ON FAM

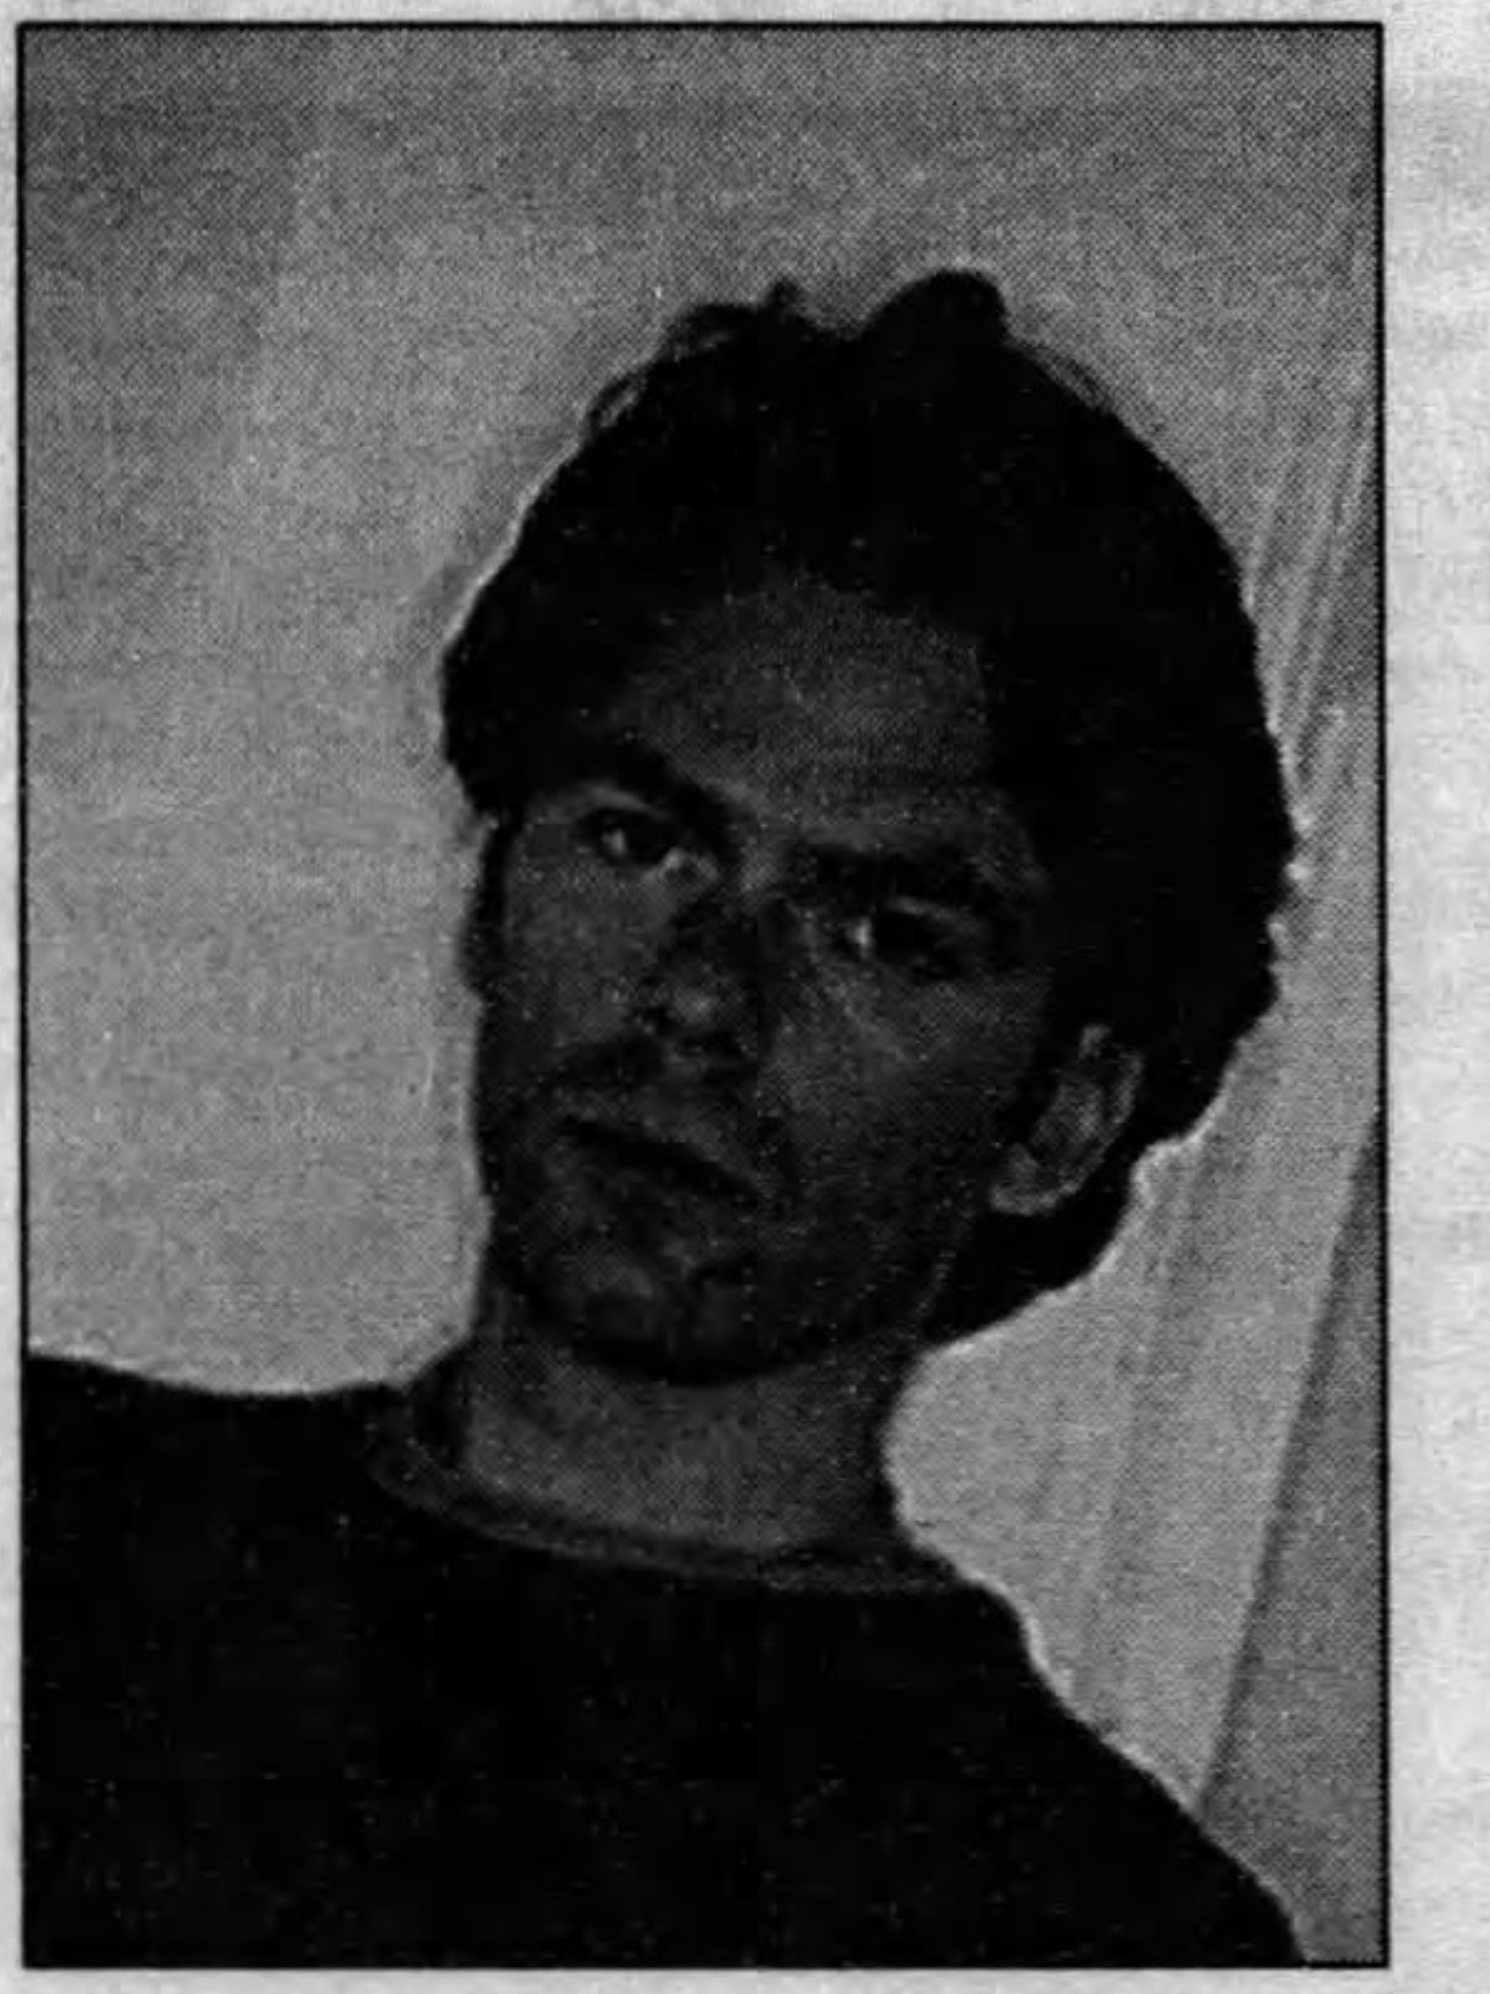
A raging, flooded river threatens to push an already-struggling farm couple (Sissy Spacek, Mel Gibson) over the edge by destroying their crops, their home and their livelihood. Spacek's performance and John Williams' score earned Oscar nominations. Scott Glenn, Shane Bailey and Becky Jo Lynch also star in this 1984 drama directed by Mark Rydell ("On Golden Pond").

Movie: The Full Monty
7 P.M. ON FOX

This British comedy, made on a relatively small budget with no superstars in the cast, was the sleeper hit of 1997. Audiences loved the story of the six jobless steelworkers who reclaim their manhood — and make some much-needed money — by putting on a strip show with something the Chippendales version doesn't offer. Robert Carlyle ("Trainspotting") and Tom Wilkinson star.

Friends
7 P.M. ON NBC

In the encore of "The One With the Joke," "Playboy" magazine accepts a gag submitted by Ross (David Schwimmer), causing an argument with Chandler (Matthew Perry) over the joke's origins. Monica and Rachel (Courteney Cox Arquette, Jennifer Aniston) put Phoebe (Lisa Kudrow) on the spot, ordering her to decide who'd make the better girlfriend. Joey (Matt LeBlanc) frets over how to take a much-needed job at the coffee shop without attracting attention.



Billy Burke
WONDERLAND

8 P.M. ON A&E
Investigative Reports

There's more at stake in school bullying than blackened eyes and stolen lunch money. It can be fatal, driving some victims to suicide and others to murder; the Littleton, Colo., and Pearl, Miss., school shootings were both cases of bullied youngsters exacting the ultimate revenge. And as in other forms of abuse, victims often become abusers themselves.

8:30 P.M. ON NBC
Battery Park

In "Fast Times at Union High," Carl and Kevin (Jay Paulson, Robert Mailhouse) go under cover as a student and a substitute teacher to catch computer thieves at a high school. Carl, however, is distracted from the business at hand by his popularity with the other "kids."

9 P.M. ON ABC
Wonderland

Jeremy Piven ("Ellen," "Cupid") guest stars in "The Raw and the Cooked" as a stand-up comic whose offstage troubles are no joke. He has bipolar disorder and appears bent on self-destruction ... unless Dr. Matthews (Billy Burke) can save him. A female patient with insatiable "appetites" has Hatcher and Garrity (Michael Jai White, Michelle Forbes) baffled. Ted Levine also stars.

Friday's Best Bets

Boy Meets World

7 P.M. ON ABC

Cory and Topanga (Ben Savage, Danielle Fishel) have a rude awakening at the end of their honeymoon. With no leads on decent housing, they're forced to begin their wedded bliss in the married students dorm: a less-than-perfect place for romance. Speaking of romance, an encounter with a fetching set of triplets sends Eric's and Jack's (Will Friedle, Matthew Lawrence) fantasy meters off the scale in the encore of "The Honeymoon Is Over."

Biography

7 P.M. ON A&E

The encore profile "The von Trapp Family: Harmony and Discord" reveals that the hills were alive with sounds other than music for the family singing troupe immortalized in "The Sound of Music." Interviews with several of the von Trapp children paint a complex and disturbing portrait of their mother, Maria. Despite the play and film's portrayal of her husband the baron as cold and dictatorial, it appears Maria von Trapp was the real tyrant in the family.

The Last Cigarette

8 P.M. ON TLC

Humphrey Bogart, John Wayne, Albert Einstein and Franklin Roosevelt puff away. Commercial models extol the nonirritating qualities of the smokes they're pitching. Johnny the bellboy calls for Philip Morris. And tobacco executives hem and haw under the questioning of congressmen. This feature-length special explores our love-hate relationship with tobacco through an amazing array of images from movies, ads and news reports. They range from the poignant (an asthmatic child's plea for curbs on smoking) to the bizarre ("porn" videos catering to the cigarette fetish). Kevin Rafferty ("The Atomic Cafe") is the creator of this entertaining look at a serious subject.

Will Friedle
BOY MEETS WORLD

Nash Bridges

9 P.M. ON CBS

In the encore of "Get Bananas," Nash, Joe and Jake (Don Johnson, Cheech Marin, guest star "Stone Cold" Steve Austin) go up against the SLA. No, not the Symbionese Liberation Army, but you're close: the Simian Liberation Army, an animal-rights group. Our heroes' mission is to protect a celebrity chimp from the organization's well-intentioned but misguided plan to send him back to the wild. Yasmine Bleeth also stars.

Law & Order: Special Victims Unit

9 P.M. ON NBC

Patricia Richardson guest stars in the encore of "Wanderlust" as a woman caught in the middle of a murder. She's the victim's landlord and the girlfriend of Stabler and Benson's (Christopher Meloni, Mariska Hargitay) prime suspect (John Dossett), a mild-mannered sort with pedophile tendencies. She's also the mother of a 14-year-old girl who may actually hold the key to the crime ... if Stabler can get over his discomfort at her sexual precocity. Richard Belzer also stars.

SATURDAY'S BEST BETS

Auto Racing

2:30 P.M. ON ABC

Engines rev and rubber burns as race cars spin in a warm-up to the Indy 500 in May. Many of the Indy Racing League's top drivers take to the sweltering Las Vegas Motor Speedway asphalt in the Vegas Indy 300. Sam Schmidt never relinquished his No. 1 pole position and steered his G Force-Aurora to the checkered flag at the track's last big IRL race: September's Vegas.com 500. Other race-car drivers scheduled to compete include Kenny Brack, Greg Ray and Scott Goodyear.

Movie: Star Trek: First Contact

7 P.M. ON ABC

In a story reminiscent of "Star Trek IV: The Voyage Home," the Enterprise crew blasts into the past to save the future. Its mission: Stop the Borg from mucking up humanity's first encounter with aliens — Vulcans, to be exact — and taking over the Earth. Patrick Stewart, Michael Dorn, Jonathan Frakes, LeVar Burton, Brent Spiner, Gates McFadden, Marina Sirtis and other familiar faces from "Star Trek: The Next Generation" are aboard for the eighth big-screen "Trek" tale, which also stars Alfre Woodard, James Cromwell and Alice Krige.

Early Edition

7 P.M. ON CBS

Gary (Kyle Chandler) temporarily loses his eyesight saving a group of teen-agers from an explosion. While recovering, he befriends 9-year-old Nate (guest star Adam Tanguay), who's been the target of bullying by the teens Gary rescued. And they're not finished with him; tomorrow's paper brings word that the bullies have locked Nate in a warehouse and accidentally set it on fire. Blind or not, Gary's not about to let the boy die without a fight. Shanesia Williams and Elya Baskin also star in "Blind Faith."

Michael Dorn
STAR TREK: FIRST CONTACT

The Others

8 P.M. ON NBC

The loss of three patients causes friction between Mark (Gabriel Macht) and his father (Stephen Macht, Gabriel's real-life dad), a hospital board member. Mark has his suspicions that whatever killed the three is much bigger than a microbe, and he can't fight it alone, especially after he becomes ill himself. The solution may rest with an elderly female patient (guest star Marian Seldes) whose arrival coincided with the deaths in "Mora." Julianne Nicholson and Bill Cobbs also star.

Dalziel & Pascoe

8 P.M. ON A&E

In "Recalled to Life," new evidence surfaces in a 36-year-old murder case, and the woman (Shirley Ann Field) convicted of the crime is released. Dalziel (Warren Clarke) worked on the case as a young cop, and he's still convinced they put the right woman away. Another piece of evidence that he's had in his refrigerator all these years may be the key — literally — to clearing him and his old mentor of misfeasance. Colin Buchanan also stars.

TLC retraces Napoleon's intriguing 'Quest for Egypt'

By Cynthia Werthamer
TVDATA FEATURES WRITER

Cover story

Raise your hand if you knew that Napoleon traveled to Egypt. Pat yourself on the back if you knew that he not only tried to conquer Egypt, but the Holy Land as well — and almost succeeded.

These little-known facts are brought out in an interesting and thought-provoking documentary, "Napoleon's Obsession: The Quest for Egypt," premiering Sunday, April 23, on The Learning Channel.

Dr. Bob Brier, the noted Egyptologist who hosted the popular TLC miniseries "The Great Egyptians," narrates the special. He tells the story of Napoleon's lust for Egyptian control in a style that's a combination of academic knowledge, storytelling and down-home folktale. He calls Napoleon "one of the most interesting and complex men who ever lived — and one of my favorite people," which gives an idea of Brier's personal relationship with his subject.

"Everybody says, 'Napoleon went to Egypt?' " Brier says. "That's why we call (1798) the missing year; no one knows about it." The show makes imaginative use of modern footage, contemporary paintings and shots of the grand Egyptian landscape to make its point visually.

"The impetus for this project was me," says Brier, a philosophy professor at Long Island University whose excitement about Napoleon is contagious. "I love the Egyptian campaign and I thought it would be interesting to show what I know."

Napoleon went to Egypt for a new challenge — "We must go to the East; all great glory has always been gained there," he says — and also to block the trade routes to India by the British, the enemies of the French.

But what makes Napoleon's charge into Africa so fascinating, Brier adds, is that he didn't just bring troops, he brought scientists, artists and engineers to document all the historical, artistic and cultural artifacts they found. Egypt was unknown to Europeans in 1798, and Napoleon, who was only 29, was nearly as interested in art and literature as he was in military victory.

"We can translate hieroglyphs because of Napoleon Bonaparte," Brier says, referring to the discovery by Napoleon's scientists of the Rosetta Stone. The Egyptian pictographs, undecipherable for centuries since the Egyptians had forgotten how to read their own earlier language, would have been lost for even longer without the Rosetta Stone, which has hieroglyphs carved on one side and a Greek translation on the other.

Gil Bellows' will haunt 'Ally McBeal'

By Taylor Michaels
TVDATA FEATURES WRITER

Why did the character of Billy Thomas on "Ally McBeal" die? -An "Ally" fan in Kentucky.

After three turbulent years on the hit series, actor Gil Bellows decided he was ready to move on to something new (his TV wife, Courtney Thorne-Smith, also is leaving), so creator and executive producer David E. Kelley decided to do something characteristically quirky with the situation.

Billy will "haunt" the law offices where Ally (Calista Flockhart) works (Bellows has agreed to do guest spots next season). Meanwhile, Ally will flirt with an attorney played by new cast regular James LeGros.

Who starred in the recent color remake of the 1962 film "What Ever Happened to Baby Jane"? -L. Sims, Lanett, Ala.

Sister act Lynn and Vanessa Redgrave starred in that 1991 TV movie as Jane and Blanche Hudson, the roles originally played by Bette Davis and Joan Crawford, respectively.

Pipeline

I heard that Richard Belzer of "Law & Order: Special Victims Unit" is the only actor to appear on five different series as the same character, Detective John Munch. I know Munch also appeared on "Law & Order," "Homicide: Life on the Street" and "The X-Files." What was the fifth? -A.R., Garfield, N.J.

According to both NBC and the Internet Movie Database, Belzer has appeared as Munch only on the four shows you mention.

I haven't seen Mike Minor ("Petticoat Junction") or Michael Conrad ("Hill Street Blues") for years. Are they still in the business? And on a recent "Quincy" rerun, an actress named Carole Cook looked an awful lot like Vivian Blaine from "Guys and Dolls." Please set me straight. -A.B. Arledge, Howell, Mich.

Conrad, sadly, died during the run of "Hill Street Blues," a passing that was written into the story line for the show.

Apart from "Petticoat Junction," Minor, now 59, has acted mainly in daytime soap operas such as "The Edge of Night," "All My Children" and "As the World Turns," as well as guest starring on "CHiPs," "My Three Sons" (his dad was the show's executive producer) and "The Beverly Hillbillies" (as his "Petticoat" character, Steve Elliott).

His most recent credit that I could find was as Dr. Royal Dunning on "Another World" from 1983-84. His marriage to "Petticoat" co-star Linda Kaye (Henning) lasted less than five years, ending in 1973.

Cook, who has enjoyed a successful movie, TV and stage career, was the protegee of Lucille Ball and was most recently seen in the David Spade movie comedy "Lost & Found." She is not related to Blaine, who died in 1995.

SUNDAY'S BEST BETS

WTA Tennis

3 P.M. ON FOX

In a who's who of tennis usually reserved for a high-profile event like the U.S. Open, the sport's biggest names head to Hilton Head, S.C., for the Family Circle Cup. Players scheduled to compete at Sea Pines Racquet Club include Anna Kournikova, Lindsay Davenport, Mary Pierce, Jennifer Capriati and former winner Conchita Martinez. At press time, last year's winner, Martina Hingis, had not committed to play.

Movie: The Miracle Maker

6 P.M. ON ABC

If your only exposure to clay animation has been vintage "Gumby," you'll be pleasantly surprised by this British-Russian collaboration, which tells the story many consider the greatest ever: Jesus' life and death. The filmmakers have done their homework, keeping historical accuracy in mind and consulting with clergy throughout. Their efforts have paid off; audiences — even the most devout — have been pleased. Ralph Fiennes provides the voice of Jesus, with additional voices by Julie Christie, William Hurt, Richard E. Grant and Miranda Richardson.

Major League Baseball

7 P.M. ON ESPN

In many people's opinions, the Oakland Athletics have what it takes to get to the World Series, while the Baltimore Orioles have had the potential for years with little success. The two teams go at it from the Network Associates Coliseum in Oakland, Calif. The A's youth movement has put them in a good spot to power their way to the postseason, while the Oriole veterans look to finally fulfill their promise of getting to the playoffs.

Lindsay Davenport
WTA TENNIS

Movie: Enslavement: The True Story of Fanny Kemble

7 P.M. ON SHOW

Fanny Kemble was a British actress who saw the horrors of slavery firsthand when she and her American husband moved to his family plantation. She put her own marriage and family relationships on the line to give slaves medical care, education and, ultimately, freedom. Jane Seymour ("Dr. Quinn, Medicine Woman") stars in this inspiring new biography of Kemble, with Keith Carradine as her unsympathetic husband. Seymour's real-life spouse, James Keach, directed the film and plays Dr. Houston, another anti-slavery crusader.

Movie: Michael

8 P.M. ON CBS

"Touched by an Angel" fans, be warned: Michael is no Monica, Tess or Andrew. This angel's job is fighting evil, but his hobby is reveling in earthly pleasures: beer, cigarettes, sugar and women. He's more than willing to oblige the three tabloid reporters who want to take him to Chicago and front-page fame; the trip will give him a chance to see a few sights and perform a few good works. John Travolta, Andie MacDowell, William Hurt and Robert Pastorelli star in this offbeat but heartwarming 1996 fantasy.

Letterman, a busy producer

By Lorri Antosz Benson
TVDATA FEATURES WRITER

David Letterman is a changed man.

His emergency quadruple bypass surgery in January has changed his life in a big way — no more cigars!

Letterman typically appeared in public with a stogie firmly rooted between his teeth. Now he's given them up in his quest for "the new Dave."

It's clear the surgery gave him the scare of a lifetime, and now that he's back to work full-time, he's taking no chances.

He's also not sitting back, resting on his multimillion-dollar laurels. His production company, Worldwide Pants, is ready to run with a new comedy series, "Stuckeyville."

Starring Jim Gaffigan, "Stuckeyville" (which may be renamed if it airs) is about a 30-year-old lawyer who leaves his Midwestern roots for the Big Apple. He makes it big but later is fired. Adding insult to injury, he finds his wife in bed with the mailman and decides to head back home to Ohio.

Some see this as a glimpse into Letterman's psyche, where the hugely successful comic may secretly believe that all his glory could disappear overnight.

Talk the Talk

The pilot for this half-hour comedy is currently being filmed.

After years of being a "wannabe" production company, Worldwide Pants is on the verge of becoming a real player in the development arena.

In addition to producing "The Late Show," Letterman's company is responsible for "The Late Late Show" with Craig Kilborn and "Everybody Loves Raymond."

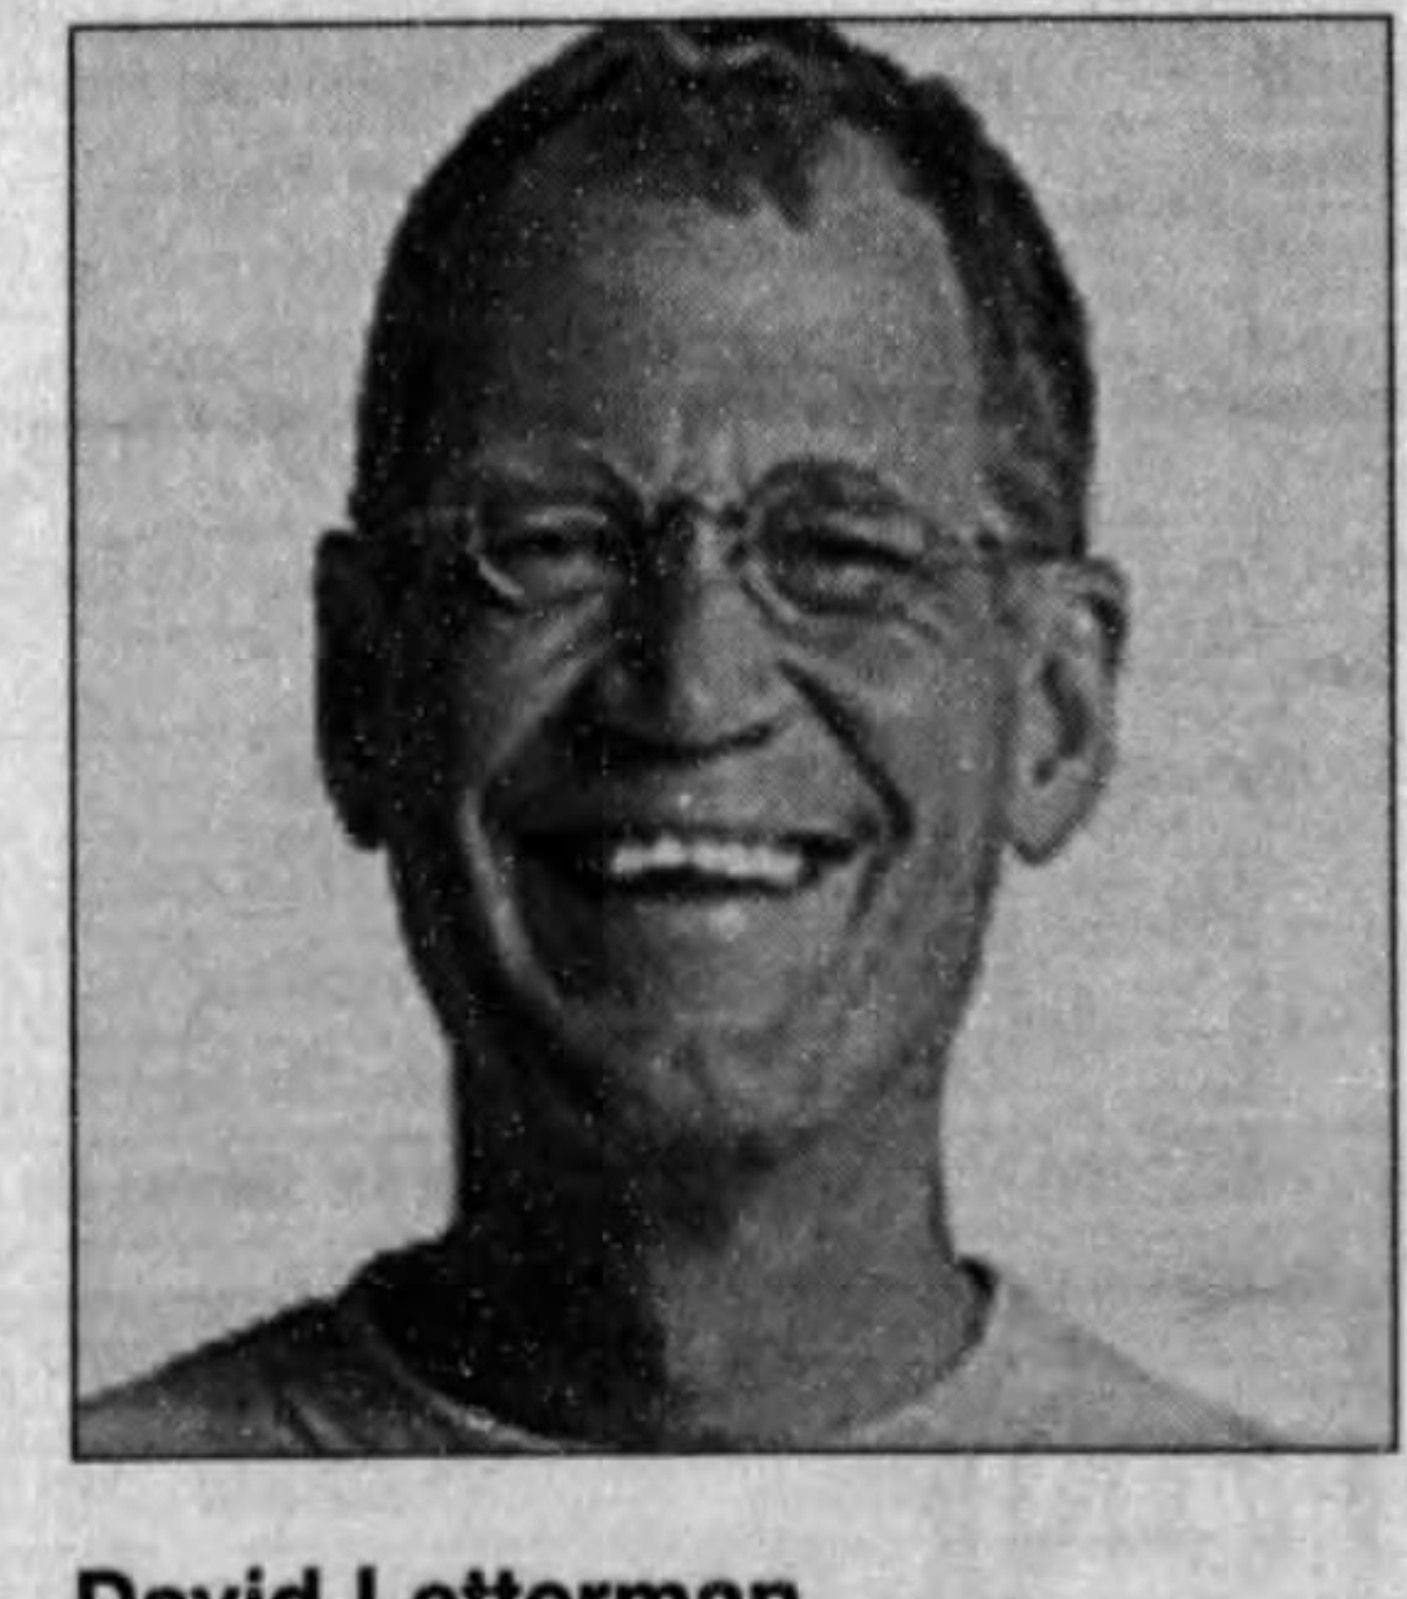
And what is the secret significance behind the name Worldwide Pants?

His executive producer says the word "pants" has always been funny to Letterman.

That sounds like a Letterman reason for naming a production company!

In other "venturing out" news, talk show host Montel Williams will be making another appearance on CBS' "JAG."

This will be his third appearance in the recurring role of Lt. Curtis Rivers, and the show will air in May.



David Letterman

The character is probably appealing to Williams, who has quite a military history. He enlisted in the Marine Corps in 1974. After six months, he became the first African-American enlisted Marine selected to attend the Naval Academy Prep School.

He received a presidential appointment to the U.S. Naval Academy in Annapolis, Md. After graduation, he went on to become a highly decorated naval officer.

His career included stints aboard the USS Kitty Hawk and the USS Halsey, and during the U.S. invasion of Grenada, he served on board the USS Sampson.

MONDAY'S BEST BETS

Cynthia Watros
TITUS

Movie: The Three Stooges

7 P.M. ON ABC

Michael Chiklis ("The Commish," "Daddio"), Evan Handler ("It's Like, You Know ...") and Paul Ben-Victor ("Crazy in Alabama") star as Curly, Larry and Moe, respectively, in this surprisingly enjoyable biodrama about the legendary slapstick comics. Fans of the Stooges will be pleased with the dead-on re-creations of classic bits as the movie chronicles the trio's rise from vaudeville to film and the toll taken by fame. Jon Kassir also stars.

7th Heaven

7 P.M. ON WB

Mary (Jessica Biel) gets permission to go out with Robbie (Adam Lavorgna), but there's a catch: They have to double with Robbie's kid brother and her kid sister. Lucy (Beverley Mitchell) isn't complaining; Robbie's brother (guest star Lance Bass of 'N Sync) is a hunk. Simon (David Gallagher) goes shopping for cigarettes — not to smoke, but to show how easy it is for kids to buy them. Speaking of shopping, John (Chaz Lamar Shepherd) tries to help Matt (Barry Watson) re-enter the dating market. Stephen Collins also stars in the encore of "Who Do You Trust?"

Titus

7:30 P.M. ON FOX

Titus (Christopher Titus) has a sneaking suspicion that Erin (Cynthia Watros) is fooling around with someone at work. So he enlists Dave and Tommy (Zack Ward, David Shatraw) to help him look for evidence at her office. They find something, but it's not what it seems.

Everybody Loves Raymond

8 P.M. ON CBS

Ray (Ray Romano) has fallen out of the habit of attending Sunday Mass, and the family's putting pressure on him to come back. It's Frank (Peter Boyle) who finally guilts him into it by his own example; he's there every week. But Ray soon finds out it's not Father Hubley's brilliant preaching that makes Mass appeal to Dad.

Movie: A Few Good Men

8 P.M. ON TMC

A young Navy lawyer (Tom Cruise) with a propensity for plea bargaining is assigned to defend two Marines accused of killing a comrade, in the hope that he'll pursue a quick, quiet settlement. But his co-counsel (Demi Moore) persuades him to go all the way, particularly when the defendants' commanding officer (Jack Nicholson) comes under suspicion.

Becker

8:30 P.M. ON CBS

Is Becker (Ted Danson) seriously ill — maybe even dying? His behavior has changed, and so has his diet. And he's been seeing a lot of his doctor. The real reason is a simple cholesterol problem, but Becker's refusal to talk about it, combined with an overactive neighborhood rumor mill, soon has everyone convinced that the good doc is headed for the Big Clinic in the Sky.

TUESDAY'S BEST BETS

Major League Baseball

6:35 P.M. ON TBS

During the off-season, the Los Angeles Dodgers looked to improve on their dismal 1999 season by acquiring Blue Jays slugger Shawn Green. The Dodgers will need every bit of power they can muster when they travel to Atlanta to take on the Braves in National League action. With marquee names like Chipper Jones, Andres Galarraga and Andruw Jones, the Braves are off to a good start in their quest to return to the postseason.

Biography

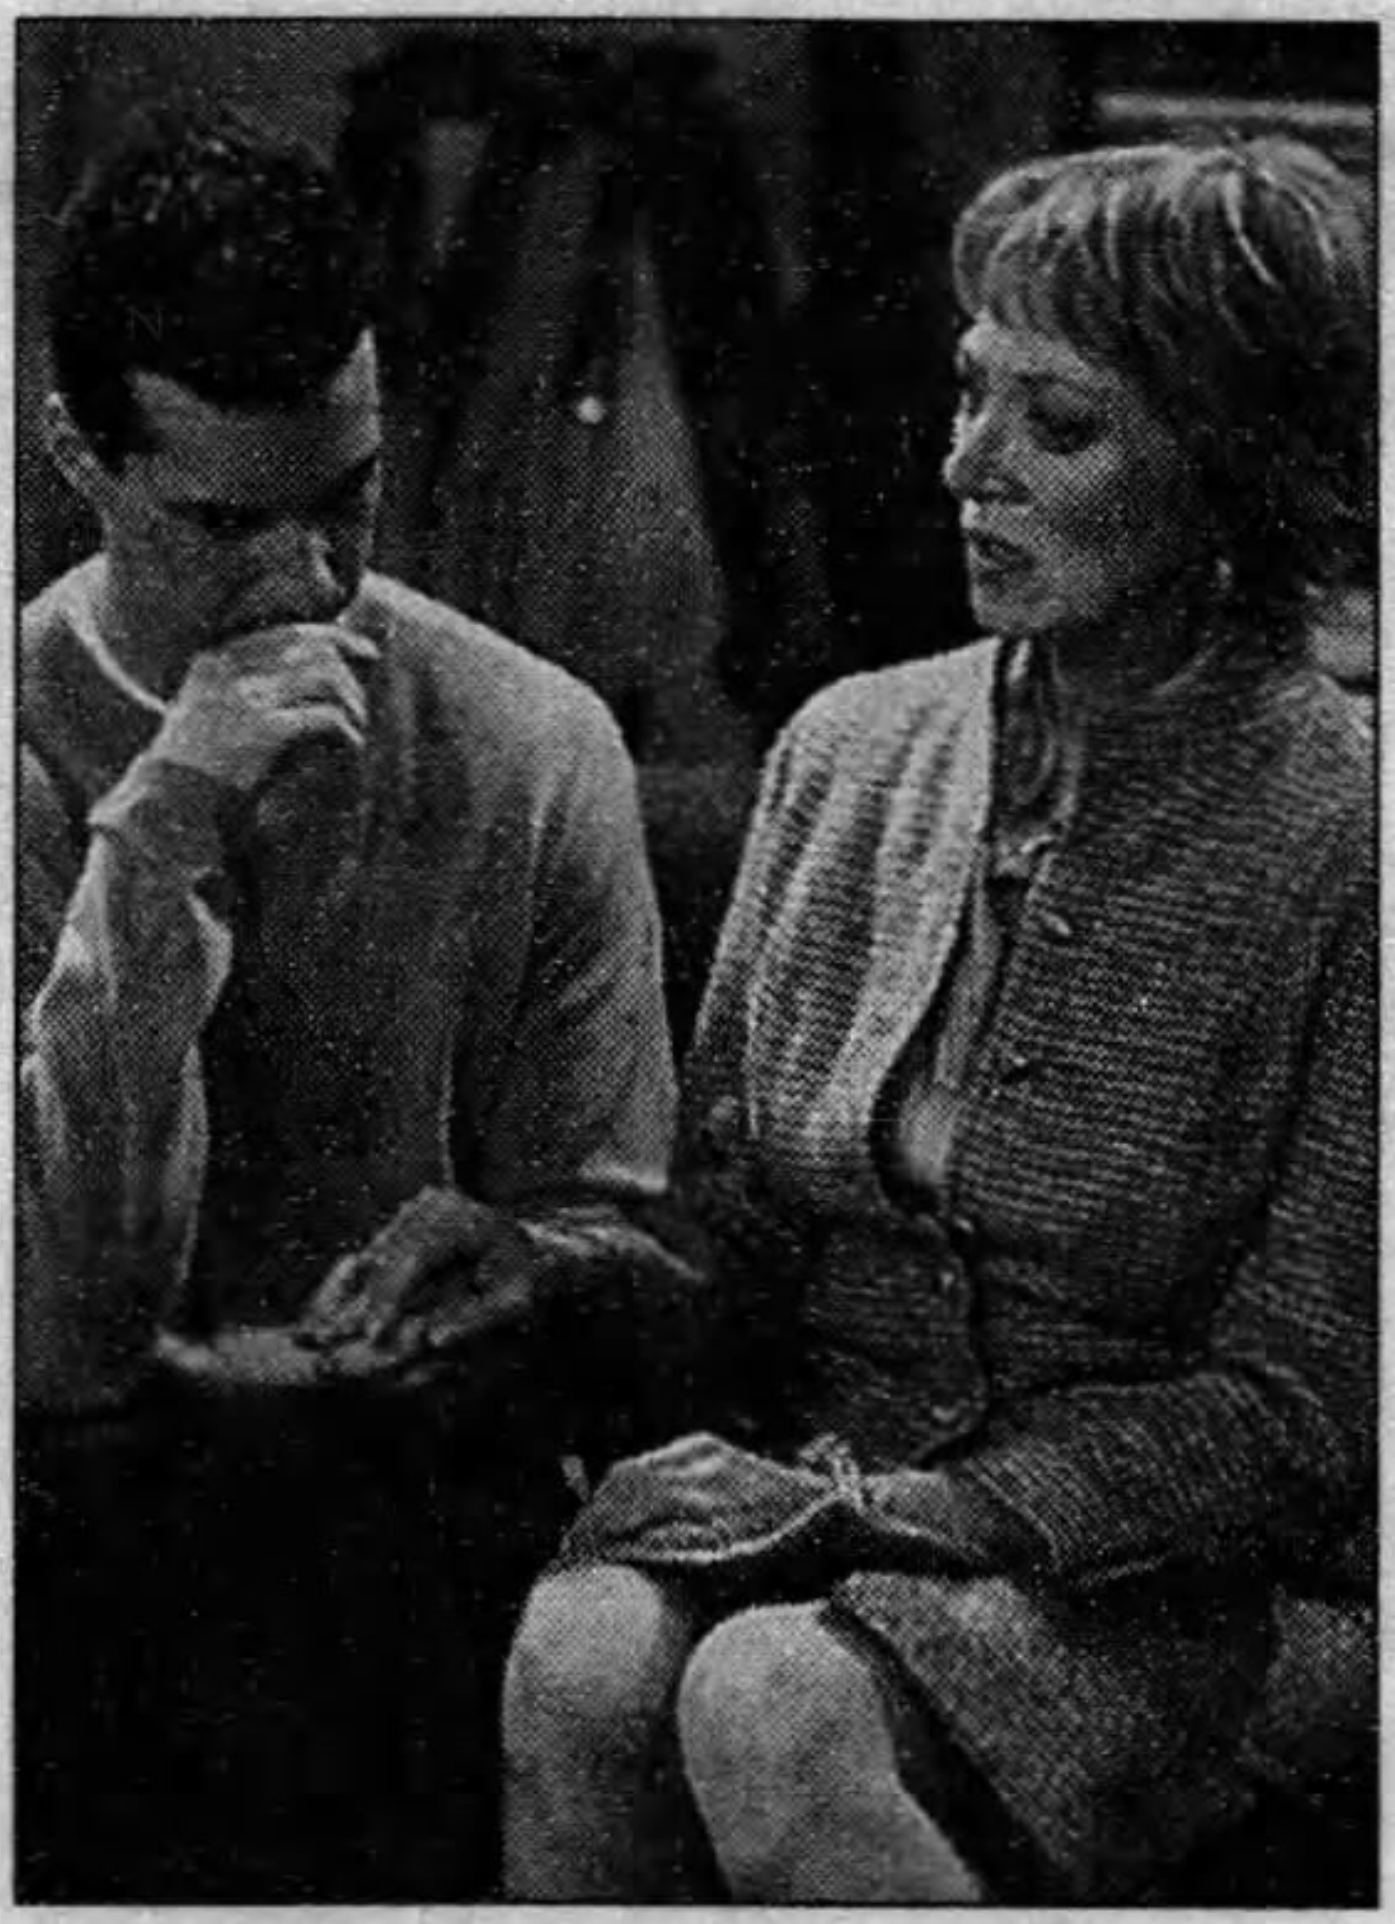
7 P.M. ON A&E

"Marlene Dietrich" remembers the husky-voiced German beauty who began her career as a minor-league movie actress and cabaret singer. It was the latter endeavor that caught the eye of director Josef von Sternberg, who cast her in the starmaking role of the sultry nightclub entertainer in 1930's "Der Blaue Engel" (a k a "The Blue Angel, "1931")." After an Oscar-nominated Hollywood debut in "Morocco," her career flagged until her comic talent was revealed in 1939's "Destry Rides Again". In later years, Dietrich returned to her cabaret roots, drawing enthusiastic crowds in Las Vegas and on Broadway.

Dharma & Greg

8 P.M. ON ABC

When Greg (Thomas Gibson) starts practicing law from home, Dharma (Jenna Elfman) is eager to help. But she's a little too good at thinking outside the box. Her ability to help clients fix their problems without involving those pesky lawyers is great human relations, but bad business. Speaking of human relations, Larry (Alan Rachins) is in for a shock when he learns the identity of the neighbor he's been feuding with.



Sean Hayes and Veronica Cartwright
WILL & GRACE

Movie: The Expendables

8 P.M. ON USA

This new adventure drama has echoes of "The Dirty Dozen" — convicted felons undertaking a dangerous mission — but with a few differences. There are only a half-dozen, and they're female. Two actresses-turned-talk show hosts, Robin Givens ("Forgive or Forget") and Tempestt Bledsoe, star in this tale of six violent convicts who have a chance to go free if they can get a political prisoner out of a Cuban jail. Idalis DeLeon and Brett Cullen also star.

Will & Grace

8 P.M. ON NBC

Thanksgiving is full of surprises in the encore of "Homo for the Holidays." The first one is for Jack (Sean Hayes): Will and Grace (Eric McCormack, Debra Messing) have invited his mother (guest star Veronica Cartwright, "The Right Stuff") to dinner. Surprise No. 2 is that not only is Jack's mom clueless about his gayness; she thinks he and Grace used to be an item. After Jack sets her straight (so to speak), there's still one more bombshell to be dropped in this revelation revolution — or as Will calls it, "Gays of Our Lives." Megan Mullally also stars.

WEDNESDAY'S BEST BETS

Two Guys and a Girl

7 P.M. ON ABC

After a fight with Johnny (Nathan Fillion), Sharon (Traylor Howard) cancels all their elaborate wedding plans. But never fear: Irene (Jillian Bach) can put together one heck of a nuptial celebration — complete with mariachi musicians. Pete (Richard Ruccolo), still smarting over Berg's (Ryan Reynolds) date with Marti (Tiffani-Amber Thiessen) jokingly spreads a rumor about his old buddy and Ashley (Suzanne Cryer) that leads to disaster on the baseball diamond.

Dawson's Creek

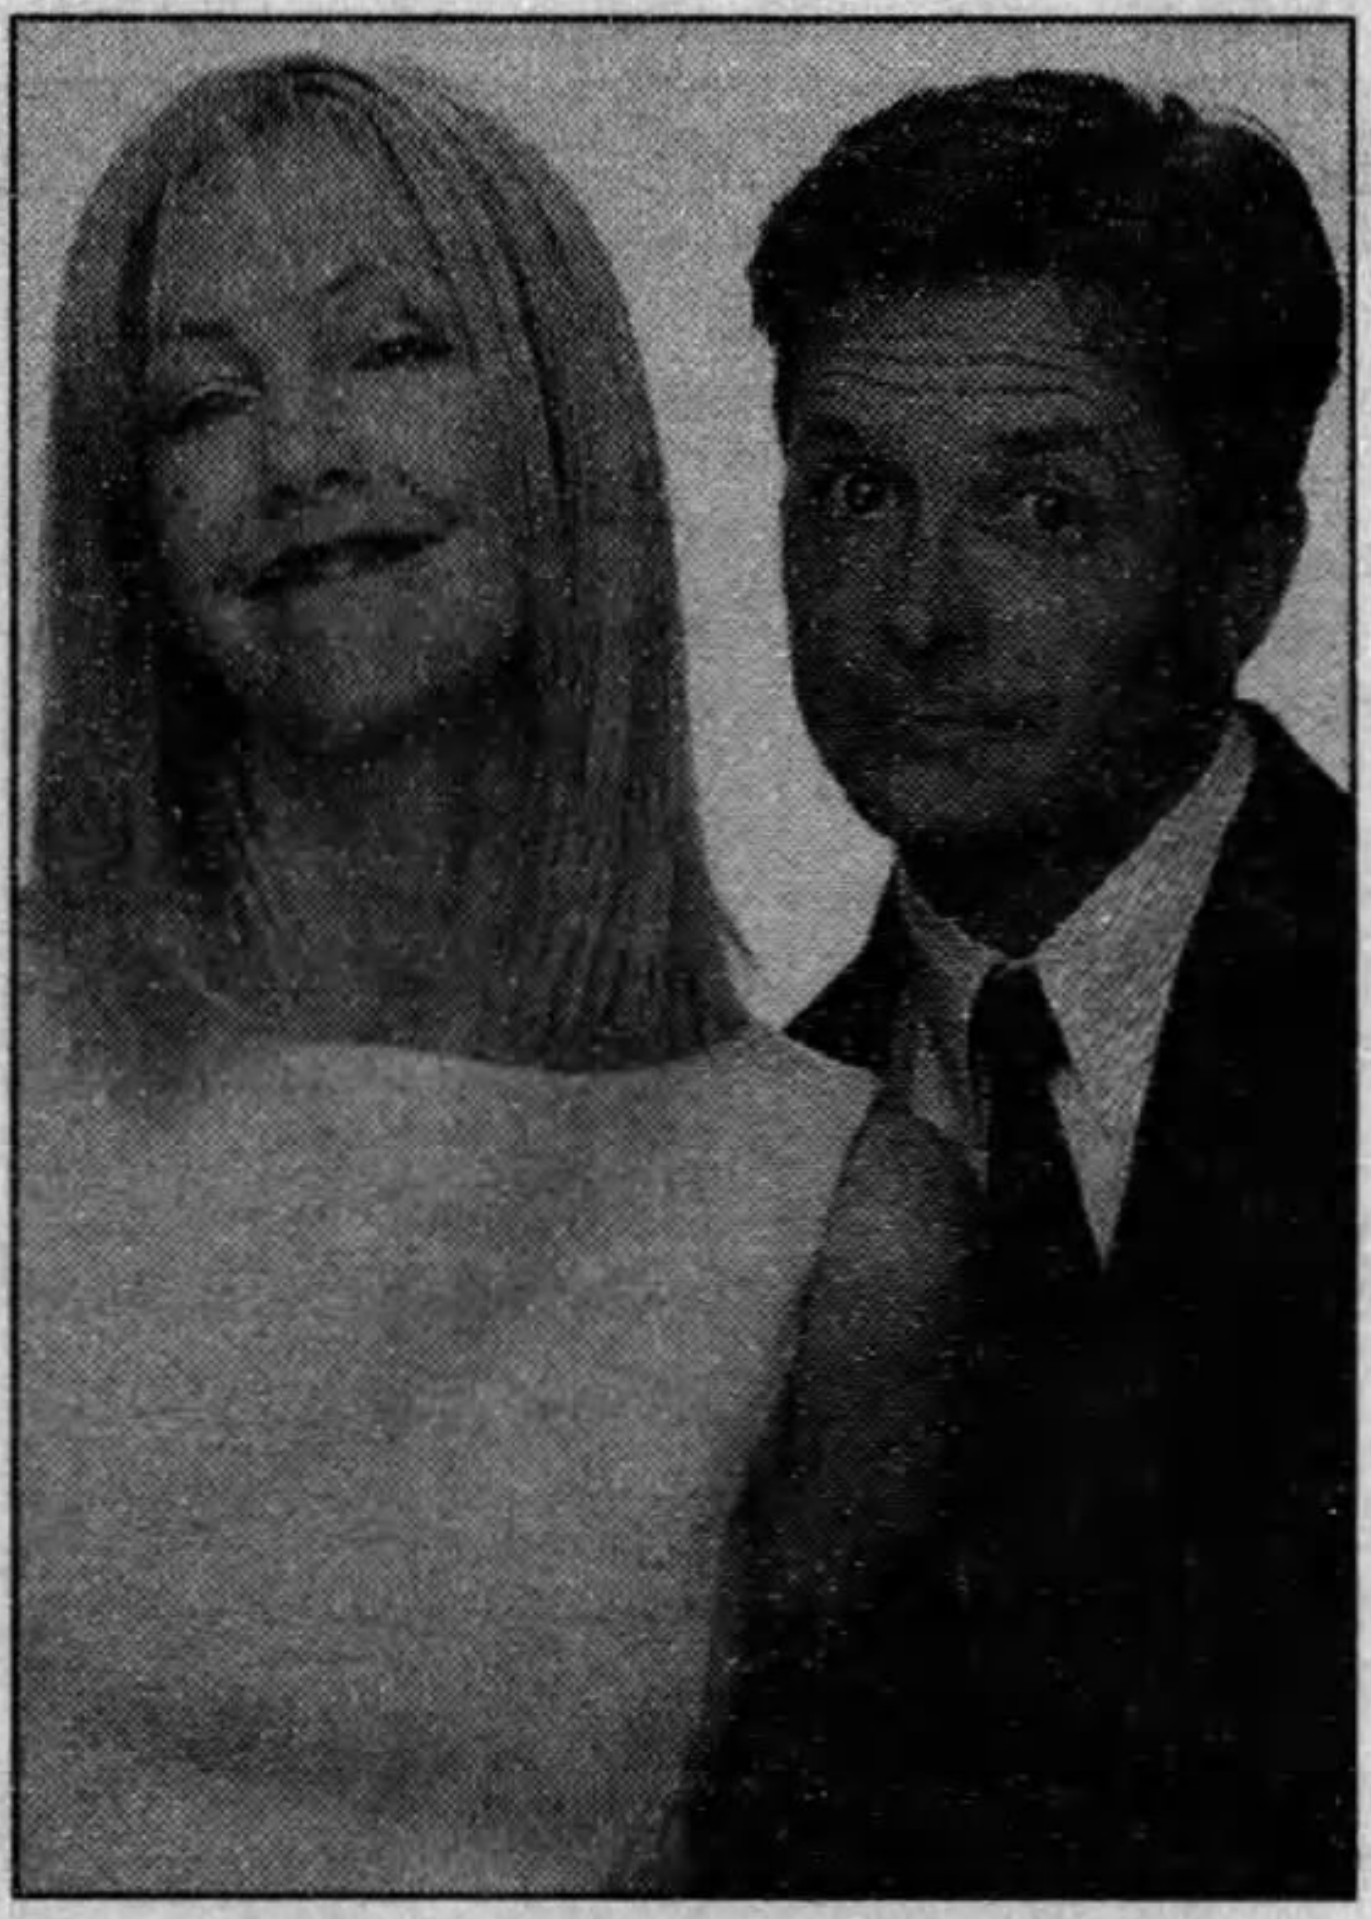
7 P.M. ON WB

In "Stolen Kisses," a spring-break trip to the mountains has its tense moments for Dawson, Andie, Joey and Pacey (James Van Der Beek, Meredith Monroe, Katie Holmes, Joshua Jackson), especially the latter two, who are still trying to sort out their feelings for each other. While up there, the gang meets an old childhood friend, Will (guest star Rodney Scott), who intrigues Andie. If you like Scott, watch for him in the summer series "Young Americans."

Movie: Miracle on the Mountain: The Kincaid Family Story

8 P.M. ON CBS

A dysfunctional family is forced to pull together when its small plane crashes into a snowy mountain. Most of the trouble with this clan can be traced to domineering Dad, who tries to run the family like his business; he wouldn't even hold the flight for one of the kids. But it may be his control-freak streak that saves their lives, as it gives the daughter left behind a good idea of where to tell searchers to look. William Devane, Patty Duke, Natasha Melnick and Kene Holliday star in this new fact-inspired drama.



Heather Locklear and Michael J. Fox

SPIN CITY

The West Wing

8 P.M. ON NBC

C.J. (Allison Janney) tracks a memo critical of the Bartlet administration to an inside source: Mandy (Moira Kelly). Now she has to track down the reporter who has gotten hold of the memo — prepared for the president's (Martin Sheen) rival — and talk him out of publishing it. Sam and Toby (Rob Lowe, Richard Schiff) meet with bigwigs to discuss a possible change in policy toward gays in the service, while Josh (Bradley Whitford) tries to get two Democrats appointed to fill a pair of Federal Election Commission vacancies. John Spencer also stars in "Out Here in the Fields."

Spin City

8:30 P.M. ON ABC

Mike (Michael J. Fox) finally makes his feelings known — sort of — to Caitlin (Heather Locklear) as he prepares to drive the mayor's (Barry Bostwick) new bus on a listening tour. Caitlin picks that moment to announce her engagement to Trevor, whom Mike proceeds to hit with the bus. Nikki (Connie Britton) takes Stuart's (Alan Ruck) dating tips to heart and becomes the female equivalent of a heartless guy. Richard Kind also stars in "Don't Get on the Bus."

THURSDAY'S BEST BETS

Friends

7 P.M. ON NBC

"The One Where Ross Meets Elizabeth's Dad" guest stars Bruce Willis — series regular Matthew Perry's co-star in "The Whole Nine Yards" — as Paul Stevens, Ross' (David Schwimmer) girlfriend's handsome parental unit. A borderline incestuous situation develops when Ross' other female friends meet the hunky widower. Speaking of first meetings, Joey's (Matt LeBlanc) introduction to the robot co-star of his new TV show doesn't exactly run like a well-oiled machine. Lisa Kudrow also stars.

Popular

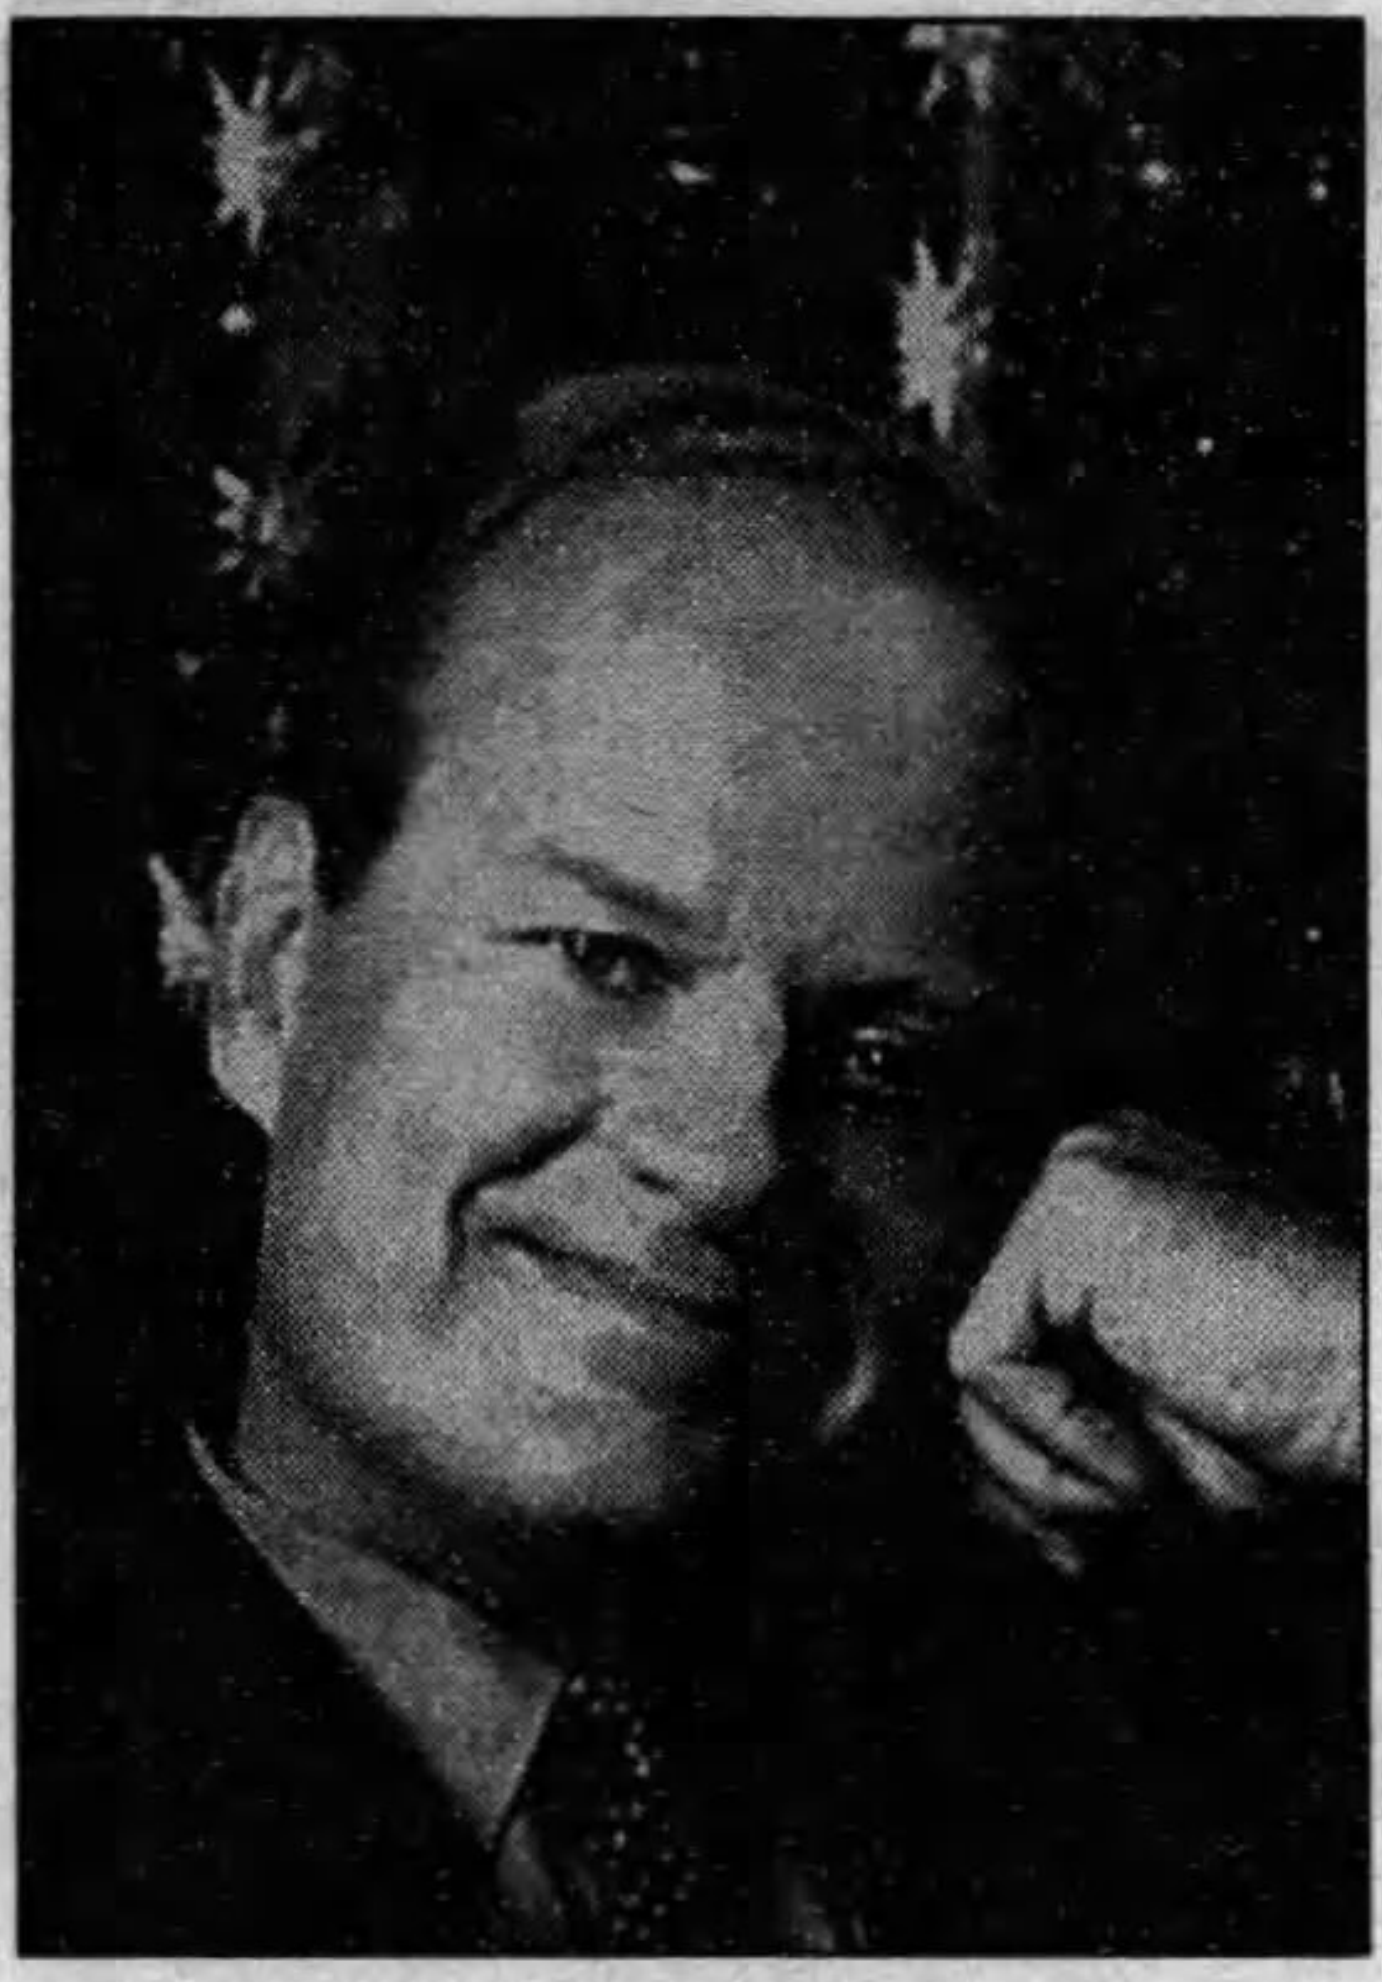
7 P.M. ON WB

So what is it about blondes, anyway? Sam (Carly Pope) and her friends attempt to answer that question by lightening up — their hair, that is — while Brooke (Leslie Bibb) and the popular clique go dark. Then the new blondes and the bottle brunettes challenge one another to a bowling tournament, whose losers have to make an even more radical change in their hair. The fate of a restaurant lobster pits Lily (Tamara Mello) against Mary Cherry (Leslie Grossman) in "Hard on the Outside, Soft in the Middle."

Arena Football

7 P.M. ON NASH

Gone are the days when being an expansion team meant an assured losing record. New Arena Football League team the Carolina Cobras host the Orlando Predators from the Raleigh Entertainment & Sports Arena in Raleigh, N.C. The Predators are trying to return to the 1999 form that resulted in upset playoff wins and a berth in the ArenaBowl. The Cobras look to make their inaugural season a memorable one.



Kelsey Grammer
FRASIER

Frasier

8 P.M. ON NBC

Frasier and Niles (Kelsey Grammer, David Hyde Pierce) have separate strange encounters with women in "To Thine Old Self Be True." Frasier is trying to win Regan (Gigi Rice) back when hosting Donny's (Saul Rubinek) bachelor party puts him in an incriminating position with a stripper. And guess who shows up looking for Niles? None other than the elusive Maris herself! And she's gotten fat! Niles has to think fast to keep her and Mel (Jane Adams) from meeting up.

Love Chronicles

9 P.M. ON A&E

Everything changed in the 1960s, including romance. More and more young couples chose not to wait for marriage to consummate their love. Many chose not to marry at all. And free love was free from the fear of pregnancy, thanks to a new invention called the pill. "Love in the '60s" looks back at relationships in the decade of revolution. Amid all the stories from the Summer of Love is an inspiring tale of love amid hate: a Christian couple whose bond was cemented as they worked for civil rights in the South. John Corbett hosts.

FRIDAY'S BEST BETS

Providence

7 P.M. ON NBC

Mary Page Keller ("Picture Perfect," "Johnny Tsunami") guest stars in "Taking a Chance on Love" as a photojournalist friend of Sydney's (Melina Kanakaredes). Jim (Mike Farrell) takes a shine to the young woman, and the budding romance has Syd and Joanie (Paula Cale) running themselves ragged. Robbie (Seth Peterson) impulsively tries out for a game show, with surprising results. Concetta Tomei also stars.

Biography

7 P.M. ON A&E

As one of America's richest men, he could have become a full-time playboy or philanthropist. Instead, he went into politics. As governor of New York, he was praised for his support of education and reviled for his decision to call in the troops to quell the 1971 Attica prison uprising. The encore of "Nelson Rockefeller: Passionate Millionaire" includes an interview with former President Gerald Ford, who named Rockefeller his vice president.

The Hughleys

7:30 P.M. ON ABC

Yvonne's (Elise Neal) cousin Byron (guest star Rick Worthy) visits the family to make a documentary on its life in the suburbs in "The Thin Black Line." He captures a particularly poignant moment: Sydney (Ashley Monique Clark) being picked on at school for being too "white." D.L. Hughley and Dee Jay Daniels also star.

T'Keyah Crystal Keymah and Phylicia Rashad

COSBY

Cosby

7:30 P.M. ON CBS

Hilton (Bill Cosby) imparts some fatherly wisdom to Erica (T'Keyah Crystal Keymah), who's been reading a relationship book and feeling taken for granted by her new hubby (Darien Sills-Evans). Hilton urges her to ignore the psychobabble and shares the secret of his and Ruth's (Phylicia Rashad) long and happy union. Doug E. Doug also stars in "The Song Remains the Same," which brings the curtain down on the successful sitcom.

For Your Love

8:30 P.M. ON WB

Big changes are coming for Malena and Mel (Holly Robinson Peete, James Lesure). That stomach flu she's been suffering with isn't a bug after all; it's morning sickness. That's right, she's pregnant, and Mel can't wait to spread the word. But Malena fears that Sheri (Dedee Pfeiffer) will be hurt by the news, since she's been trying in vain to conceive.

9 P.M. ON NBC

Law & Order: Special Victims Unit

Tony winner Audra McDonald ("Ragtime") guest stars as the new police psychologist, who's given the tough task of interviewing a suspect (guest star Bruce Bohne) in a series of sexual attacks in crowded subway cars. She may be the detectives' only hope for solving the crimes, because although the attacks happened in crowds, nobody can identify the man — not even his victims.

Biography

7 P.M. ON A&E

The 1996 profile "Alice Faye: The Star Next Door" remembers the actress whose wholesome blond good looks and pleasant singing voice made her the queen of movie musicals in the 1930s and early '40s. The story of her big break reads like a real-life "42nd Street": She was preparing to do a number in 1934's "George White's Scandals" when the film's leading lady quit, and guess who got the job? Faye herself.

Collectibles find new life

By Jacqueline Cutler
TVDATA FEATURES WRITER

Cover story

At a garage sale, serendipity is always behind that orange plaid couch. Maybe an adorable table is under some mildewed books. And, just maybe, a famous artisan crafted it, making it worth a thousand times the $15 plunked down for it.

Sure, it's a long shot. Yet it happens. And such discoveries unfold publicly these days as people lug family heirlooms and yesterday's finds to various antiques shows around the country. The public appraisals are so popular they have spawned at least six national shows and many local ones.

"There was a great debate about whether Americans were interested in their culture," says John Hays, senior vice president of American furniture and decorative arts at Christie's and an appraiser on PBS' "Antiques Roadshow." "Everyone wants to feel like they have made a great discovery from an academic and historic point of view. Everyone hopes to make that financial discovery. Everyone wants to confirm if what Grandma left them is fiction or if it is true."

"Roadshow" is a copy of a long-popular British program. When the Boston PBS station, WGBH, started working on the American version five years ago, there was concern that Americans just wouldn't care about their past as much as Europeans.

Rather, collectibles series have become wildly popular in the United States, and the appraisers have become celebrities. "It's like the phenomenon of cooking shows," says Nancy Udell, a spokeswoman at Pax TV. "It grew so quickly. And these appraisers are like chefs. They have become as popular."

People enjoy watching others get lucky and thinking they, too, could unearth a treasure. Most of the time, however, they desperately want to know more about their ancestors and the possessions they've inherited.

This is precisely why Ginny Barcus, a retired municipal worker in Oakland, Calif., watches from her house filled with her grandmother's furniture. "I enjoy beautiful antiques to begin with," she says. "And I think finding a bargain like that must be a special excitement. And I love to listen to the history, and these people are so knowledgeable and they know what anything is worth."

That knowledge, say both Hays and John Bruno, an appraiser on Pax TV's "Treasures in Your Home," is a result of many years of perusing and collecting treasures and loving the endless researching of the objects' histories. All appraisers have specialties, and Bruno's is 20th-century postmodern home furnishings. Even experts need to cram, so they view photos of the objects before taping. This gives them time to check reference books and estimate a value.

Among the rarer gewgaws Bruno has appraised was a pre-Columbian bloodletting bowl. Years ago, a woman bought it for a few dollars at a garage sale. Since then, her husband had used it to change their car's oil. The bowl was worth $500,000.

HBO's 'Sex in the City' returns June 4

Pipeline

By Taylor Michaels
TVDATA FEATURES WRITER

When will the new season of HBO's "Sex and the City" begin? How many episodes will there be? It seems like it's been a long time since we saw a new show. -S.M., Appleton, Wis.

Sarah Jessica Parker and her Manhattan gal pals return with 18 new episodes beginning Sunday, June 4.

HBO's major original series — including "Oz" and "The Sopranos" — pretty much roll out their new episodes in a continuous stream rather than interspersing them with repeats as the networks do. Once a new season of shows ends, you have to wait many months for a new series of episodes to begin.

The 18-episode order for "Sex and the City" is evidence of that show's smash-hit status. It's economically unfeasible for a cable channel to order two dozen episodes per season, which is roughly what a network orders for a successful series such as "ER." A season of "The Sopranos" runs for 13 ~~episodes, while~~ "Oz" ~~produces only~~ eight per year.

What is S. Epatha Merkerson's ("Law & Order") first name? -Raymond Anderson, Swartz Creek, Mich.

Believe it or not, it's Epatha. The S doesn't stand for anything. It's just an affectation.

Renee Estevez has a recurring role on "The West Wing." Whom does she play? Is she Martin Sheen's daughter? -Carol in Newnan, Ga.

Estevez plays Nancy, whose title is a little unclear. She is an assistant secretary (after Mrs. Landingham, played by Kathryn Joosten) to President Josiah Bartlet, played by Sheen, her dad.

Is Francesco Quinn, who plays Tomas Del Cerro on "The Young and the Restless," the son or grandson of Anthony Quinn? Are David and Heather Tom, who play Billy Abbott and Victoria Newman McNeil Howard on that same show, related? -Harry and Helen in West Palm Beach, Fla.

Francesco is Anthony's son. The Toms are brother and sister.

I enjoyed the Chuck Norris profile your company presented in our paper. Where can I write to him? -A.J. via e-mail.

First, let me assure readers that if they have sent mail to the CBS network address that has appeared in this column several times, those letters are indeed forwarded to Norris.

To save time, you may address your letter to: Chuck Norris, c/o "Walker, Texas Ranger," 13801 Diplomat Drive, Farmers Branch, Texas, 75234.

Who provided the voice of Fern in the animated "Charlotte's Web"? - Laura O'Neil, Highland, Mich.

That was child star Pamelyn Ferdin, who grew up to be an outspoken animal rights activist.

Send questions of general interest to TV Pipeline, TVData Features Syndicate, 333 Glen St., Glens Falls, NY 12801, or e-mail to tvpipeline@tvdata.com. Only questions selected for this column will be answered. Personal replies cannot be sent.

Sunday's Best Bets

Auto Racing

1 P.M. ON ABC

Jeff Gordon happy with a top-five finish? This from a guy who won 47 races from 1995-99 and was crowned Winston Cup champion three times in that span? In fact, Gordon said it was "great" to finish fourth recently at Martinsville, snapping a streak of 11 consecutive races without being among the top quintet of finishers. Gordon's adjustment to new crew chief Robbie Loomis has not been a smooth one, but today's NAPA Auto Parts 500 in Fontana, Calif., may provide some good luck.

Movie: Arabian Nights

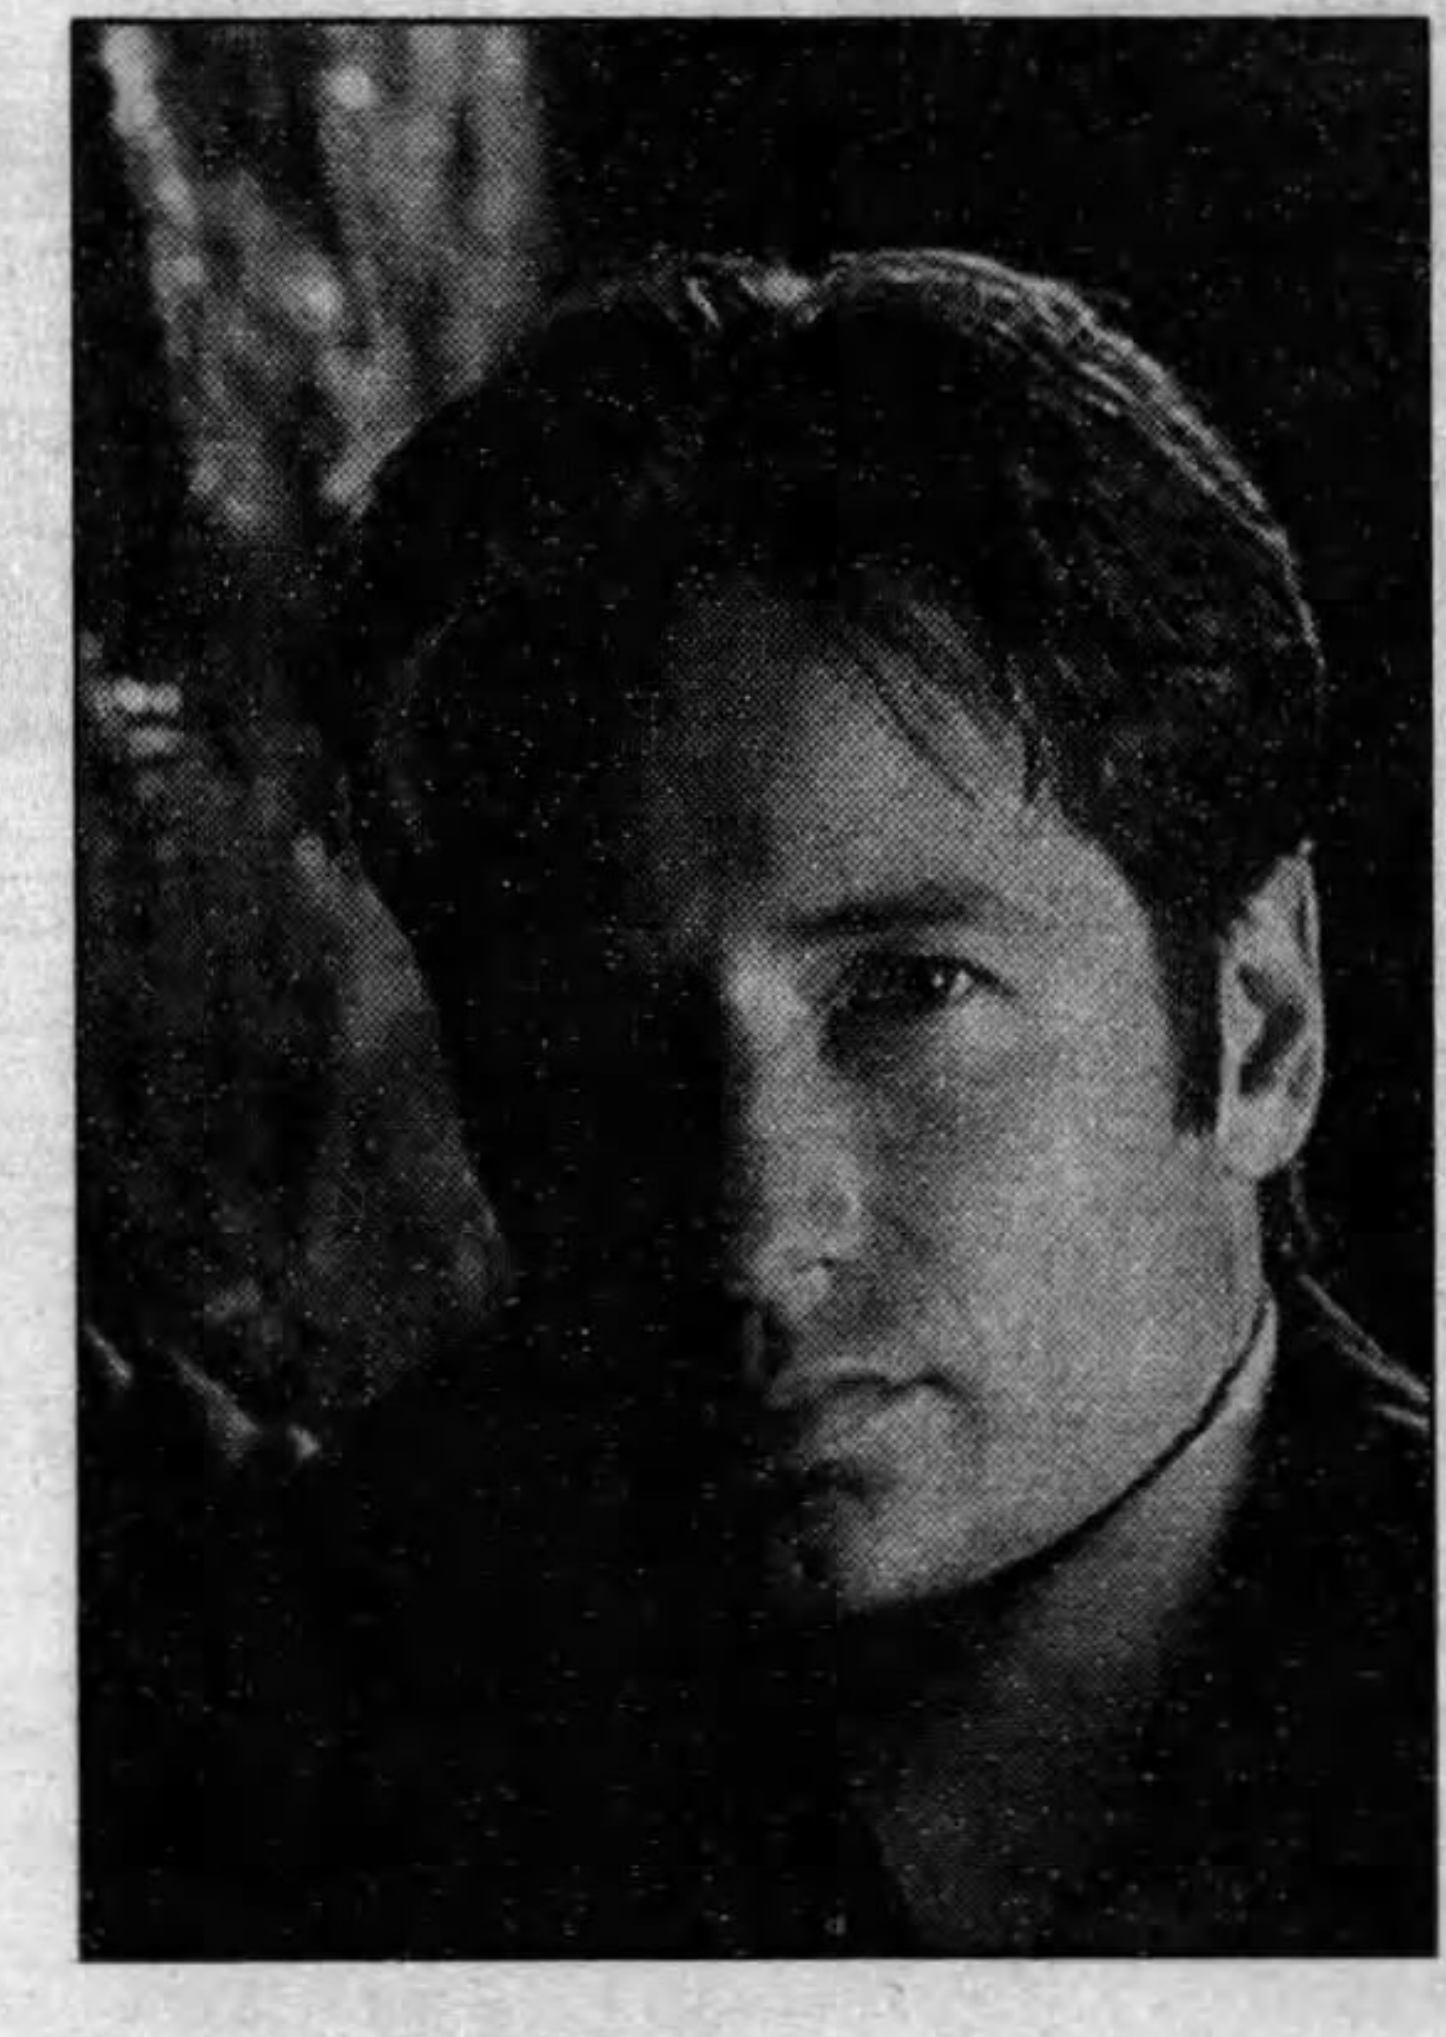
7 P.M. ON ABC

John Leguizamo ("To Wong Foo, Thanks for Everything, Julie Newmar") nearly steals the show with his over-the-top portrayals of Aladdin's two genies in this two-part epic retelling of the famous folk tales. Mili Avital ("Stargate") plays Scheherazade, bride of the murderous sultan, who postpones her own death by entertaining her husband with stories. Jason Scott Lee and Alan Bates also star, with Dougray Scott, no stranger to fairy tales (he played the prince in "Ever After"), as the mad sultan. The conclusion airs Monday.

Beyond Death

7 P.M. ON A&E

It's the most frequently asked of questions: What happens after we die? This two-hour special approaches it from a variety of perspectives, from the scholarly and scientific to the supernatural. Several mediums and others who claim they've talked to the dead are interviewed, along with doctors, researchers, grief counselors and those who say they've been to the other side and back again.



David Duchovny

THE X-FILES

Movie: Take Me Home: The John Denver Story

8 P.M. ON CBS

The running time is a bit short to do its subject justice, but fans of John Denver's music will appreciate the soundtrack of this new biopic, which includes 15 songs by the shy singer, songwriter and environmental crusader. Chad Lowe ("Life Goes On," "Now and Again") plays Denver, with Kristin Davis ("Sex and the City") as his first wife, Annie (of "Annie's Song" fame).

The X-Files

8 P.M. ON FOX

Prepare to have your mind messed with a little if you're one of those X-philes who yearns for Mulder and Scully (David Duchovny, Gillian Anderson) to become a couple. The two agents are tailed on their current case by a pair of actors who'll be playing them in a movie. The Scully wannabe is played by none other than Duchovny's real-life wife, Tea Leoni. Garry Shandling plays the actor shadowing Mulder in "Hollywood, A.D.," which Duchovny wrote and directed.

Talk the Talk

The Daytime Emmy Awards are right around the corner.

The 27th annual awards show airs Friday, May 19, on ABC. The nominees for the talk show categories are pretty easy to remember since they're all the same!

For the categories of outstanding talk show host, outstanding talk show and outstanding directing on a talk show, the nominees are "Donny & Marie,"" "Live! — Regis & Kathie Lee,"" "The Rosie O'Donnell Show,"" "The Martin Short Show"" and "The View.""

Let's hear what your predictions are.

Send your winners by e-mail to talkthetalk@tvdata.com, or by mail to this column, care of TVData, 333 Glen Street, Glens Falls, NY 12801.

There's still time to snag tickets to "The Rosie O'Donnell Show"."

O'Donnell has a unique approach to distributing audience tickets for her popular show: a lottery system that's only in effect from March through June.

During these months, you may submit your request. Write your name, address and phone number on the back of a postcard, and send it to "The Rosie O'Donnell Show"/Tickets, 30 Rockefeller Plaza, Suite 800E, New York, NY 10112.

Be prepared to wait up to a year to find out if you are a winner. But don't lose heart. If you find yourself in the Big Apple, you can always try for standby tickets, but that has its own set of rules.

The show tapes Mondays through Thursdays, and you must arrive at the Rockefeller Plaza studio by 7:30 a.m. Another lottery system determines who gets the day's standby tickets, and your whole group must be present. Getting "Rosie" tickets is not for the faint of heart!

Speaking of O'Donnell, her big moment on her favorite show, "Who Wants to Be a Millionaire," is coming up this week.

She's made her obsession with "Millionaire" very obvious on her own daily show, so this should be quite entertaining. She has already announced her "lifelines," who include her brother, her brother-in-law, one of her writers and two friends.

Leeza Gibbons

Leeza Gibbons might have wanted to call for a lifeline during one of her shows earlier this month. She was doing a show called "Mafia Mania," and her guests included Pete "The Greek," a former organized-crime figure who is now in the Witness Protection Program, and a former chauffeur and part-time courier for the mob, author Georgia Durante. Pete was the bodyguard for the infamous Joey Gallo and stayed backstage in complete disguise.

Suddenly a big bang, sounding much like a gunshot, rang out. Given the topic, everyone in the room was more than a little nervous. Gibbons jumped before realizing it was just a light exploding!

MONDAY'S BEST BETS

The King of Queens
7 P.M. ON CBS

In "Soft Touch," Doug (Kevin James) is roped into a multilevel marketing scheme by his neighbor Tim (Bryan Cranston, "Malcolm in the Middle"). He goes along with the game, which involves selling water filters, but when he tries to recruit Arthur (Jerry Stiller), Carrie (Leah Remini) puts her foot down. Victor Williams also stars.

That '70s Show
7 P.M. ON FOX

While Kitty (Debra Jo Rupp) is off at work on a Sunday, Red, Eric and Laurie (Kurtwood Smith, Topher Grace, Lisa Robin Kelly) take advantage of the situation and stay home from church. Soon they're making a habit of this, leading Kitty to worry about the fate of their souls. Singer Mac Davis guest stars as St. Peter in "Holy Crap."

Biography
7 P.M. ON A&E

"Ted Danson: One Lucky Guy" profiles the handsome actor who's made even a conceited womanizer ("Cheers") and a child molester ("Something About Amelia") into sympathetic characters. He's worked onstage, on a soap and on the big screen, but it's because of his long run as ballplayer-turned-bartender Sam Malone in "Cheers" that everybody knows his name. Interviews with former costars JoBeth Williams, Woody Harrelson and Mary Steenburgen — his current wife — help trace the life of the man currently starring in CBS' "Becker," including such rough patches as the aftermath of his controversial blackface appearance at the Friars Club.

THAT '70S SHOW

Ally McBeal
8 P.M. ON FOX

Alas, poor Ally (Calista Flockhart). She's not having an easy time of it as she reaches the Big Three-Oh. But she'll get by with a little help from her friends — if Elaine and Renee (Jane Krakowski, Lisa Nicole Carson) can stop fighting over singing at her party. Mark and Cage (James Le Gros, Peter MacNicol) take on an unusual murder case in "Turning Thirty." Greg Germann also stars.

Roswell
8 P.M. ON WBN

Hoping to get Pierce (David Conrad) to blow his cover, shape-shifter Nasedo disguises himself as Max (Jason Behr) and abducts Liz (Shiri Appleby), with Sheriff Valenti (William Sadler) and the real Max in hot pursuit. TUESDAY'S BEST BETS

Buffy the Vampire Slayer

7 P.M. ON WBN

Her boyfriend's back, and there's gonna be trouble. In "New Moon Rising," Oz (Seth Green) returns to town to tell Willow (Alyson Hannigan) that he still loves her and he's gained control of his werewolf ways. As Willow wonders whether to take him back, confiding in Buffy (Sarah Michelle Gellar) about her feelings for Tara (Amber Benson), the setting of the moon brings a new crisis.

Investigating Tarzan

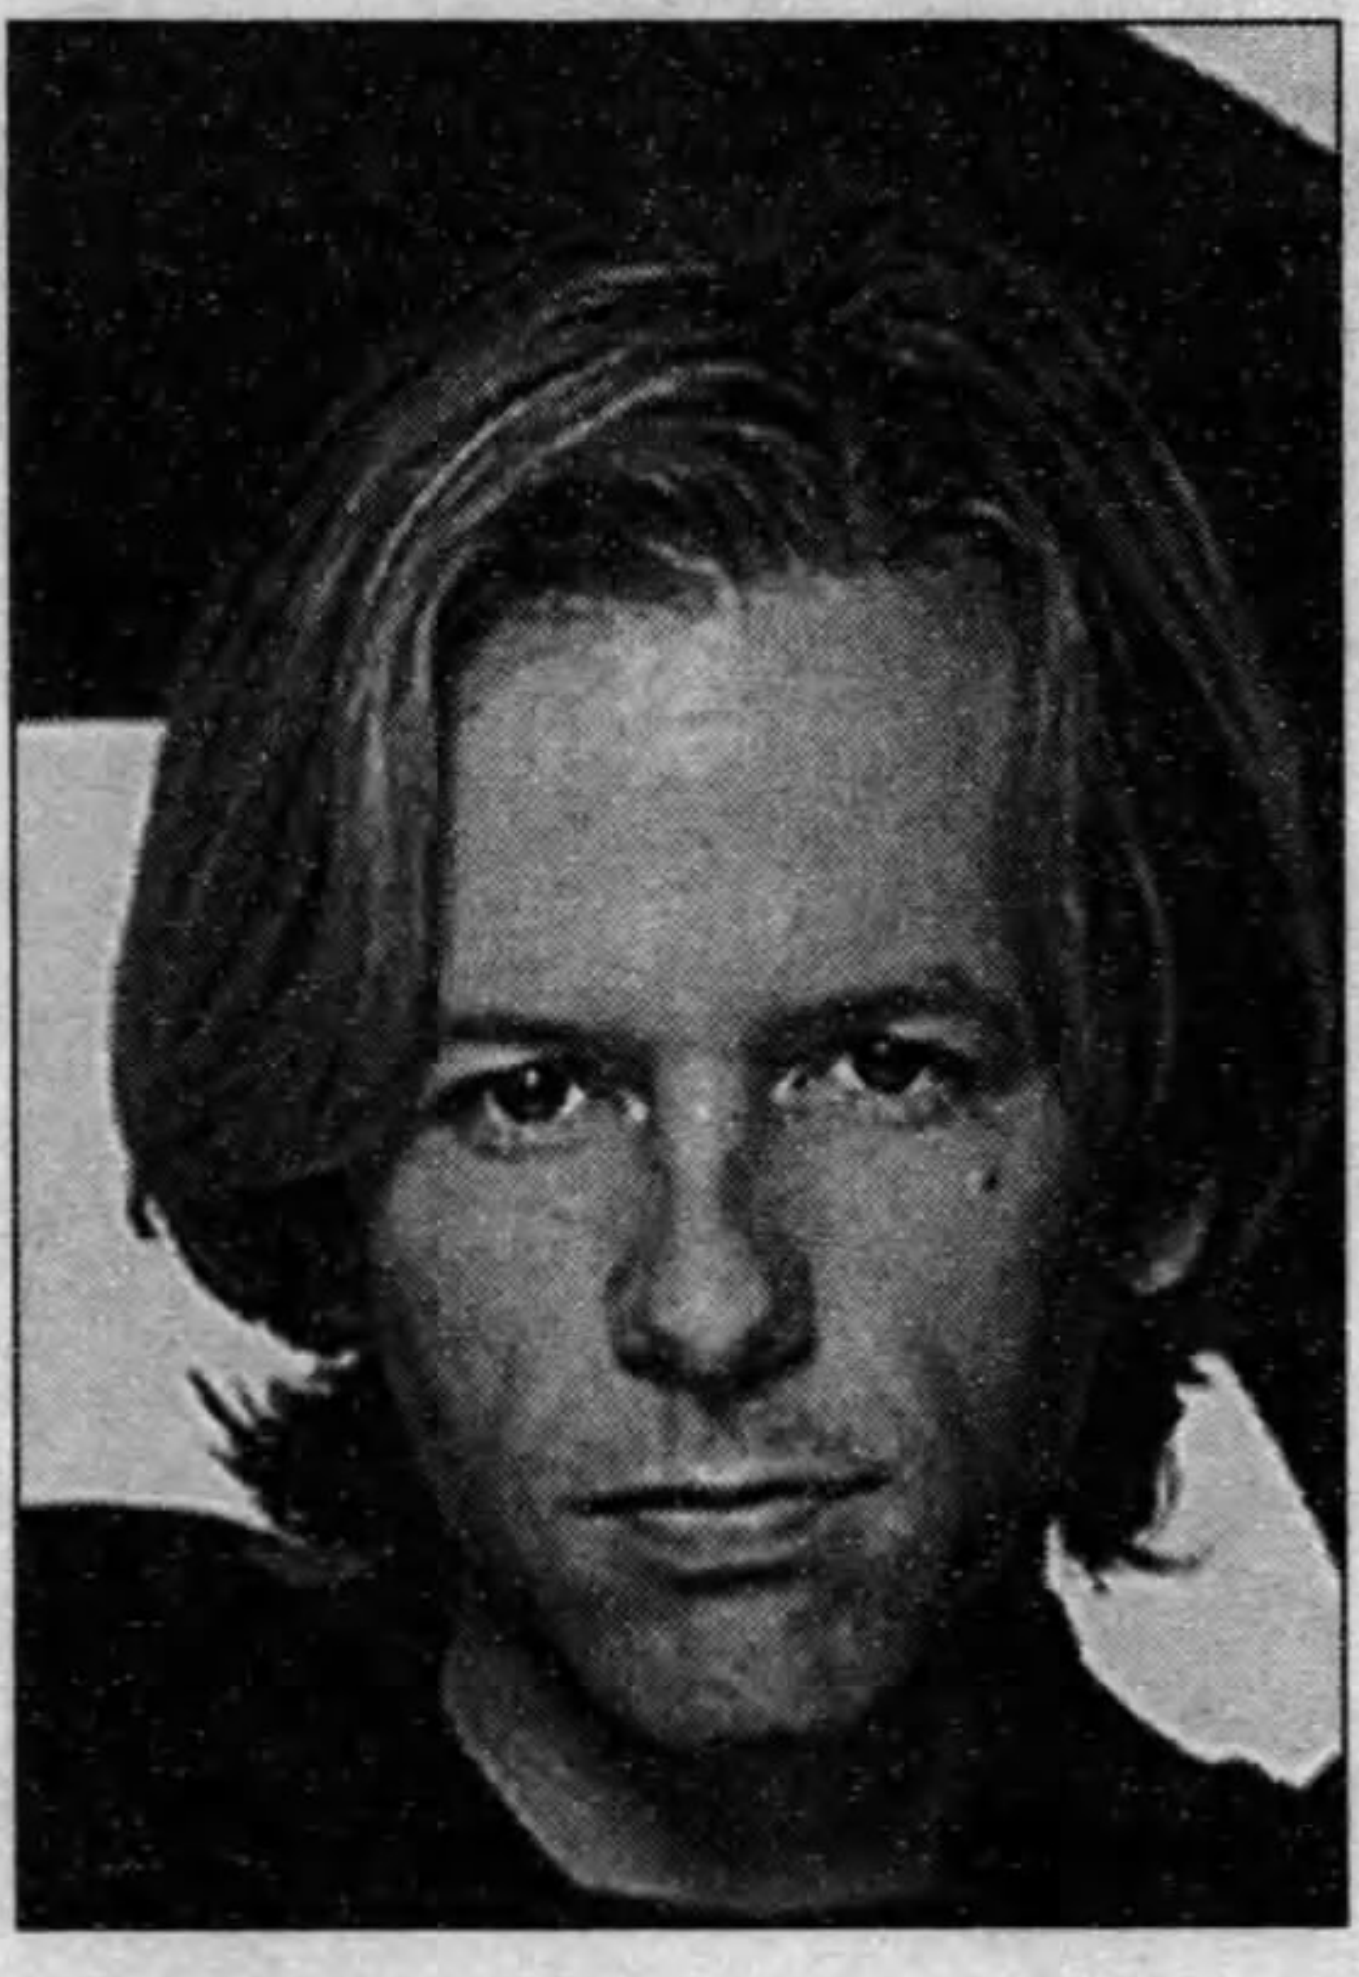
7 P.M. ON AMC

Tarzan has been a cinema staple since 1918, when Elmo Lincoln became the first actor to play Edgar Rice Burroughs' howling hero of the jungle. This encore special from 1999, airing as part of AMC's "Super-Men of Spring" celebration, looks at film fans' long love affair with the character, from his silent-screen debut to his animated incarnation in last year's Disney feature.

Malcolm in the Middle

7:30 P.M. ON FOX

Malcolm (Frankie Muniz) wants to give his pal Stevie (Craig Lamar Traylor) a break from his overprotective parents and a taste of adventure. So during an overnight visit, he persuades Stevie to join him in an unauthorized trip to the arcade. There might have been heck to pay for sneaking out, but the stakes rise considerably when someone rips off Stevie's wheelchair while he's playing a sit-down game. Jane Kaczmarek also stars in the encore of "Sleepover."



David Spade

JUST SHOOT ME

Will & Grace

8 P.M. ON NBC

Neil Patrick Harris ("Stark Raving Mad") guest stars in "Girls, Interrupted" as a formerly gay man who has "converted" to heterosexuality. Jack (Sean Hayes) goes under cover as a straight man at a party for ex-gays in an effort to get the young man back to his team.

Just Shoot Me

8:30 P.M. ON NBC

Dennis (David Spade) helps his old skating partner, Nicole (guest star Barret Swatek), get ready for a competition with a new partner. But will he go the extra triple axel when she's injured on the big day? Maya (Laura San Giacomo) colors her hair to research a story and is incensed to learn Elliott (Enrico Colantoni) thinks blondes are more fun. Nina (Wendie Malick) pulls for Ed McMahon (guest starring as himself) to recover from an accident, not because she likes him, but because if he dies, A&E Network will yank its "Biography" of her. George Segal also stars.

Inside Story

9 P.M. ON A&E

It's illegal and potentially deadly, but for those who do it, it's the ultimate rush ... literally. The encore of "Street Racing: The Need for Speed" visits with some of them — working Joes by day, would-be Richard Pettys by night — as they indulge their love of fast cars and competition on ordinary highways. Viewers also meet the police who are trying to put an end to street racing before it ends more lives.

WEDNESDAY'S BEST BETS

Movie: Race

6:15 P.M. ON HBO

The title of this political satire incorporates two meanings of the word "race": ethnicity and contest. A seat on the Los Angeles City Council that's been held by a white man (Cliff Robertson) is up for grabs, and two minority candidates have their eyes on it: black radical-turned-jaded politician Lucinda Davis (CCH Pounder) and Gustavo Alvarez (Paul Rodriguez), a simple house painter whose heritage is Hispanic and whose political experience is nonexistent.

The 35th Annual Academy of Country Music Awards

7 P.M. ON CBS

With only 13 awards to hand out, this special could probably fit into a smaller time slot. But then there wouldn't be enough time for all the great music. This year's performer list is impressive, with Clint Black and Lisa Hartman Black, Jo Dee Messina, Kenny Chesney, Faith Hill, Asleep at the Wheel, George Strait, Reba McEntire and Hank Williams Jr. among those slated to perform. Award presenters include actors Billy Bob Thornton ("Sling Blade") and Catherine Bell ("JAG") as well as the usual country music "Who's Who." Dolly Parton hosts.

Party of Five

7 P.M. ON FOX

The Salingers head off into the sunset — all in different directions — in the series' two-hour finale. Bailey and Claudia (Scott Wolf, Lacey Chabert) contemplate going east for their educations — he to a Pennsylvania college and she to New York's prestigious Juilliard School. Julia (Neve Campbell) may be crossing the country, too, as she's been offered an internship in Washington, D.C. Charlie (Matthew Fox) has a decision to make, too — one that will have a lasting impact on the whole family. Jacob Smith also stars in "All's Well That Ends Well."

Lacey Chabert

PARTY OF FIVE

18 Wheels of Justice

8 P.M. ON NASH

Chance (Lucky Vanous) becomes the guardian of a 12-year-old girl who's being buffeted about by her parents' messy divorce. Of course, the last thing he needs on the road is a kid. But it's about then that he reconnects with an old teacher of his, now retired and hating it, who could really use a little reason for living. Billy Dee Williams also stars in "Prize Possession."

Law & Order

9 P.M. ON NBC

A wealthy patron of the arts is found murdered in a manner that eerily resembles a painting by one of her beneficiaries. That makes him a likely suspect, but Briscoe and Green (Jerry Orbach, Jesse L. Martin) soon have a second one: a man (guest star Bruce MacVittie) who has been seen protesting the painting on several occasions. Sam Waterston and Angie Harmon also star in "Untitled."

THURSDAY'S BEST BETS

Friends
7 P.M. ON NBC

Dating a student (Alexandra Holden) could get Ross (David Schwimmer) fired, and her father (Bruce Willis) is more than willing to turn him in. So the lovebirds flee to her family's cabin in the mountains, where they get some unexpected visitors: Daddy and Rachel (Jennifer Aniston). Chandler (Matthew Perry) loses it over Monica's (Courteney Cox Arquette) premature wedding plans in "The One Where Paul's the Man."

Popular
7 P.M. ON WBN

Wedding bells are ringing all over the place in "We Are Family." First, the news that their parents have set a nuptial date send Sam and Brooke (Carly Pope, Leslie Bibb) into crisis mode. Then Mary Cherry's (Leslie Grossman) mom (Delta Burke) announces she's getting hitched to actor Erik Estrada (guest starring as himself).

Movie: The Shining
7 P.M. ON SHOW

Stephen King didn't care for Stanley Kubrick's 1980 adaptation of his novel, but true to King's vision or not, it's a horror classic thanks to Jack Nicholson. He gives one of his most chilling performances as a writer struggling to stay sober and finish a play while working as winter caretaker of a remote mountain resort. But the hotel is no mere collection of bricks and boards; it has evil plans for him, his wife and especially his psychic son. Shelley Duvall and Scatman Crothers also star.

Frasier
8 P.M. ON NBC

Frasier (Kelsey Grammer) is thrilled to hear he's being immortalized in caricature on a restaurant wall. But while his head is swelling, it doesn't come close to what the caricaturist gives him. Alarmed by the artist's treatment of his ample forehead, he resorts to drastic measures to make the picture more flattering. Speaking of drastic measures, Daphne (Jane Leeves) is taking a few of her own to find a cholesterol-lowering cereal for the doc.

ER
9 P.M. ON NBC

While Dr. Greene (Anthony Edwards) is home with his dying father (John Cullum), Carter (Noah Wyle) takes over his work — and that of several other doctors, while he's at it. Nurse Hathaway (Julianna Margulies) has two men pursuing her on her birthday, but one of them — Dr. Kovac (Goran Visnjic) — is distracted by a chewing-out from Dr. Benton (Eriq La Salle) over a procedural gaffe that may cost a patient his leg.

Movie: My Fair Lady
9 P.M. ON AMC

If you haven't seen this Academy Award winner from 1964 lately, you haven't seen it. It recently underwent a 10-month, $700,000 restoration. Rex Harrison and Audrey Hepburn star as Professor Henry Higgins and protegee Eliza Doolittle in the musical adaptation of George Bernard Shaw's play "Pygmalion." The Lerner and Loewe score includes "I Could Have Danced All Night" and "On the Street Where You Live."

FRIDAY'S BEST BETS

Major League Baseball
6:35 P.M. ON TBS

The Philadelphia Phillies, who take on the Braves in Atlanta, have a good idea by now how their club stacks up against top competition. That's because of their first 26 games, 15 were against the four National League teams that made the playoffs last year, including three in mid-April vs. Atlanta. The Phillies look to control a potent Braves' lineup, led by reigning National League MVP Chipper Jones. Jones hit 45 home runs among his team-record 87 extra base hits in 1999.

Boy Meets World
7 P.M. ON ABC

Now that the title character has outgrown the title — Cory (Ben Savage) is an old married guy now, not a boy — it's time to move on. The show's finale, "Brave New World," finds Cory and Topanga (Danielle Fishel) bidding farewell to the old gang and heading for New York. Anyone for a spinoff called "Cory in the City"? Rider Strong, Will Friedle and Matthew Lawrence also star.

The Great Antiques Hunt
7 P.M. ON HGTV

Two current TV crazes — game shows and collectibles shows — are wed in this four-part series from Britain. In each episode, teams of players are given 20 minutes at an antiques market to find a treasure. Then they rack up points by having their antiques expertise tested by experts and by auctioning off their items for — they hope — more than they paid.

Yasmine Bleeth
NASH BRIDGES

Investigative Reports
8 P.M. ON A&E

Between 1975 and 1979, nearly 2 million Cambodians died at the hands of Pol Pot and his Khmer Rouge forces, who made it their mission to destroy everything and everyone they saw as a threat to the socialist cause. "Return to the Killing Fields" travels to this scarred land to talk with survivors and perpetrators of the worst genocide since World War II.

Nash Bridges
9 P.M. ON CBS

The two-part season finale brings back wrestler "Stone Cold" Steve Austin as Jake Cage. Nash (Don Johnson) calls in Jake to help investigate when his old friend the chief of police is murdered. Part 2, airing in two weeks, will find Nash packing his bags to continue the probe in Las Vegas, and Caitlin (Yasmine Bleeth) doing some packing of her own back in San Francisco. Cheech Marin also stars.

Law & Order: Special Victims Unit
9 P.M. ON NBC

In "Remorse," Benson and Stabler (Mariska Hargitay, Christopher Meloni) finally arrest a suspect in a two-month-old sexual assault on a TV newswoman (Jennifer Esposito). They're hoping the man will lead them to his accomplice, but a bombing sets back the investigation and adds new names to the list of suspects. Meanwhile, the victim finds comfort from an unlikely source: Munch (Richard Belzer). Michelle Hurd also stars.

SATURDAY'S BEST BETS

Love Chronicles

6 P.M. ON A&E

Love is always risky, and in some cases, it's downright dangerous. Whether it's getting involved with the wrong person or getting intimate in the wrong place, the element of peril provides the spice many people crave in their relationships. Bikers, rock stars and others who enjoy living and loving on the edge are spotlighted in the encore of "Love in the Danger Zone." John Corbett hosts.

Auto Racing

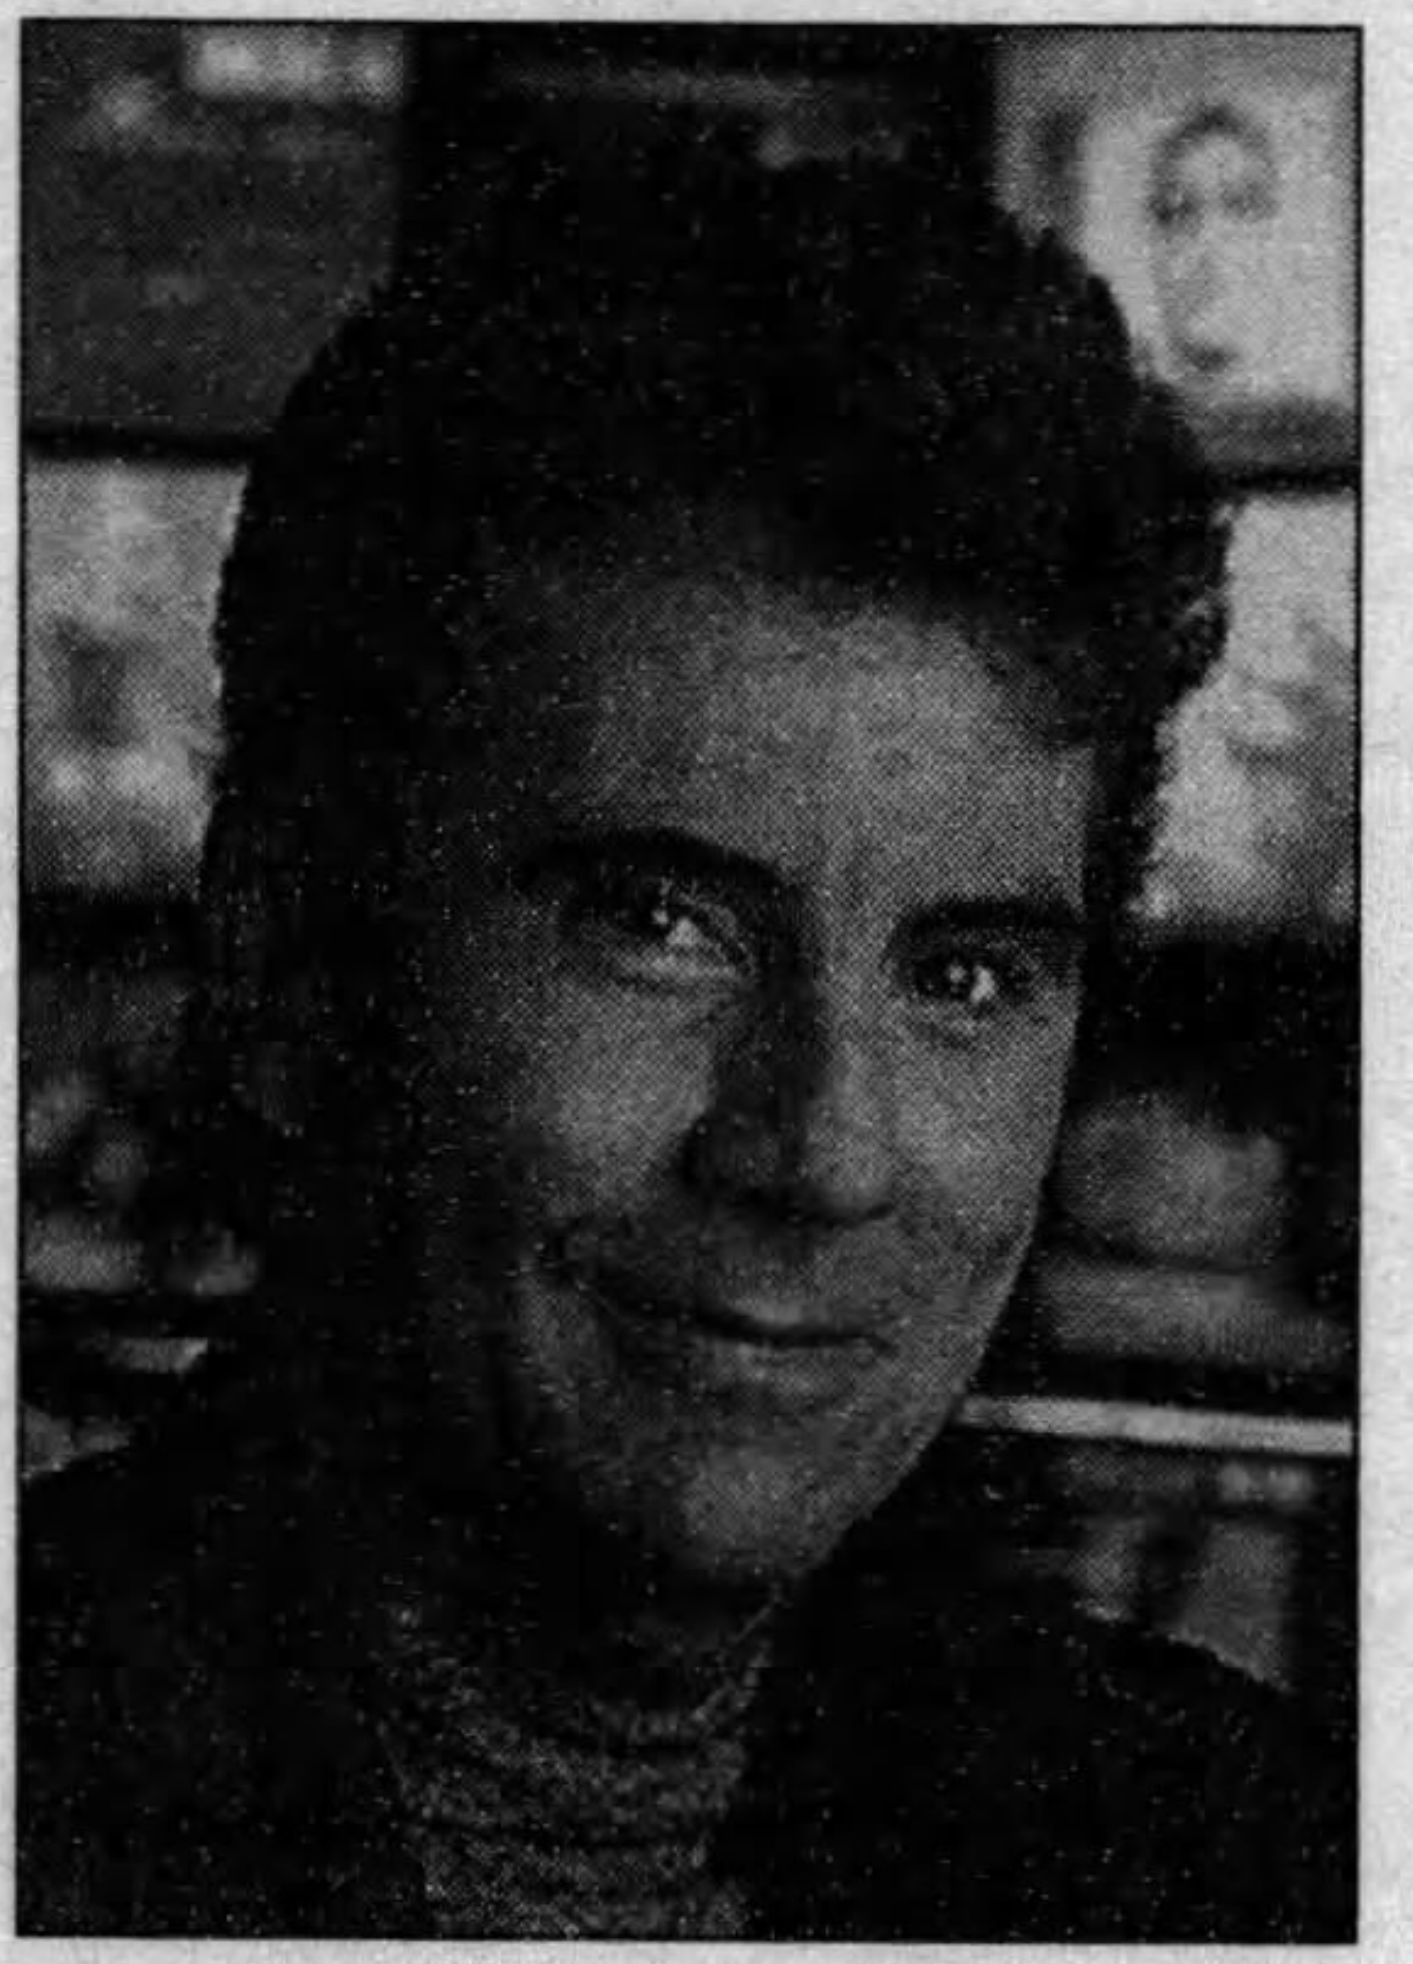
6:30 P.M. ON ESPN

From California to Virginia in less than a week, the NASCAR boys hit the road again for the Pontiac Excitement 400 from Richmond International Raceway. A year ago, Dale Jarrett's patience paid off, and when the time was right, he passed eventual runner-up Mark Martin with 32 laps to go and led the rest of the way. The win paved a smooth road for the rest of Jarrett's season, as he took over the points lead, won three more races and his first Winston Cup championship.

Movie: Jaws

7 P.M. ON ABC

Thousands of people developed a fear of swimming — even in a lake — after viewing this 1975 thriller, but it made a young Steven Spielberg a very rich man. Roy Scheider stars as the brave and resourceful police chief who teams up with a marine biologist and a shark hunter (Richard Dreyfuss, Robert Shaw) to stop a killer great white from terrorizing the community.



John Walsh

AMERICA'S MOST WANTED

Movie: Election

7 P.M. ON SHOW

Tracy Flick, the Little Ms. Perfect of her high school, looks like a shoo-in for student body president. That's the last thing the student government adviser, Mr. McAllister, wants; he detests her for, among other things, breaking up a colleague's marriage. So he persuades airheaded jock Paul to run against her. But the race really heats up when Paul's sister, a lesbian who blames her brother for a lost love, throws her hat in the ring.

America's Most Wanted: America Fights Back

8 P.M. ON FOX

John Walsh brings one of the series' cases full circle as he visits a condemned man who was caught after his story was told on the show. "Live From Death Row Special Edition" features the last interview with the prisoner, whose execution is scheduled for the following week.

Movin' With Nancy

9 P.M. ON AMC

If she lives to be a 100-year-old grandma in corrective shoes, we'll always picture Nancy Sinatra in high, sexy boots. Blame it on that infectious don't-mess-with-me anthem that made her a star: "These Boots Are Made for Walking." She can be seen performing that memorable number and her other hits in this hourlong special, part of AMC's preview of its fledgling American Pop digital network.
